Lizzie Augusta Adcock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Caloway Wyrick, was born April 31, 1884, died March 19, 1918, age 34 years, 11 months, 11 days. She was united in marriage to Ira Adcock Sept. 1900; to this union were born 10 children, 7 boys Calvin, Ralph, Arley, Stanley, William and Homer. Girls: Effie and Verry. Calvin, the oldest boy and two infant girls preceded her to the spirit land. She confessed faith in Christ, united with the Christian Church on the morning of March 19th and died in the evening of the same day.

Lizzie was born and raised near Tuscumbia, Miller Co. Mo., where she has a great many relatives and friends. She had the reputation in the neighborhood in which she lived and died as being a good neighbor and tender hearted woman. Some 3 or 4 years ago she became afflicted with lung trouble, lost her health, received treatment but all efforts failed. And in the evening of the 19th she quietly and peacefully passed out without a struggle.

Before she died she called for her children; the relatives presented the little group of 7; she gave them a mother's last farewell look. These poor little children have no mother now. Their dear mother went away. (balance of sentiments omitted here)

Among those left to mourn her loss is the husband, children, father and four sisters, Elvia Crismon, Melvia Lawson, Engie Weitz, Sarah Thompson, and Joseph, a brother. The funeral was conducted by the writer at the Mt. Zion Church in the presence of a very large congregation who had gathered there to pay their last tribute of respect, so justly due the departed. (sermon portion of obituary omitted here).

Without acting on the advice of any one the writer called for a freewill offering. The good people willingly responded to the call by contributing $22.79, this amount was turned over to Ira and the children...

The body was laid to rest in the Mt. Zion Cemetery. -C.M. Sooter

The Death Angel visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Fielding Hamilton Monday, June 19, 1922, taking away their little baby, William Brice, age 11 months, and 27 days. Little Brice was sick 20 days before God took him to that beautiful home in heaven.

He leaves father, mother, two brothers and one sister, grandparents and many other near relatives and friends to mourn his loss. But we know that our loss is his eternal gain. For the Lord giveth and he taketh away. We know he is sweetly resting in the arms of our blessed Savior and he shall suffer no more. Their darling baby was with them only a short time. He was budded on earth to bloom in heaven. All the power of many friends, father, mother and two physicians was doen but God called him home. We know that little Brice cannot come back, but thank God we can meet him if we only put our trust in God. With sorrow we can miss his little blue eyes and sweet smiles in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton.

He was laid to rest in the Capps Cemetery on the following day. So we hope and pray that we shall meet little Brice in that land of endless days where we shall dwell with him forever and ever. —by a cousin, Minnie Clark

Little Lois Marie Martin, aged 4 years, 8 months and 28 days, the youngest child of Mr. and Mrs. G.M. Martin, died at her home in Iberia, Saturday night, June 17, after a three weeks' illness of typhoid fever.

Thus over a happy home the shadows of grief have been thrown by her departure. This baby life was so precious, so fraught with blessings to her parents, brothers and sisters that she seemed a flower of paradise permitted to bloom for a brief season by their side then recalled by the all-wise Father, leaving the earth road for them dark and lonely indeed. Death it seems is a hard master. It takes from us our brightest and best, but it cannot even mar memory. The memory of little Lois' babyhood life while with us will serve as a balm to our wounded hearts.

Charles O. Melton, beloved son of Mr. and Mrs. Jno. C. Melton, departed this life at the age of 21 years, at the home of his parents in Carrollton, December 13, supposedly of heart trouble. He was sick but only a few minutes though conscious of the approaching end, and expressed the desire to be buried beside his grandmother Wright at this place.

Charlie was a model young man, kind to his parents, and fondness for home made him very dear to his aged parents and best of all, he was a member of the church for which Christ died; a regular attendant at Sunday School and gave promise of being a zealous leader in church work. He was a student of the Carrollton High School and would have graduated next spring.

Funeral services were held at his home town before he was brought to Tuscomb, but a short service was conducted at our city cemetery Monday, before his burial, attended by a large number of relatives and friends.

Besides father and mother, he leaves two step-brothers, Edgar and Donald, and numerous other relatives and friends to mourn his premature death.

The following relatives and friends from a distance attended the funeral services here: W.H. Ousley and wife and Virgil Ousley, Eldon; Mrs. Willie Melton, Illinois; Edgar Melton and daughter Olean; Donald Melton, Carrollton; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Wright, Mrs. Tol Binkley, Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Jenkins and Miss Clara Holloway of Eugene.

Mrs. W.D. Rowden (Susan Caroline), who resided in Iberia many years ago, at the time her husband was engaged in the general mercantile business here, died at her home in Crocker, Wednesday of last week, at the age of 88 years. She was well and favorably known here by many of the older residents.

She was 88 years of age at her last birthday, Nov. 27, 1932, and had a wide acquaintance and scores of warm friends by whom she was greatly admired and dearly loved. The Iberia Sentinel, August 1932

The people of Iberia and vicinity were saddened last Thursday when word reached here to the effect that Asa F. Grady had passed away at St. Anthony Hospital in St. Louis, where he submitted to a serious operation, Aug 2 of having a large carbuncle removed from the back of his neck. He had been a sufferer of diabetes for the past year or so, an ailment which had impaired his health causing the carbuncle to form and spread to such an alarming extent that an operation became necessary. However, his weakened condition failed to respond to this treatment of the last resort.

The body accompanied by his wife and his two sons, Calvin and Walter, who had been with him during his final illness, was brought back to Iberia Friday afternoon by C.L. Casey, local funeral director and interred in the town cemetery Sunday afternoon.

Impressive funeral services, conducted by one of his closest friends, Rev. Chas. M. Sooter, assisted by Rev. I.M. Cook of Waynesville, were held in the Baptist Church here Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the presence of several hundred more people than could crowd into the house. Members of the Iberia Masonic Lodge, of which he was affiliated, had charge of the burial ceremony.

Mr. Grady was one of our best and most jovial citizens and no doubt had as many friends as anyone living in Iberia. He was of a cheerful disposition and possessed a heart full of sympathy and consideration for his less unfortunate friends and neighbors.

He was one of our most influential businessmen, being the senior member of the Grady & Porter general mercantile company.

Flavious Alvin Curry, a well-known and respected citizen of the Capps community, died at his home in the village of Capps on Sunday, June 24th at 12:30 p.m. He had been in very poor health for several years, afflicted with kidney, bladder and other complications.

In the afternoon on Thursday preceding his death Sunday, he fell off the porch three feet high and received some injuries. Of course his friends picked him up and carried him in and put him to bed. It was thought by his friends that he had a stroke that caused the fall from the porch. However, he rapidly grew worse until death closed the seam and ended his suffering. His wife was at the bedside as much as possible, doing all she could, other relatives assisting, doing what they could to relieve his suffering. The writer was informed by his wife that she be near and hold his hand in hers when he came to die. She said the request was carried out.

F.A. Curry was the son of Michael and Mary Curry; was born in Mahaska County, Iowa, December 23rd 1855. His parents moved to Miller County when he was a small boy. In this county he lived all his life except about 20 years he spent in the west, returning from the west he was united in marriage to Mary Ann Piles, April 23, 1907. Rev. F.M. Stickney of Eldon performed the ceremony.

He located at Capps, went into the mercantile business. This business he followed until a few months ago when he sold out his business to Lewis Jarrett. The weight of years and failing health was the cause of his retiring. About 20 years ago he was converted and united with the Humphreys Creek Christian Church. He was an efficient and loyal member and an ardent supporter of the church. He was a member of the Order of the Knights of Pythius, Seattle, Wash. During his business years in Capps gave him the opportunity of meeting and coming in contact with all the people of the community, which gave him a large circle of friends. He was a good citizen, honest, truthful, generous hearted, good and kind to everybody; a Christian gentleman who will be missed in the home, community and Church. (lengthy testimony omitted here).

Funeral services were conducted at the Mt. Zion Church in the presence of a large congregation of sorrowing relatives and friends. Services opened with a song. After reading a number of scripture verses for opening sentences, the opening prayer was offered by Bro. Joseph Barnhart. The text was chosen from Job 19th chapter, 25th and 27 verses. A brief address was delivered. Pall bearers were Oliver Ramsey, James Barton, C.E. Abbott, Clyde Roark, Lewis Jarrett, Fielding Hamilton.

By request will mention favorite song—"Jesus Lover of My Soul", "Nearer My God to Thee", "Savior More Than Life to Me", "There Will Be No Disappointments in Heaven", and "When the Evening Shadows Gather". The sudden death of Mrs. J. L. McCommons, of near Ulman, Saturday afternoon came as a stunning shock to her many relatives and friends here and elsewhere. She apparently had been in fair health but was stricken early Saturday afternoon and passed away about 4:00 o'clock. In the absence of her husband, who was away at a distant farm at work in the fields, she managed to phone for aid from her daughter, Mrs. Wesley Clark of Ulman, who summoned a doctor and relatives here, but before they could all arrive she had passed peacefully away.

Margaret Emily, daughter of Samuel and Phoebe Caroline Graham, early pioneer citizens of Miller County, was born near Brumley, MO, Feb. 9, 1872, the youngest of a family of seven children; passed away at her home near Ulman, March 12, 1938, being at the time of her death 66 years of age.

Mr. and Mrs. McCommons in early married life lived on their farm in the Bear Creek community near Brumley, where they worked and prospered, but later moved to their present home near Ulman where they continued to live until her death. She, by her faithfulness and integrity, contributed much to the well being of her husband and children, ever admonishing and teaching them in the right, and by her conscientious devotion she was rewarded by being permitted to live to see them all prosper and establish happy homes for themselves, and what more could a kindhearted Christian mother wish? She was a devoted Christian and attended church at every opportunity, never shirking the duty of serving her Master whenever duty called. She loved everyone, and it can truly be said that she went about doing good.

Funeral services were held from the Ulman Baptist Church Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock with the Rv. Raymond Gilbreath, pastor of the Eldon Methodist Church and a dear friend of the family, and Rev. G. Omar Hickey, her former pastor, in charge. Song services were in charge of T.C. The Miller County Autogram, August 1934

The death of Mr. George Whitaker, who passed away in St. Elizabeth Hospital in Granite City, Ill., Friday morning, April 6, at 10 o’clock, again casts a gloom of sorrow over his many friends and relatives, whom he has known for many years.

Mr. Whitaker’s illness was of a short duration. He had been in good health all of his life, until he developed pneumonia fever on Monday, while visiting in Granite City. Wednesday night he was rushed to St. Elizabeth Hospital for special treatment; realizing that he was in serious condition, relatives telegraphed his wife who was at home and she came immediately and was at his bedside at the time of his death, which came Friday morning.

He was brought back to his home in the eastern part of Miller County in the Adams & Casey ambulance Saturday.

Mr. Whitaker was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Whitaker; was born August 5, 1883 and departed this life April 6, 1934, being at the time of his death 50 years, 8 months and 1 day old. He was married to Miss Hilda V. Bilyeu September 28, 1909.

Besides his wife he leaves to mourn his death one sister, Mrs. Jennie Rowden, of Dixon, Mo.; one brother, Mr. Tom Whitaker of Rolla, Mo. and a host of other relatives and friends, his brother, mother and three sisters having preceded him in death.

He was united with the Christian (New Light) Church about 25 years ago in which he remained a member until his death.

Sunday morning he was taken to the Bilyeu Cemetery, on Humphrey's Creek near Capps, where the regular funeral services were conducted by Rev. C.M. Sooter. HE was then laid to rest in the Bilyeu Cemetery, burial arrangements being in charge of Adams and Casey, Iberia undertakers.

The Iberia Sentinel, April 1936

Frank C. Ferguson and Clarence L. Casey of this place motored to Kansas City last Friday night, where they attended the double funeral services of the former's nephew, pilot Otto Ferguson, and co-pilot Harry G. Lewis, both killed in an airliner crash in Pennsylvania Tuesday of last week.

The combined rites were held in the Stine & McClure chapel Saturday morning in the presence of a large concourse of people. The main and auxiliary chapels were crowded with TWA pilots, members of the air corps reserve, relatives and friends of the two pilots when the Rev. Goodrich R. Fenner, rector of the St. Andrews Episcopal Church, took his place beside the flag-draped caskets. A huge bank of flowers covered the entire rear chapel wall.

Mr. Fenner spoke the plain ritual service of the Episcopal Church without eulogy or sermon. Both Mrs. Ferguson and Mrs. Lewis are connected with the St. Andrews Episcopal Church. The pallbearers were TWA pilots, members of the army corps reserve and other close friends of the two men.

Immediately after the funeral services the body of Mr. Ferguson was taken to Versailles for burial and that of Mr. Lewis to Columbus, Jansas.

When the body of pilot Ferguson arrived at Versailles a large crowd had gathered at the cemetery to pay their last tribute of respect to the departed airman. Brief final rites were held at the grave at three o'clock in the afternoon while two U.S. Army planes droned overhead. In their last salute to the dead pilot, the flyers dropped floral wreaths on the grave.

Ora was a single man and resided on the farm with his parents, assisting his father in the operation of the farm. His passing is sadly mourned, not only by his immediate relatives, but by his many friends and associates.

Mr. Ora Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Williams, was born June 19, 1896; died February 22, 1936 at Iberia, Missouri. It was in this community that, as a farmer, he spent the greater part of his life; and it was here that he acquired the host of friends who will mourn his passing.

Soon after the United States entered the World War, Ora enlisted in the U.S. Navy, remaining in that branch of the service until February, 1919. Subsequently he became an active member of the American Legion with his membership in the Fremont Watkins Post at Iberia.

Although he never definitely sought church membership, Ora was both by profession of belief and by example in his daily life, a Christian man. His kindly presence, his generous nature, and his sterling character generally were an inspiration to all who knew him.

Adolph Struempf

Returning from work in a St. Louis factory, Mrs. Grace Struempf found her husband, Adolph, shot and fatally wounded on the bedroom floor of their home 20_6a Cleveland Boulevard at 5:30 p.m. Thursday.

She summoned neighbors and rushed him to ST. Elizabeth's Hospital in an ambulance where he died a few minutes later in the emergency room without regaining consciousness. The bullet had entered his head just above the right ear, lodging in the brain.

Mrs. Struempf said she discovered her husband a moment after arriving home. It was not known how long he had lain wounded and alone on the floor, but Mrs. Edward Ennis, who occupies the downstairs apartment, said she heard a report and the sound of a falling object sometime around 4:30 pm., but paid no attention to it.

Less than a foot from Struempf's right hand was a new .22 calibre snub nosed revolver. The nine chambers were loaded with .22 long cartridges and one had been discharged. Nearly a full box of bullets was found in a bureau drawer in the bedroom.

Mrs. Struempf said her husband had never owned a revolver and she was not aware that he had one until she saw it on the floor beside his body. She did not know when or where he had acquired it.

Both the police and the widow believe Struempf committed suicide. While he had never threatened to take his own life, she said he had been under a St. Louis physician's care for some time due to a stomach disorder. He was also greatly worried about his elderly father, John Struempf, who is in a critical condition at St. Mary's Hospital in Jefferson City, Mo., following an operation. Mrs. Struempf said. They had gone there last weekend to visit him.

Struempf, who was 32 years old, had steady employment at the Granite City Steel Co. and worked until 3 p.m. on the day of his death. He had evidently gone home, loaded the revolver from the new box of cartridges, and killed himself.

Two sisters of Mrs. Struempf, Misses Ethel and Crethen Humphrey, who live at the Cleveland Boulevard address, were away and did not arrive home until after the body was found.

The remains were taken Saturday from Mercer's Funeral Home to St. Elizabeth, Mo., where interment was made.

Ex-Judge James Colvin Meets Tragic Death

C.L. Casey, embalmer and funeral director of Iberia, was called to prepare the body for burial. Funeral services conducted by Rev. Virgil Smith, were held Sunday afternoon, at 3 o'clock from the Mt. Union Church in Miller County, near the Colvin farm where he and his family lived prior to their moving to Camden County.

Mr. Colvin was born May 4, 1877, being 57 years, 5 months and 2 days of age at the time of his death. He was married to Maggie Cochran (other sources give her maiden name as Fendorf) and to this union thirteen children were born, ten of whom are living. He is also survived by his widow, two sisters and one brother.

Mr. Colvin bore the reputation of being a law abiding and highly respected citizen of the communities in which he resided, and his untimely death is deeply deplored by his many friends and neighbors. He served two terms as associate judge of the county court of Miller County, from the second district, and his services in this capacity proved himself a man of justice and sound judgment.

Ex-Judge James Colvin, formerly of Miller County, met a tragic death last Saturday morning when he was shot and killed on his premises by Samuel McCracken. Both Colvin and McCracken lived on the same farm known as the Dave Wiseman place near Glaize City in Camden County. The farm, which recently fell into the hands of a loan company, was owned by McCracken prior to the time the loan company took over. We are informed that Colvin leased a portion of the farm and moved onto it over a year ago and that McCracken still retained possession of a part of it. It seems that a dispute arose some time ago over possession and the division of the crops which became embittered, culminating in the tragic accident.

According to authentic reports, Colvin went afoot to the field Saturday morning in advance of his sons who were to follow in the wagon. Before advancing far into the field, it is alleged that McCracken had concealed himself, armed with a shotgun, behind a corn shock and as Colvin approached, McCracken fired, the discharge from the weapon hitting Colvin in the shoulder, inflicting a ghastly wound.

No one witnessed the shooting, but judging from the tracks found on the ground, it appeared that Colvin had been able to recover his standing position and when he arose he was shot again, the discharge from the gun this time tearing away the entire front part of his face. McCracken fired, leaving his gun and when the Colvin boys reached the scene of the battle their father was breathing his last.

The sheriff of Camden County was at once notified of the fatal shooting and he joined by a posse of neighbors and other nearby citizens, went in pursuit of the alleged criminal. He was taken near Toronto and after being forced to surrender, he confessed, it is said, to the crime. His alibi was that that he did the shooting in self defense, claiming that Colvin approached him with an open knife, however this statement was refuted by the finding that Colvin's knife was still closed in his pocket. McCracken was arrested and placed in the Camden County jail at Camdenton to await his preliminary hearing which, we understand, was held Monday.

Louis G. Forbes of this place, another one of the few survivors of the Civil War, departed this life Sunday evening after a two years or more illness. He was widely known throughout south Miller County, having been a citizen of Iberia and vicinity for many years. His death leaves only one Civil War Veteran of the Union Army on the south side of the county, the only survivor being Com. John Ferguson of Iberia.

Louis G. Forbes was born March 26, 1846, in the state of Kentucky. He passed away in Latham's Hospital in California, Mo. Sunday evening, April 5th, 1936 at the age of 90 years and 10 days. Brief services under the auspices of the American Legion post at Iberia were held at the Tyler Cemetery east of Iberia Tuesday afternoon. Interment was made under direction of the Adams & Casey funeral service of Iberia.

The Iberia Sentinel, June 1936

Everett Bilyeu (spelled Belyeu on the death certificate), 52, farmer of near St. Anthony, was shot by Everett Stark, his neighbor, at noon Sunday and died almost instantly from a charge of No. 2 shot fired at close range from a 10-gauge double-barrel shotgun. The charge struck Bilyeu just below the heart and tore a two-inch hole in Bilyeu's abdomen, death coming almost instantly.

Stark and Bilyeu lived on the same farm, the Taylor Shelton place. Stark at the old building down on Wimmer Creek and Bilyeu at the log house on that part of the farm known as the George Clark place, which had, in recent years, been purchased and added to the larger creek farm.

According to information available, Stark and his wife had on various occasions in the past, been quarreling. On Saturday, Mrs. Stark left her home and went on the hill to the Bilyeu house. Later in the night, Stark came to the Bilyeu home and demanded that Bilyeu give him a gun which belonged to Mr. Shelton. Bilyeu refused, and Stark claims that Bilyeu fired the gun at him as he was in the act of entering his car, a number of the shot striking the car, but not injuring Stark.

Then early Sunday morning Stark came up to the Bilyeu home and both parties apologized. Later the same morning Bilyeu took with him a bucket of scraps to feed his dog which he had loaned to Stark, and went down to the Stark home. This was the last time Bilyeu's family saw him alive.

About 12:30 Stark approached the home of a neighbor, Joe M. Bax, and told him that he had shot Bilyeu, and said he wanted to call Frank Burks of Iberia, deputy sheriff, and give up. Burks then called Sheriff Lafe King, who went to the scene of the tragedy.

Sheriff King found the body of Bilyeu lying in a draw between the garage and the machinery shed. He was lying on his back, his right hand over his head and clutching his cap, while at his side was a pitchfork and near his feet was the bucket of scraps, undisturbed. There were no eye-witnesses to the shooting.

Stark told the Sheriff that Bilyeu threatened him with a pitchfork, and that he fired while standing on the approach to the garage, which was a distance of about eight or ten feet from Bilyeu.

King said further that Stark had phoned to him Saturday night asking him to come down and settle a family quarrel, but that he had refused to do so unless Stark would issue a warrant.

Stark was brought to Tuscumbia and lodged in jail awaiting this report of the Coroner, Dr. J.R. Ellison. The inquest will be held at St. Elizabeth Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock of this week.

The body of the victim was taken to Iberia by Adams & Casey, undertakers and burial was held at the Bilyeu Cemetery Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock.

Bilyeu was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Fielding Bilyeu and was born and reared on Humphrey's Creek, eight miles east of Tuscumbia. He was married (his wife being a daughter of John Maylee), and they had three or four children, one son being in CCC camp in California. John and Arthur Bilyeu of the Humphrey's Creek community, and Sgt. Roscoe Bilyeu, instructor in the Army school at Ft. Benning, Ga. are brothers.

Mrs. Cleo Cochran, wife of Jabe Cochran of the Keethtown community, died of spinal meningitis Tuesday morning about 1 o'clock following a brief illness. Everything that loving hands and a skilled physician could do to save her life was of no avail.

Due to the nature of the disease, which necessitated strict precaution, only brief services were held at the home, conducted by Revs. Virgil Smith and Frank Money maker. Burial was made in the Mt. Union Cemetery Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock under direction of Adams & Casey, Iberia undertakers.

Mrs. Cochran was a daughter of Frank McDowell and a twin sister of Mrs. Everett Slawson of near Iberia. Her age was 25 years, two months and 26 days. The immediate members of her family that survive her are her husband and three small children—two sons and a daughter.

Little Herbert Jackie, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Keeth, was born November 20, 1936 and died Nov. 22, 1936 at 10:30 a.m., being 37 hours old. He leaves to mourn his death—father and mother, two brothers and a sister, Roy, Lewis and Earsie Mae.

He only budded on earth to blossom in Heaven

Dear little Herbert Jackie, our home was made so happy by your coming, but was made so very lonely and our hearts made so sad when thou did depart. Like a dew-drop, you were dropped into our hands. Why you faded from earth so soon, in Heaven we hope some day to understand.

The Iberia Sentinel, October 1936

This community was saddened latter part of last week when the news was chronicled that Mrs. Elmer Karr, one of our fine Christian women, and her two infant babes (girls) were dead. Mrs. Karr became critically ill on Friday and was rushed to the Wallace Hospital in Lebanon in the Adams & Casey ambulance. The twin girls were stillborn Friday night and their mother passed away Saturday evening, thus leaving a once happy home a place of sorrow which will be hard to erase.

The mother and her infant babes were brought back to Iberia and prepared for burial, all three in the same casket by Adams and Casey, local funeral directors.

Frances Kinder was born August 1897, in Chicago, where she spent the first few years of her life. Because of the death of her mother, when she was only three years of age, she was sent to the Deaconess Home at Dover, Illinois. It was at Dover that she received her public school education, and it was during these years that she made a profession of Christian faith and united with the Congregational Church at that place. A few years ago she had her membership transferred to the Congregational Church of Iberia.

Through the influence of Rev. Cotton, who was pastor at Dover, Illinois and who had been a former pastor in Iberia, and Prof. Smith, Mrs. Karr came to Iberia where she studied in the Academy. It was here that she met Mr. Elmer Karr who later became her husband. Mr. and Mrs. Karr were united in marriage June 17, 1923 in the Congregational Church at Dover, Illinois. After their marriage they came to Iberia and in this vicinity have made their home.

To Mr. and Mrs. Karr six children were born, namely Charles, Emma, Howard, Eula May and the infant twins. Mrs. Karr has always been a courageous woman, an affectionate wife and mother and a woman of good Christian character. She leaves to mourn her passing, her husband, her four children, two sisters, Mrs. Sophie Rapp of Chicago and Mrs. Bessie Lottis of Crown Point, Indiana, and a number of relatives.

Mrs. Karr died at the Wallace Hospital in Lebanon Saturday, October 17. She was taken to the hospital on Friday. Funeral services were conducted at the home west of Iberia by Rev. P.J. Eckhoff and Professor G. Byron Smith. Burial was made at the Hickory Point Cemetery under the direction of Adams & Casey, local undertakers.

There are some apparent discrepancies/errors in the following obituary. Her death certificate lists her birth ad 19 Aug 1870. If she had been married on the date shown here, she would have been 10 years old. Informant on her death certificate was Lucy Rowden Dake. Her husband's death certificate lists his date of death as 3 Mar 1915.

Mrs. Mary Rowden, who had been in poor health for some time, died of a heart attack last Friday here at the home of her daughter, Mrs. George Dake, with whom she was making her home. Mrs. Mary (Burks) Rowden was born in Iberia August 19, 1871, being 65 years, two months and four days old at the time of her death.

She was married to Joseph Rowden Nov. 8, 1880, and to this union seven children were born, two dead and five living, Mrs. Daisey Hickey, Topeka, Kansas; Pat Rowden, Whiting, Indiana, Mrs. George Dake, Iberia, Missouri, Mrs. Pearl Henson, Dixon, Missouri, and Otto Rowden, St. Anthony, Missouri.

At the age of thirteen she became a member of the Christian Church. Mr. Rowden died March 3, 1914. Mrs. Rowden was the last surviving member of the Burks family, her two brothers having passed away several years ago.

For many years prior to the death of Mr. Rowden, they owned and operated a farm a few miles northeast of Iberia. Since that time Mrs. Rowden has been spending a good portion of her time among her children.

Funeral services conducted by reverend Bill Akery of Dixon, were held in the Iberia Church of the Nazarene Sunday afternoon, after which interment was made in the Bray's Cemetery four miles east of Iberia.

The Iberia Sentinel, October 1936

The Iberia Sentinel, July 1936

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Humphrey, of near the Union Church east of Iberia, was the scene of another tragic accident Tuesday morning shortly before noon hour, when their fourteen-year-old granddaughter, Grace Genevieve Eiffert, daughter of William Eiffert of south of Iberia, met almost instant death from the accidental discharge of a 22 rifle in the hands of her sixteen-year-old brother, Carl. She lived only about forty minutes after she was shot.

Carl had just traded for the gun, had brought it home and was, in some manner, trying to adjust the shell. He was standing up and his sister, Grace Genevieve, was sitting down in a chair near him when the gun accidentally went off. The ball entered her right side and ranged downward and it is thought that it lodged in one of the vertebrae of the spine, since she was rendered unconscious and lived only a short time.

Since the death of her mother on March 12, 1928, Grace Genevieve, her younger sister, Marjorie, age 13, and her brother, Carl, have been making their home with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Humphrey.

As the Sentinel goes to press, according to present arrangements, funeral services will be held at the Union Church, four miles east of Iberia, Thursday morning at ten o'clock. It is not definitely known at this time who will preach the funeral discourse. The entire community mourns the untimely death of this young lady.

Also a host of other relatives and friends.

Funeral services were conducted at the Christian Church at Tuscumbia by the pastor of the Methodist Church of Linn Creek.

Information I have from other reliable sources gives the following individual's name as William Riley Keeth, not Wriley R. Keeth. I'm typing this obituary as it appeared in the paper.

The Iberia Sentinel, February 1936

Wriley R. Keeth passed away at his home near Panama, Oklahoma Saturday, February 8, of pneumonia. If he had lived only a few hours longer until Sunday morning, he would have reached the age of 71 years. He had been in poor health for the past two or three years.

Mr. Keeth was well known in Iberia and vicinity, he having resided on a farm near Iberia for many years prior to his moving to Oklahoma about nineteen years ago. He reared a large family of twelve children, nine sons and three daughters, all of whom are living, the father's death being the first in the family. The children are Frank of Wheatland, Calif., Eddie of Corona, Calif., Elmer of Iberia, Mo., Lloyd, Leonard, Arthur, Roy and Ralph (twins), Walter, Mrs. James Slone and Mrs. Evelyn Johnston, all of Panama, Okla., and Mrs. Clara Hale of Longview, Washington. All were present except Frank and Mrs. Clara Hale. Besides the children he is survived by his wife, 62 years of age, two brothers and one sister, namely: Johnta and Simon Keeth and Mrs. Robert Whittle, all of near Iberia, Mo.

Funeral services were held in the Baptist Church at Shady Point near Panama and interment was made in the cemetery at that place under direction of the Heavener Burial Association. The many relatives and friends here of the deceased join in extending heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved.

The Iberia Sentinel, April 1936

Mrs. George Winfrey, an aged lady of the community east of Brumley, died Thursday, April 23, after a long illness. Funeral services were held on Friday 24 and burial made in the Hawkins Cemetery under direction of Adams & Casey funeral services of Iberia.

This makes the third death in this home during the past few months. On January 31, Mrs. Wilfred Winfrey died of pneumonia and on February 6th Mrs. Walter Groce, mother of Mrs. Winfrey also died of pneumonia which she contracted while waiting on her daughter.

According to this obituary, Mrs. George Winfrey's mother was Mrs. Walter Groce. However, the death certificate for Mrs. George Winfrey lists the deceased wife as Sarah Jane Hurt, daughter of Elzy and Elizabeth Jane Garman Hurt.

Mrs. Wilfred Winfrey, also mentioned, is Ersal Ellen Groce, daughter of Walter P. and Bertha Thornsberry Groce.

THE MILLER COUNTY VIDETTE, Tuscumbia, MO, Thursday October 14, 1875

"Last week we noticed the death of one of our most respected citizens, Owen Riggs. We will now attempt a review of his life. He was born in Tyler Co., West Virginia. Was usually called the 'long reach' on the Ohio River. At his death he was 59 years old.

From boyhood, he was raised on a farm on which he was born, and was an industrious and faithful boy, he thus worked until manhood. At this time he done some boating on the Ohio and Missipp (sic) at odd spels when not busy on the farm.

In the year 1838, he came to Miller County and purchased some real estate with a view of someday locating here, but remained on the Virginia farm and continued boating here, but remained on the Virginia farm and continued boating on the Ohio and Mississippi until 1844 when he came to Miller Co. to live.

One of his first deeds and boldest ventures of his eventful life, was the building of a flat boat on the Tavern (Tavern) creek in this county, load it with pork, taking it down the Osage, Missouri and Mississippi rivers into the Yazoo Pass, trading. Finally went down the Mississippi and closed out his load of pork at Vicksburg. He then came back to Miller Co., where he engaged in farming, raising stock, buying and shipping to a very great extend.

In 1847, he married the daughter of Henry C. Lurton, by whom he had 2 daughters, who are both living and married. His first wife died in 1858. In 1863 he married Madada (Malinda) Birdsong, by whom he had 2 children who are now living to mourn his loss.

In 1857, he went into partnership with D. Cunningham (Daniel Cummings) in which venture he lost heavily. During these many years he bought wheat, corn, and tobacco and shipped it. Cororants (cronies) took advantage of his kindness and nichered from him.

He died comparitive poor. His father is still living on the old farm where Owen started in life and is now over 100 years old (born circa 1775). We believe he has but one brother living, Edmond Riggs, who is a resident of this county. During the war the Bushwhackers, supposing him to have a large amount of money and in attempting to force him to disgorge, they built a fire in the woods and burned his legs into a crisp, from which he suffered for many years. In fact, it shattered his constitution so that he never recovered his former self. This was one of the most self (sic) acts that was perpetrated during the War in this part of Missouri.

This imperfect and brief sketch is all we can give as it is next to impossible to get the correct data. We have lost one of our worthiest citizens. May his departed spirit rest in peace....."

NOTE: Owen Riggs established the original town of Old St.Elizabeth on the Osage River in 1869, located on the east bank. He helped to establish the first Catholic Church in Miller Co. when it was built at Old St. Elizabeth about 1870. Owen Riggs once owned 6000 acres in Miller County in its early days. It took 9 years to settle his estate after his death. With his death came the slow demise of Old St.Elizabeth on the Osage.

Mrs. Johnta Keeth, of the community west of Iberia, was gored by an infuriated cow last Saturday morning when she went to the barn to milk. In attempting to separate the mother cow from her young calf, the cow became enraged and began to hook Mrs. Keeth, inflicting with her horns serious injuries about the face, leg and breast. She received two ugly lacerations on the cheek and forehead and another one on her leg. But the most alarming injury was serious bruises about the breast caused by the maddened animal pushing and rolling her on the ground after she was knocked down. For some time Mrs. Keeth's condition was intensely alarming and her husband, who was visiting in Oklahoma, was at once called home as well as her children who lived at a distance.

Dr. F.C. Suggett, the attending physician, reported Mrs. Keeth somewhat improved Wednesday morning and thinks she will recover if no further complications set up.

Mrs. Johntie Keeth (nee Louisa Ellen Stone) of near Iberia, who was gored by an infuriated cow on Saturday morning of November 10th, died of the injuries sustained last Saturday evening about 6 o'clock. For awhile it was thought the injuries would not prove fatal, but complications set up which made her recovery beyond the reach of medical skill.

Mrs. Keeth was a daughter of the late Julius Stone, a well known resident of south Miller County. She was near 72 years of age at the time of her death. She was married to Johntie Keeth many years ago and to this union six children were born, namely: Julius and Everett Keeth of near Iberia, Mrs. Flora Sturdavant of Tulsa, Okla., Wilbert Keeth of Crocker and Mrs. Cora Irwin of Rolla who survive her, one child having died in early life. She is also survived by her husband.

Funeral services conducted by Rev. Virgil Smith of Brumley, were held from the Oak View Christian Church Saturday afternoon, at 3 o'clock, after which the body was conveyed to the Pleasant Hill Cemetery nearby for burial, under direction of Adams & Casey, local undertakers.

Mrs. Keeth was a Christian woman and her passing will deprive the community of one of its most noble women.

Dr. A.P. Nixdorf, a resident of Pleasant Farm for many years, died at his home at that place at 6 o'clock last Saturday morning. He had been very ill for a week before, hence his death was not unexpected. He was buried Sunday afternoon at the family graveyard on the farm.

The deceased leaves a wife, five sons and four daughters, besides a very large circle of friends to mourn his death.

Dr. Nixdorf was 74 years and 13 days old. He was born in Leignitz Province of Selascia, Prussia, Jan. 14, 1832. His mother died soon after, leaving 5 small children. At an early age his father remarried and moved to Breslau, Prussia, where he reared his family.

He graduated at the University of Breslau with high honors, and then pursued the study of medicine. His studies were interrupted by having to serve one year in the military of Prussia. Some time thereafter, a young American who was studying law at the university, advised him to come to America.

He first located at Lennox, Mass., where he accepted a position as professor of the German language in a female college. He was thus engaged for more than a year when he came to St. Louis where he entered the St. Louis Medical College, meanwhile working as a billing clerk for a wholesale dry goods firm, graduating from he class of 1855-56.

After practicing there for some time, he came to Miller County, locating at Tuscumbia. He then purchased the Pleasant Farm land, residing there until his death.

While living in Tuscumbia, his was one of 21 votes recorded in Equality Township for Abraham Lincoln in 1856. He enlisted as a surgeon in the Home Guards and was later made surgeon of the Miller and Camden County Rangers, commanded by Capt Jont. Salsman. His wife was Miss Wilhelmina A.C. Moehle, who was born in Breslau, Prussia, in 1838, to whom 14 children were born, nine of whom are now living.

Andrew Jackson Bowline - Born August 12, 1841, Died February 13, 1916.

The subject of this sketch was born in Platt County Missouri in 84 and at the age of short five years came with his father, Benjamin Franklin Bowlin to Miller County where he resided until he was about 8 years old, when he moved to Laclede County, but in 1880 he returned to Miller County where he has since lived. Uncle Jack grew up on the Glaize where his father ran a grist mill, a still house and a farm. He learned to be industrious and early in life affiliated with the Baptist Church of which he has been a member throughout his life time. At the age of 18 years he was married to Elizabeth Bird who was a daughter of George Bird of Cooper County, Missouri. In 1885 she was called to that unknown country from whose bourne no traveler returns.

To this union were born thirteen children, eight boys, all living, and five girls, three of whom have passed on to their rest.

In 1888, Mr. Bowlin was married to Sarah Johnson who survives him. To this union one child was born, P. B. Bowlin who has lived with his father and mother on the farm and will continue to live there and care for his mother.

In 1908 on his 66th anniversary and exactly 100 years from the birth of his father, Uncle Jack was made glad by a family reunion at which time all of his children were present as well as his good friends and neighbors. This was the first and only time that he ever saw all of his children together, however they have all been at his bedside during his sickness and death except his son Everett.

The only living brother, Delaney Bowlin came from Tulsa, Oklahoma to see Uncle Jack but arrived too late to be recognized. He is now at Eldon in a serious condition. His other brothers Newton and John and Frank as well as Martha, Elizabeth and Harriett, his three sisters have preceded him to the life beyond the grave.

Andrew Jackson Bowlin was an old soldier being a corporal in Company "B" 46th Regiment, Missouri Infantry. He was honorably discharged and drew a pension during the latter years of his life.

Besides his widow and children he leaves 32 grandchildren and 6 great grand children to mourn their loss as well as his church and many friends.

Uncle Jack Bowline was a noble man, a kindly neighbor, a loving husband, a dutiful father and a good and honorable citizen. He lived an active life, was very supple for a man of his years. May his children as well as all of us emulate his exemplary life.

The funeral was at Riverview Church of which Mr. Bowline was a member the services were conducted by Elder J. S. Mahan, in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives. Though we will not again see Uncle Jack's face, we know that his influence was for good and he will live always in our hearts and minds, made better by his having passed this way. It is our desire to express our sympathy to the bereaved family who are in great sorrow and to give to them the comfort in the God of the Universe who cares for them as well.

PROMINENT TAVERN FARMER PASSES AWAY

Conrad Kemna Dead After an Illness of Several Weeks

On Saturday afternoon, August 4th, (1923) Conrad Kemna departed from this life. A complicated liver trouble from which the patient suffered intensely for several weeks was the cause of death.

Funeral services were held at St. Lawrence Church Sunday afternoon. A Requiem High Mass was celebrated by Rev. F. Bruch Monday morning for the repose of the soul of the departed one. He was near seventy-five years old. Deceased was born and grew to manhood in Osage County. Later he came to Miller County and was one of our most prominent pioneer citizens.

He was married to Miss Mary Bode in the year 1873. She preceded him in death last January a year ago. Their union was blessed with a number of children of whom six survive as follows; Henry, Frank, Ben, Theodore, Adolph, and Mrs. Josephine Stuckenschneider. The children are all married and live in this community. Thirty grandchildren survive who have lost one who was quite fond of them all.

The deceased was a resident of Miller County for nearly 50 years. In the dawn of his manhood he procured a tract of land on the Big Tavern about two miles east of St. Elizabeth. Through many years of persistent toil he converted this tract into one of the finest and best improved farms of this section. Then later, he bought the Bode farm adjoining the old homestead. It is now owned by the son Henry, while the home place has been divided between the sons; Theo., Adolph and Frank. Several years ago the deceased acquired the Dr. J. S. Gregory property in the village of St. Elizabeth to which the couple retired.

It is needless to say that the good works of this veteran leader and Christian soldier will shine forward in this community for a long time. He was a man with strong convictions, a clear vision and a big heart. He was always a staunch Catholic and was well supplied with the graces of this religion when he died.

The premature death of this honorable man is deeply regretted. As a citizen he was in the front ranks. In all his dealings, he was ever known to be sincere, and an honest man. As a countryman, he was patriotic and unafraid. His family life was an exemplification of a true and faithful husband and father. He died well fortified with the last rites of Holy Mother Church. The Eye-Opener, Tuscumbia, Mo., Thursday, January 14, 1892

'Tis with a sad heart and feeling of regret that we this week chronicle the death of Clarence E. Folsom, son of Mrs. John W. Fogelman, who was one of Tuscumbia's most promising young men, and whose sickness we mentioned last week.

A week ago last Sunday Clarence had a tooth pulled and went skating. His face began to swell and erysipelas set in causing blood poison and his lungs also became affected by the cold he had taken and pneumonia set in. It seemed beyond medical skill to give him relief and at 9 p.m. on Monday he departed this life.

Deceased was the only living son of T.A. and A.P. Folsom, having had three brothers or sisters to go before him.

The funeral was preached at the Presbyterian Church by Rev. L.S. Garrett, of Aurora Springs, on Wednesday at 2 p.m., who selected as his text the thirty-second verse of the twenty-fourth chapter of Matthew. From the church the remains were conveyed to the city cemetery for interment followed by a vast concourse of relatives and friends.

The pall bearers were John W. Adcock, Edward Kallenbach, Willie Earp, Chas. Thompson, Wm. M. Cummings and A.B. Breen who were his most intimate friends in life.

We extend our heart-felt sympathy to the mother and other relatives in this their sad bereavement.

The Miller County Vindicator, Tuscumbia, Mo., Friday, May 20, 1881

Last Sunday evening James Allen, a colored boy about 14 years old, went to the Tavern Creek about two miles east of this Place (Tuscumbia) to go in bathing, and while in the water he got beyond his depth and was drowned. He had been saved once before during the day by another colored boy who rescued him at the risk of his own life, but this time there was no one but some small boys with him, and he had to take the result of his own rashness. His body was recovered in about two hours.

The Miller County Vindicator, Tuscumbia, Mo., Friday, August 26, 1881

Died-August 21st, Marion Manning of Sand Hill congregation. Bro. Manning was a Christian and was well beloved by all good people. We sympathize with his relatives and the congregation of which he was a worthy member. His loss will be felt by both; but he gains all and loses nothing. Blessed thought.

The Miller County Vindicator, Tuscumbia, Mo., Friday, November 25, 1881

Mr. Oathanial Wyrick departed this life on the 6th of November, 1881 at the residence of his son V.L. Wyrick in Seligman, Berry County, MO., after a long illness of ten weeks in which time he entirely lost his eyesight, and his world was total darkness to him for about two and one-half months. He was at his son's when he was taken to his bed. During his sickness, his son moved to Seligman. When Grandfather was brought in my house he was not there long until he began to mend. In two weeks he could set up and see one walking about him, and in six weeks from the time he was brought to my house, he could walk across the floor with only the support of his cane, and he could see tolerable well, could distinguish persons, and on the 20th of May when he was taken away he was able to walk out to the hack. This was another trying day for Grandfather. He did not want to leave my family, for he often told me so, nor was I willing for him to leave, only on certain conditions, and this we thought for his benefit, but instead of his getting better, he grew worse. After they reached the station about one mile distant, they entered the cars and fifty miles weary ride for poor Grandfather. They landed in Seligman, where he was taken to his bed again, and suffered those long summer days, through, when God relieved him of his pain, on the 6th day of November, 181, at the age of 67 years, 3 months and 25 days . My dear relatives and friends, if God spares our lives, we will all grow old and we will all need helping hand, to support our tottering footsteps.

My dear relatives, Grandfather is gone to try the realities of an unknown world to us, and we know not how long it will be before we are called to try the same. So therefore let us be prepared to meet the Father in peace; let us so live that we can say as Grandfather did, we are willing to die, we are willing to leave this world. May God grant us all a peaceful and willing hour in which to die. Let us be prepared to meet those who have crossed over the river of death, for

They are watching at the portal,
They are waiting at the door;
Waiting only for our coming,
Oh! The loved ones gone before.

The bereaved ones will have their grief shared by one granddaughter of the deceased.

The Miller County Vindicator, Friday, November 3, 1882

Belle A. Weldon, wife of Thomas H. Weldon departed this life Oct. 16th, 1882, after an illness of 23 days. She was born in Miller County, Mo., February 28th, 1862, and became a member of the Christian Church some four years ago near the time she was married.

She was the mother of two dear little jewels, one a little boy had fallen asleep July 25th, and its little spirit was the first to enter the bright spirit land. As a wife she was all that could be expected of mortal woman—ever kind, loving, sympathizing and protecting. She lived true to her profession, and her life was full of golden fruits of the spirit.

The bereaved have the sympathy of many friends, and they have the blessed assurance that her spirit is at rest.

Unknown Publication, April 1911

Our people were saddened Tuesday afternoon, April 18, 1911, when it was learned that Elias Stillwell, one of our aged and respected pioneer citizens had died at the family home on Main Street that afternoon at 2:30 O'clock.. His condition has been critical several weeks since he received a fall and his death was not unexpected.

Elias Stillwell was born July 30, 1820, in Hancock County, Maryland, and had he lived until July 30 he would have been ninety-one years of age. At the age of nineteen years he left home, going to Jelloway, Knox County, Ohio, where he was married to Mary Ann Hamrick in 1844. To this union six children were born, four of whom survive, Orl, of Warrensburg; Robert of Pleasant Hill, Millard of Warrensburg, and Mrs. Ola St. Clair, of Kansas City. Mrs. Stillwell departed this life in 1858. The family moved to Pettis County, Missouri, and at the breaking out of the Civil War Mr. Stillwell was living in Georgetown. He responded to the call of President Lincoln for three months' volunteers and enlisted in the 6th Mo. Cavalry. After the expiration of his enlistment he located in Sedalia. In 1864 he moved to Warrensburg and engaged in the mercantile business. In 1865 he was married to Mary Ann Brinkmann, to whom seven children were born, four of whom survived their father as follows: Walter S. of Tuscumbia; Oren of Muskogee, Oklahoma; Ira of the Phillipine Islands and Miss Stella who is still at home.

When but twenty years of age Mr. Stillwell united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, remaining a member of the church and living a consistent Christian life for more than seventy years. In his dealings with his fellow men he was strictly honest, upright and charitable, and his good deeds will long be a consolation and a pleasant memory to his bereaved relatives and friends. His was a long and useful live and the world is the better for his living. It is to such citizens as the deceased that honor is due for this development of the country and making it possible for those of the present day to enjoy our wholesome institutions following in the wake of the privations suffered by our pioneers. Such lives as Mr. Stillwell lived will long remain fresh in the memory of those who knew him.

The Miller County Autogram-Sentinel, February 1928

Willard Bear was born Oct. 13, 1888, died Feb 25, 1928, at his home in Ulman, Mo., being at the time of his death 39 years, four months and 12 days old. He suffered for two weeks more than mortal tongue can tell, yet he bore his suffering with the greatest patience. All that skilled physicians, willing hands and loving hearts could do, was done, but all to no avail. His work was done and the Lord said, "Come up higher."

When but a youth he joined the U.S. Army and served his country three years, 18 months of that time being spent in the Philippine Islands. He enlisted in the World War May 28, 1917. He was Sergeant of Co. E. 157th Inf. He served 18 months in France and was honorably discharged April 29, 1919.

He was a member of the Masonic order at Brumley. Last, but not least, he was a member of the Church of Christ, the writer having had the pleasure of taking his confession and baptizing him into Christ Dec. 26, 1926. He was faithful to the church and Bible school. He never failed to be at the little church house on Lord's Day morning. We shall meet, but we shall miss him.

Funeral services were held from the Ulman Church of Christ Monday, Feb. 27, at which time the writer tried to speak words of comfort to the sorrowing ones. From there he body was conveyed to the Hickory Point Cemetery by Adams & Casey, undertakers. Here again the body was viewed by relatives and friends who could not be present at the funeral.

After the last sad rites he was borne by his Masonic brothers to his last resting place where one of the most impressive services was held I ever witnessed. The little mound that hid from view his lifeless form was covered with the most beautiful flowers I ever saw. Brother Bear leaves to mourn their loss an aged mother with whom he was living and caring for at the time of his death; also six sisters, a host of other relatives and friends. And now to those to whom he was near and dear—let us bow our heads in humble submission to Him that doeth all things well and until that great day we say, dear son, dear brother, dear one, farewell.—R.F. Moneymaker, Crocker

The Eldon Advertiser, October 1918

W.T. Franklin, son of Mr. and Mrs. J.S. Franklin, one of the most prominent and wealthy pioneer families of Miller County, passed away at Camp Pike, Ark., Thursday and the body was brought home Friday and buried in the Eldon Cemetery. A very large crowd attended the services held on the home lawn Sunday afternoon.

A splendid choir and Decker's Band furnished music and an impressive sermon was preached by Rev. W.L. Reese, pastor of the Christian Church assisted by Rev. Edmond Wilkes of Columbia, a former pastor.

William Thomas Franklin was born in Eldon, June 16, 1897. He became a member of the Christian Church in August 1907. He graduated from the local High School in the year 1915 and graduated from Culver Military Academy in 1916 where they conferred on him a membership in the Black Horse Troop, which is considered an honor. For a year and a half he was a student in the Missouri University and a member of the Greek Letter Fraternity, Phi Delta Theta.

He volunteered in the United States Army on the 17th of June 1918. He received appointment to the Infantry Officers Training Camp and was called to Camp Pike, Ark., August 19, 1918. He was a member of the 6th Company, 2nd Battalion, Infantry Officers Training Camp. The family was glad that he was patriotic and loved his country and humanity enough to offer himself for service in this, the world's greatest crisis. His Captain in the following letter to his father speaks of him in most admirable terms:

“Mr. J.S. Franklin, Eldon, Mo., My dear Mr. Franklin:

It is my duty to inform you that your son, Private William T. Franklin, died at 4:20 a.m., October 10, 1918 of Bronchopneumonia, bilateral. Your son entered the Base Hospital, Camp Pike, Ark., Oct. 4, 1918.

He was an excellent soldier and generous. Though his privileges and circumstances might have caused him to be otherwise yet there were none of the lowly too humble for his association, and to be recipients of his kindness and generosity. His father told me this morning that he had this consolation, “He was a good boy.”

In our church association we found him most attentive. While at home he was always present at our Sunday School and church and seldom were the doors open that Will was not there.

Mrs. Carrender, who observed her 100th birthday last Dec. 8, died shortly after midnight Thursday morning, July 12, she passed away at the home in Eldon where she lived with two daughters, Mrs. Essie Wynkoop and Mrs. May Dobson. She was a lifetime resident of Miller County, and had lived in Eldon for 40 years.

Mrs. Carrender, noted for her uncomplaining nature and kind words for everyone, had been a partial invalid since suffering a broken hip Dec. 22, 1950. A broken arm suffered in a fall more than five years ago, further complicated her difficulties in moving around the house. However her health in general had been good until Aug 10, 1961. When questioned about her condition, though she never complained, and often replied to visitors, "I feel pretty good; if I feel this well tomorrow, I think I'll get up."

Mrs. Carrender enjoyed the hobbies of knitting and piecing quilts until her broken wrist curtailed these activities. She maintained an interest in events and regularly listened to the radio. When her health no longer permitted her to attend church, she listened to sermons and hymns on the air and up until two months ago, joined in singing gospel songs she heard on the radio.

Mrs. Carrender, whose life span stretched from the Civil War to the space age was born Dec. 8, 1861, on a farm four and a half miles north of Tuscumbia. She was the oldest child in the family of seven children of W.T. and Irene Ann (Tomson) Harrison. She was reared on this family farm, and attended school in the Wright district, a log schoolhouse in the Saline Creek community. Her mother passed away when she was 16 years of age, and she assumed the care of her younger brothers and sisters.

On August 14, 1881, she was married to W.G. Carrender, and they started housekeeping on a farm in the Saline Creek community east of Eldon. Most of her more than 100 years were spent within 12 miles of her birthplace.

Her husband died on March 7, 1922. Since then, Mrs. Carrender had made her home with a daughter, Mrs. Wynkoop.

Early in life she united with the Harmony Methodist Church, transferring her membership to the Eldon Methodist Church in about 1923.

Mrs. Carrender is survived by four generations of descendants. In addition to her daughters, Mrs. Dobson and Mrs. Wynkoop, of the home in Eldon, she leaves two sons and another daughter: H.O. Carrender of Kansas City, Mo.; O.E. Carrender of Lexington, Mo., and Mrs. Anna J. Allen of Kansas City, Kan. Also surviving are 13 grandchildren, 16 great-grandchildren, and 11 great-great-grandchildren. A son, Williard A., died April 27, 1958, and another son, Charles J., on June 3, 1961.

Also surviving are a brother, John J. Harrison of Eldon; a half-brother, T.J. Harrison of Versailles, and two sisters, Mrs. Lee Williams of Palco, Kan., and Mrs. Lena Slote of Eldon.

Mrs. Rebecca Robison died at her home in Capps, Mo., Nov. 25, 1910, after suffering for some time with bronchitis. She was born in Warren County, Mo., Oct. 2, 1856. Her maiden name was Lee, a daughter of Phillip Lee of Tulsa, Oklahoma. She was united in marriage to E. Robison Oct. 3, 1878. To this union 9 children were born and 8 are still living. Little Ira, who died in infancy, preceded dear mother to that better land.

She united with the Humphrey's Creek Christian Church about 22 years ago and has ever since lived a devoted Christian life. She was an affectionate wife, a loving mother and a good neighbor and was loved by all who knew her.

The funeral was conducted on the 27th by Rev. C.M. Sooter at the Christian Newlight Church. The sermon was very impressive. A host of sympathizing friends mingled their tears with those of the bereaved relatives as the casket was lowered to its last resting place.

She has been a noble companion, so kind and true, but now her lifeless form lies silent in the grave.

'Tis hard to break the tender cord,
When love has bound the heart;
'Tis hard, so hard, to speak the word,
Must we forever part.
Dearest loved one we have laid thee,
In thy peaceful grave's embrace;
But thy memory will be cherished
Till we see thy heavenly face.

Her last words were, "O, my dear Savior have mercy on me and stand by me in death", then she reached her hand to her nurse and said, "Goodbye, Mary, I am going home."

Written by a friend who will be with her family in their sorrows – Mary Curry, Capps, Mo.

Funeral services over the remains of William Thomas Thomson were held at the First M.E. Church Tuesday afternoon and interment was made in Oak Grove. The Rev. T.H. Hounsel conducted the services at the church and the Odd Fellows, of which the deceased had been a member, conducted the services at the grave. The Marietta Band led the cortege from the church to the grave and the other fraternal organizations, to which Mr. Tomson had belonged, were in line.

William Thomas Tomson was born August 22, 1859 near Jefferson City, Missouri. His ancestors came to America from Parthshire, near Glasgow, North Britain, commonly called Scotland, first settling in the Bermuda Islands, but later, in 1634, joined the Calvert expedition en route and came to Maryland, where, on the Isle of Kent and the Islands of Chesapeake Bay South, and the mainland of the Eastern shore, they lived uninterruptedly for nearly 200 years, when the deceased's ancestor, the Rev. Thomas Tomson, migrated westward.

The family of which the deceased was a part can trace its tendency for generations to literary pursuits, poetry, music and religion. His great-grandfather was the poet, Henry Tomson, and his great-grandmother was Elizabeth Lee.

Many beautiful floral offerings were sent by the host of friends of Mr. Tomson. Mr. Tomson's niece and his uncle, Mr. D.F. Tomson, of Missouri, and his sister-in-law, Mrs. J. F. Tomson of Kossuth, Miss., who were present for the funeral, desire to express their appreciation of the great respect shown their beloved relative by the members and employees of the Stevens Organ & Piano Company, the Odd Fellows, the Ben Hurs and the Marietta Band. They also would thank the members of the Methodist Church and particularly the minister, the Rev. T.H. Hounsel, and all of the good friends of Marietta, whose sympathy was so unmistakably, so genuinely, and so universally bestowed on them in their hour of trouble.

Unknown Publication, December 1913 Susan Wyrick Sandfort Vaughan

Aunt Susey as we loved to call her was born in Tennessee Jan. 23, 1822*, and came to Missouri with Mr. Wyrick, her father, where she has ever since lived. She was married to John F. Sandfort about the year 1845 to which union was born four children, two of whom survive her; W.T. Sandfort of near Bagnell and Susan M. Cotten, wife of James Cotten of near Bagnell.

The death angel came and took her companion after which she was married to Joshua Vaughn about the year 1856. To this union was born two boys and one girl; but only one survives her, Jefferson Davis Vaughan of near T-----. In 1882 death again entered her home and took her companion after which she lived for many years with her children.

At the time of her death she was at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Cotten. She died Dec 8 at 5 p.m. She said: "I am tired" and as her daughter and step son, James Vaughan, leaned over her bed she said: "I am only waiting for that rest", and her soul left its temple of clay for its mansion not made with hands, eternal in the heavens, after having lived here 90 years, 10 months and 10 days.

She was mother of 7 children, step mother of 18, grandmother of 40, great-grandmother of 30. She had been a devoted Christian for 75 years, having united with the Missionary Baptist Church when young, of which she has ever been a faithful member, often walking long distances to attend her church meetings.

After a song and prayer the body was removed to the Tol-Woods Cemetery where the funeral was conducted by Eld. J.M. Henderson in the presence of a large and sorrowing congregation, using 2 Cor. 5th Chap., 1st Verse, after which the body was placed in the tomb to await the resurrection. We none feel her loss more than her step son, James Vaughan, as he took our hand and said, "Mother has gone home."
-J.M. Birdsong

* Cemetery records list her birth year as 1826, death certificate gives 1823, the latter is consistent when calculated from the age of 90 years 10 months and 10 days.

Roy Edward Ferguson, Oronogo, passed away Wednesday, June 17 at the age of 100. Mr. Ferguson was born on July 8, 1908, in Iberia, MO to Edward Scott Ferguson. He could remember Oronogo as a robust mining city when his family moved here.

"Fergie" was a musician most of his life, playing the trombone with many big bands of the era. He moved back to Oronogo and served for a time as president of the musicians union. He became known for his unconventional viewpoints, which he expressed in letters to the Joplin Globe and Webb City Sentinel. "Fergis" could be seen on his motorcycle in Webb City, Oronogo and countryside from his early teens to late 70's.

Roy was preceded in death by two brothers, Otto and Elmer, and a sister Edith (error-should read Ethel). He is survived by a nephew, Thomas H. Ferguson, Springfield, and a dear friend. C.E. Pittman, Joplin.

Mrs. J.H. (Lucy A.) Wickham died at her home in Eldon Friday noon following an illness of several months' duration. She was a descendant of one of Miller County's prominent pioneer families being a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Martin, who lived near Ulman many years. Her father was known as "Big George" Martin to distinguish him from the other George Martins related to the family. She was born Jan. 30, 1859.

Early in life she was united in marriage to John Brumley, who preceded her in death some 30 years. Two children were born of this union—Ivy Brumley of Detroit, Mich., and Livona Brumley, who married E.H. Lurton, but is now deceased. Mrs. Ray Wickham of Tuscumbia and Mrs. H. Morrow, 1220 Campbell St., Kansas City, Mo. are daughters of the last-mentioned.

She was married September 1909 to Jobe H. Wickham while Mr. Wickham resided on his farm south of Tuscumbia. Soon afterwards Mr. Wickham gave the management of the farm to his son Ray and then he and his wife moved to Eldon where they continued to reside until her death.

Besides the husband, the son and two grand-daughters mentioned above, she is survived by two brothers and two sisters—Geo. H. Martin of Chicago, Wm. Martin of Oklahoma, Mrs. Verna Wyrick of Eldon and Mrs. Belle Quinzy of Wood River, Ill. She was a sister of Anthony P. and Moses G. Martin and Mrs. John Wilson, all of whom are now dead.

Mrs. Wickham was a member of the Baptist Church for many years and funeral services were conducted Sunday at 2 o'clock at the home in Eldon by the pastor of the Eldon Baptist Church. Burial was in the Eldon Cemetery.

Fannie Wyrick was born Oct 3rd 1851; died January 30th, 1924; age 72 years 4 months and 27 days. She was married to G.T. Stark December 29, 1872. To this union 10 children—4 boys and six girls were born. Two preceded her in death. Those living are George Stark of Oklahoma, Jesse and Wm. Stark of Miller County, Mrs. S.P. Hawken, Mrs. Joel Witt, and Mrs. P.S. Rook of Tuscumbia, Mrs. James Pierce of Eldon and Mrs. Eddie Snellings of Ulman. All were present except George Stark who did not get here.

Besides these she leaves aged husband, one brother, Hugh Wyrick, and three sisters, namely, Mrs. Mollie Wolf, Mrs. Cordella White and Miss Lena Wyrick, besides a host of relatives and friends to mourn her loss.

She was a good woman and all who knew her spoke well of her. She united with the Church of Christ when about 22 years old and lived a devoted Christian life until God saw fit to call her to her reward. All was done by helping hands and skilled physicians that they knew to do to prolong her life but to no avail. God's will, not ours be done.

Funeral services were held at the old homestead January 31st, where they had spent so many years together and were conducted by the writer, where quite a number of sorrowing relatives and friends came to pay their last respect to this good woman. Scriptural lesson: Ecclesiastes 12th chapter. Words of comfort were spoken to the bereaved ones. She will be sadly missed by all who knew her but our loss is her eternal gain.

Called home from service to reward, called home from toil to rest; Thy soul from earthly scenes hath gone to dwell among the blest.

Called home with all thy work complete and with thy race all run; The Master's voice to thee hath said the blessed words, "Well Done."

Kouns was called, but she expired ten minutes before he arrived.

The body was taken to Eldon by the Eldon Funeral Home, which had charge of burial arrangements and an examination of the body by Dr. J.R. Ellison, county coroner, revealed that her death was the result of heart disease.

Mrs. Heldstab, before her marriage was Miss Susan F. Cooper. She was born in the flatwoods community in October 1868, being at the time of her death 65 years old. Her mother died when she was a baby and her father passed away when she was seven years old. KILLING OF THE NOTORIOUS "JIM ROWDEN" AT VIENNA, MARIES COUNTY, MISSOURI

We are informed that, on Monday, the 9th, instant, while the Maries County Circuit Court was in session at Vienna, the county seat of that county, the notorious Jim Rowden was shot while engaged in a difficulty with a citizen by the name of William Breeden. It is stated that Rowden came into Vienna on that day and got somewhat under the influence of whiskey, and being in that condition, and naturally a man of extraordinary physical strength and overbearing in his disposition, raised a general row, knocking down several persons, drawing his pistol on others, and threatening to perpetrate violence to their persons.

He finally became involved in a difficulty with Breeden and one Crissman, knocking Breeden down and severely injuring him; and while in the act of drawing his pistol he was shot by Breeden with a pistol, from the effects of which shot he died in a few minutes. Before he fell, however, he succeeded in firing one shot at Crissman. Rowden had been a terror to the peaceable people of Maries County for some three or four years past, and had, in that time, unmercifully and brutally beat and wounded quite a number of persons for no cause whatever, except to make a wanton show of his strength and play the bully.

Judge Miller, on the happening of the above occurrence, at once called the Grand Jury in, and gave the matter in special charge to them, and they refused to find a bill of indictment against Breeden.

It is thought the killing of Rowden will have a salutary effect upon the public peace and tranquility of Maries County. It is believed that persons and property, particularly horses, will now be in less danger in that county.

Sgt. James W. Popplewell of the army engineers, was accidently killed in an army camp in North Burma, June 28 of this year. He had been in the China-Burma-India theater of war since last September.

The letter that followed the official death announcement did not give any details of the accident but stated that his death was a great loss, that he was an excellent soldier, always doing his work well and willingly, and met everyone cheerfully. He was employed at the Land-Goddard Chevrolet Co. in Kansas City before entering the army in January, 1943.

He leaves his wife of Kansas City, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D.E. Popplewell, a brother, Pleas, and family, all of Fontana, Kans., a sister, Edith, of Kansas City, many other relatives and friends.

We have laid a costly sacrifice upon the altar of freedom, and while the grief is singularly our own, to do with as best we can, the loss is not ours alone, it is all America's. It is yours; it is my next door neighbor's. May I, nor any free American, never prove unworthy of this great gift of life itself that James has made. May God bless and keep his soul—His Mother, Mrs. D.E. Popplewell.

Dora was born near Tuscumbia, MO., August 27 the year of 1897 and passed away October 14, 1948, at the age of 51 years, one month and 18 days. Her life was consecrated to the Lord at the age of fifteen. Dora was sanctified and filled with the Holy Ghost in 1933 after which she lived a Holy life. Dora, we hated to give you up, although our loss was your gain. Not our will but the Lord's will be done and His will is our will. No more loved one will we hear your sweet voice and no more will we hear your footsteps upon the floor. There is one thing we do know if we live our lives as you lived yours we will meet in glory to part no more.

The last one only a short time before her death. She died in the hospital Sept. 8, 1905.

Her patience and wonderful vitality throughout elicited the admiration and sympathy of the nurses and was a wonder to the doctors. She confessed her Savior and was baptized when about fifteen years of age and her name was enrolled on the church book at Old Spring Garden, Miller County, Mo. May the surviving relatives and friends strive earnestly to get ready for the solemn hour of death. It is written, "For we must all appear before the judgment set of Christ." (2 Cor. 5; 10) -G.L. Tomson

Sister Robinson, wife of T.B. Robinson of Tuscumbia, Mo., died June 27, 1893. She was in her 63rd year and had been a disciple of Christ forty-one or forty-two years.

Sister Robison was a kind and affectionate mother, and a devoted Christian. She was good to the poor and always ready to minister to the necessities of the afflicted. She never neglected an opportunity to encourage young preachers by a manifestation of substantial sympathy.

She has gone to her reward. She rests from her labors. May the God of heaven comfort the sorrowing husband and relatives. There is a vacant chair in Bro. Robinson's home, and a vacant place in the church in Tuscumbia that perhaps can never be filled.

May the blessings of God attend us who are left on the shores of time and may we all be faithful until death so that we may all meet again where there is no sickness, no sorrow, no death. O how we long for the rest, home and heaven. -G. L. Tomson

TOMSON – At 11 a.m., Wednesday, September 11, 1889, Sarah Keziah, eldest daughter of T.A. and K. Tomson. Funeral services Friday forenoon, by Eld. W. G. Finlay.

Deceased was born in Hardeman County, Tennessee, November 13, 1840 (1880 Miller Co. census calculates her birth year ~1843). She became a member of the Christian Church in Early life, possessed a superior and vigorous mind, a patient, enduring spirit, which were present to the last. "A precious one from us has gone, a voice we love is stilled,
A place is vacant in our home which never can be filled.

God in His wisdom has recalled the boon his love had given,
And though the body moulders here, the soul is safe in Heaven.”

TOMSON – At 11 A.M. Sunday, September 29, 1889, Jennie Vann, youngest daughter of T.A. and K. Tomson. Funeral services Wednesday forenoon.

In her disposition she was reserved, in manner quiet and unassuming, and but few, if any, ever became really acquainted with her. The death of her dear sister, less than three weeks prior to her own overwhelmed her with grief. She died in the midst of loved ones, her aged parents, only surviving sister, Mrs. J.M. Wright, and the entire family, save one, being present. Her death was typical of her life—peaceful and calm, and as she serenely breathed the departing breath she seemed to fall asleep in sweet repose.

“Asleep in Jesus! Blessed sleep,
From which none ever wakes to weep!
A calm and undisturbed repose,
Unbroken by the last of foes.”

At the close of the church service the funeral procession moved slowly to the cemetery where the last solemn rites were pronounced and the dear little remains interred.

“This lovely bud so young so fair,
Called hence by early doom,
Just came to show how sweet a flower
In paradise would bloom.

Ere sin could harm or sorrow fade,
Death came with friendly care,
The opening bud to Heaven conveyed
And bade it blossom there.”

At 8:50 A.M. on December 28, 1943, Mrs. Caroline Bax was called to her reward by her Creator and Lord, after she suffered patiently for over two years. She was born in the neighborhood of Koeltztown on May 26, 1854, being at the time of her death 89 years, 7 months and 2 days. Her maiden name was Caroline Wulff.

She was united in Holy Matrimony to Joseph H. Bax, son of John Bax. They lived on a farm in Maries County until they retired from active farming upon which they obtained a property in Koeltztown. In this property Mr. Bax opened a general store and had a successful business until age and sickness forced him to discontinue. He preceded her in death 15 years ago.

To this union was born eight children, three boys and five girls. Two of these girls died in early childhood. The living children are: Mrs. Margarath Hagenhoff of Meta, Mrs. Mary Schmitz of Argyle and Mrs. Jennie Gregory of St. Louis; Mr. Henry Bax of Kansas City, Mo. and Mr. Robert Bax of Chesterfield, Mo. Upon the death of her husband, Mrs. Bax remained living in Koeltztown until age and infirmity required someone to look after her. She then moved to Argyle to live with her daughter, Mrs. Mary Schmitz until the loving Lord saw fit to call her away from this valley of tears to a more joyful home in eternity to receive her reward for labor rendered in the service of the Lord.

At the time of her death she left to mourn her, six children, thirty one grandchildren and twenty four great grandchildren.

She was a life-long member of the St. Boniface Catholic Church of Koeltztown and was an active member in all the parish societies for the spread of God's kingdom here on earth and her own self sanctification.

The funeral was in charge of the Meta funeral home. Her remains laid in state at her daughter's Mrs. Mary Schmitz of Argyle until Friday morning, December 31. Then it was taken to Koeltztown at 8:30 where a Requiem High Mass was sung by Rev. Denner for the repose of her soul. Following the Requiem her remains received the beautiful solemn final blessing. After that they were taken to her last resting place, the St. Boniface cemetery. Here her remains were lowered into her grave amid solemn blessing and prayers by Rev. Denner and the faithful. The pallbearers were six of her grand children, namely, Joe Schmitz Jr., Ben, Adolph, Leo, Paul and Raymond Hagenhoff. May the Blessed Lord grant her eternal rest.

William Jewell Atkinson

On April 13, 1918, the grim reaper entered the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Atkinson of Olean, claiming as his victim, their little son, Jewell. He had suffered for several weeks; all efforts on the part of the physician, with the tender care of the mother and father faithfully aided by relatives and neighbors could not avail.

William Jewell Atkinson was born May 22, 1911, departed this life April 13, 1918, age 6 years, 10 months and 21 days at the time of his death. He was the oldest of a family of three boys, was a bright and cheerful little lad and was loved by all who knew him. When He who said "of such is the Kingdom of Heaven" shall come to claim his own, little Jewell will be of the number whom our Lord shall call.

Funeral Services were held by Eld W. H. Scott of Eldon at Mt. Herman Church after which the precious little tenement of clay was laid to rest in the Allen Cemetery. The entire community extend sympathy to the sorrowing family.

News Article, The Eldon Advertiser, August 15, 1951

Dr. William Henry Brockman, 59, a practicing dentist here for 35 years was beaten to death in his home last night, acting Police Chief L. Whittle said today.

Whittle said the bedroom, hall and kitchen were sprayed with blood in what appeared to have been "a terrific struggle."

Brockman had been living alone for several years since the death of his wife. He had no children. His body was found just before noon today by two cleaning company route men.

Brockman was a veteran of World War I. Whittle said he wasn't believed to have any enemies. But robbery did not appear to be the motive. Apparently nothing was taken from the house, Whittle said.

SALESMAN FACES MURDER CHANGE

Second degree murder charges were filed yesterday against Dean E. Shorter, 57-year-old Eldon grocery salesman accused of the fatal beating of an Eldon dentist Tuesday night. Shorter hasn't been arraigned and was committed to jail pending an inquest to be held at 10 a.m. today at the city hall in Eldon.

Authorities said the salesman, father of two children, has admitted to "having a fight" Tuesday night with Dr. William Henry Brockman, 59-year-old Eldon dentist whose battered body was found in his home there Wednesday morning. However, Shorter has denied killing the man whom he had accused of "running around" with his wife, officers related. The salesman claimed the dentist was alive when he left the house after the fight.

Blood-spattered walls throughout Brockman's home indicated a terrific struggle had taken place following a drinking party officers said. The dentist died of a skull fracture inflicted by repeated blows around his head with a blunt instrument. The weapon was never found.

Shorter was arrested about 16 hours after the slaying, while on his grocery route near Jefferson City.

Robert Cellis Alfred Crum I, 83, pastor of Spring Valley Baptist Church in Henley, passed away Monday, April 5, 2010, at his home in Vienna, following a lengthy battle with cancer. Answering a divine call to the ministry at the age of 17, he served the Lord faithfully, pastoring churches for nearly 67 years, until his death.

Public visitation will be held at Spring Valley Baptist Church on Wednesday evening from 6 to 9 pm, and at First Baptist Church, Vienna, on Thursday evening from 6 to 9 pm. A Masonic Service will be held at 7pm, Thursday at the church. A final visitation will begin at 10 am Friday at First Baptist Church in Vienna, followed by a public funeral service at 2 pm. Interment at Little Flock Cemetery, Vienna, will follow the funeral service. All funeral arrangements under the direction of the Vienna Chapel of the Birmingham-Martin Funeral Homes.

Known as Cellis or "Preacher," he was born on July 16, 1926 to Henry Ellis and Dolla Mae (Wagner) Crum of Vienna. He graduated from Vienna High School in 1945, and attended Southwest Baptist College in Bolivar, for one semester, during which time he met his future wife, Edith Rosanne Frederickson. They were married on December 22, 1945. Both Cellis and Edith felt led by God to serve in bi-vocational ministry, making it possible for them to minister in smaller churches. To support their family Cellis worked as a laborer, lineman and electrician for Union Electric Company while Edith worked as an elementary school educator. In ministry, Cellis preached and pastored, while Edith played the piano, taught Sunday school, and assisted administratively. Cellis retired from Union Electric Company in 1983 after 30 years of service with the company.

Part of a dying breed of country preachers, Preacher Crum was known for his wit, wisdom and humor, which he used to great effect in ministry. A man of great compassion and sincerity, he was tireless in sharing the gospel and reaching out to others in need. Although diligent in preparation, Preacher Crum rarely used notes or outlines for his sermons, preferring to engage listeners directly from the heart. Whether sharing God's word with one person or fifty, Preacher Crum was a personal "soul winner," and throughout his ministry hundreds responded by making a profession of faith in Christ.

Preacher Crum was pastor of Spring Valley Baptist Church in Henley, for a total of 35 years. Other pastorates included Little Flock Baptist Church in Vienna, and Green Ridge Baptist Church in Eldon. He was licensed to preach at the Terry Baptist Church (now First Baptist Church, Vienna), and ordained at Little Flock.

Preacher Crum was an Ancient Free and Accepted Mason, Royal Arch and Scottish Rite Mason, Shriner and member of Eastern Star. He was active in the Blue Lodge and Eastern Star, and had received his 50-year pins for both organizations. He was a member of the Odd Fellows Lodge and a 50-year, founding member of the Vienna Lions Club.

On December 7, 1995, the Missouri House of Representatives passed a resolution honoring Cellis and Edith for 50 years of marriage, ministry and service to the community.

Preacher Crum was preceded in death by his brother Columbus Crum, sisters Nora Crum and Juanita Davis, and granddaughter Amy Kidwell. He is survived by: Edith, wife and true love; children Yvonne Meyer and husband Lyman "Sonny" Meyers, Jana Crum and fiancé Joe Gray, Robert Crum and wife Martha; brother, Ellis Crum (Junior) and wife Shirley; and numerous nieces and nephews. Cellis and Edith are proud to boast 12 grandchildren and 14 great grandchildren. Cellis was an outstanding husband, father, grandfather and uncle.

Raised on a farm, he maintained a lifelong interest in horses and livestock; and in partnership with his nephew Joe Clay Crum, he continued his agricultural pursuits until just a few months before his death. During his many years in ministry he "adopted" countless men, women and children as part of an extended family. He was most often found with a beard over the last few decades, which to his family and most acquaintances seemed naturally suited to his patriarchal manner and sensibility.

Old Veteran Dies - W. T. Hill Passes away in Jefferson City and is buried at Brumley

William T Hill, another Civil War veteran, died in Jefferson City, December 4. His remains were conveyed to the Hawkins Cemetery where a goodly number of his old friends and neighbors and relatives attended his funeral.

When a boy 18 years old Comrade Hill came to Miller County from Kentucky in about 1858 and married Nancy J Hawkins. To this union were born 7 children all of whom survive but one who died some 40 years ago. He lived near Brumley most of his life where he was well known and well respected and was a leader in nearly every good work until misfortune and failing health shattered his powers for good in a measure. He was a man of strong convictions and great firmness. What he believed to be right he always defended with great energy. He espoused the cause of the union at the beginning of the Civil War and gave his services to his country for four years in the prime of life. He has always been a supporter of the policies and candidates of the Republican party, voting for the immortal Lincoln in 1864 and every candidate of the Grand Old Party ever since.

After a short service, he was laid to rest beside his deceased daughter by his old friends and neighbors. The children present wish to Thank the old time friends for their kindness and sympathy in the death of their aged father.

George Washington Martin Dead - Aged resident of Enon Died Suddenly Monday of heart failure

Residents of Enon were shocked at the news of the sudden death of George W. Martin who died at that place Monday, September 7, 1914. Deceased was the father of two children, only one of which survives, Kellas, one of Enon's oldest merchants.

Mr. Martin was born in Kentucky in 1839 and removed to Missouri when only a small boy settling in Miller County near Tuscumbia on a farm, later going into business at that place. From Tuscumbia, he went to Enon and entered the mercantile business with his son, remaining at that place until his death. Miller Co Autogram, 11 June, 1931

The funeral of J. J. Haynes, a pioneer citizen of Eldon for over 85 years and a good man in the community, was held at the Christian Church Memorial Day in the afternoon and attended by a large crowd of relatives and friends. Rev. A. L. Alexander, the pastor, conducted the services and the body was taken to the Eldon cemetery to be placed by the grave of Mrs. Haynes.

Joel Jefferson Haynes was born November 17, 1845 on a farm just south of Eldon city limits where he spent nearly all his life. He departed this life at the home of his daughter, Mrs. H. G. Jemphrey, May 28, 1931. Mr. Haynes was the son of Martin Haynes and Margaret Hinds Haynes. He was married to Anna M. Miller January 19, 1868. To them eight children were born. One, John Haynes, passed away when a young man. The seven living are; Mrs. G. D. Walker, Ollie Haynes, Miss Belle Haynes, Mrs. H G Jemphrey, and Gaylord Haynes of Eldon, Mrs. Leslie Yarger, of Madill, Oklahoma, and Mrs. Roy Lumpkin of Des Moines, Iowa .

When 22 years old Mr. Haynes united with the Christian Church at Mount Pleasant and later was a founder and charter member of the First Christian Church at Mount Pleasant and later was a founder and charter member of the First Christian Church of Eldon.

Mr. Haynes was a man who stood four-square for his convictions of right and a man whose integrity and honesty, was an asset to whatever organization he chose to belong. He was careful and conservative in business and aside from being a director in the Bank of Eldon he had not taken much interest in business for years and devoted his time to his farm where he had spent practically all of his useful life. With the building of the Rock Island railroad through Eldon a part of the farm became a portion of the city and greatly increased the remaining portion which he kept for the old home.

When Mr. Haynes was a boy plowing in Miller County was done with a wooden mould board plow and wheat was threshed with a flail or by treading on threshing floor. The grain was bolted by hand in a small stone mill. Biscuits were considered a luxury and were cooked only on Sunday or special occasions. They were blue in color and contained considerable grit from the stones between which they were ground. Clothes were made from wool raised and spun on the farm.

R.G. Haynes, 68, of Eterville, MO, died Sunday, April 18, 2010, in Springfield, MO. He was born Jan. 12, 1942, in Miller County, Missouri, to Robert Gerald Haynes and Ila Mildred (Dawson) Haynes. On Sept. 14, 1963, he was married in Eterville, Missouri, to Sherry (Houston) Haynes.

Mr. Haynes lived on the same farm that was homesteaded by his Great-Grandparents. Gene was a cattle trader and owned and ran the Lebanon Livestock Auction, Lebanon, Missouri. Gene was a second generation auctioneer. He was a member of the Spring Garden Baptist Church.

Surviving him are his spouse, Sherry Haynes of the home; a son and daughter-in-law, Robert and Amanda Haynes, Eldon, Missouri; Grandchildren, Bobby and Ila Haynes; brothers, Jim Haynes, Springfield, Missouri, John Haynes, Jefferson City, Missouri; and David Haynes, Chesterfield, Missouri; a sister, Becky McDonald, Washington, Missouri; and several nieces and nephews. The Eldon Advertiser, May 1924 – Obituary of Mrs. John W. Allen

Mattie Jane Jordan, daughter of John C. and Elizabeth T. Jordan, was born near High Point, Mo., November 7, 1859, and departed this life, May 24, 1924, at Olean, Mo. She was married to John W. Allen, June 7, 1876. To this union were born six children, four of whom died in infancy, two reached maturity, one of whom, a daughter, Elzie E., died June 28, 1908, leaving one son, William A. Allen of St.

Louis, a mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Jordan, three sisters, Mrs. Walter Long of Latham, Mo., Mrs. Charles Apperson, of Eldon, Mo., Mrs. Fredon Scott of Eldon, Mo., and two brothers, Alexander Jordan of Barnett, Mo., and Lee Jordan of Jefferson City, Mo.

Mrs. Allen and her husband, who preceded her to the great beyond about a year ago, united with the Mt. Herman Baptist Church, December 24, 1886, her faith changed only as it grew stronger and greater.

Practically half of her life here was spent in physical suffering. During the last year grief brought tears and sadness of a degree realized only by those most intimate with her. In her last illness she was aware from the first that the end of earth was not distant. When natural ties proved inadequate, she turned to her sister in Christ, Mrs. Bruce, and placed in her every personal confidence while for care and help she leaned upon her faithful brother, Alec, and her beloved nephew and niece, Rufus and Edith George. These confidences were not wrongly placed, as the love of Christ makes men and women true in life until death.

Her son William A. was hurriedly called from the East and reached her bedside Wednesday morning. On awakening she said to him, "Mrs. Bruce, Rufus and Edith have worked night and day to keep me alive until you came; now God has awakened me so that I can talk to you. Can you go to God with a pure Christian heart? I can. I can go to God with a pure Christian heart."

Her Bible was her constant companion and she thanked God that it was written on a true basis. Her tender and sensitive nature was often misunderstood resulting in criticism which grieved her deeply. But of these critics she said, "Lord forgive them, for they know not what they do." With equal response her heart rejoiced in sympathies of her friends and neighbors. Her prayers were for them and their happiness.

The Eldon Advertiser, December 1935

Mrs. J.B. Allen, one of the longest time residents of this part of Miller County, died at her home in Eldon Friday morning.

Mary Jane Russell, daughter of Mayfield and Louise Russell, was born March 31, 1850 and was married to Joseph B. Allen July 17, 1864. To them ten children were born: Mary Ellen, who preceded her mother in death, W. Elmonte Allen and Elston E. Allen of Los Angeles, Cal., Eudora J. Edwards and Fenton A. Allen of Los Angeles, Bertha L. Rains and E. Morton Allen of Eldon, Sallie E. Barry of Lake view Heights, Ethel B. George of Sterling, Colo., and Fordyce Allen who preceded his mother in death.

Mrs. Allen is survived by her eight children, ten grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren, a brother, Albert Russell of Schell City, Mo., and four sisters, Mrs. I.N. Boyce of Versailles, Mrs. R.B. Snyder of Eldon, Mrs. D.W. Snyder of Dodge City, Kan., and Mrs. Olive White of Eldon.

Mrs. Allen was a good woman whose whole life in this community has left an influence of her character. The reputation that her family bears reflects her Christian living in the home. As long as her health permitted her she was always found ready and willing in any kind of service she might render to the church, to her neighbors and to her family.

She was a charter member of the First Christian Church of Eldon, taking membership there after the Old Salem Church was abandoned.

The funeral was conducted at the First Christian Church of Eldon Sunday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock by the Rev. A.L. Alexander and burial was made at Eldon Cemetery with Phillips Funeral Home service.

The Eldon Advertiser, June 18, 1942

Elston E. Allen, who was formerly a jewelryman of Eldon for more than twenty-five years, died at his home in Los Angeles, California, June 11, 1942. A service was held there Saturday and the body was brought to Eldon Tuesday afternoon for a funeral service at the First Christian Church by the Pastor, the Rev. A.L. Alexander, Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 p.m.

Mr. Allen was the son of Mr. and Mrs. J.B. Allen, who came to Miller County in 1843 and spent the remainder of their lives on the Allen Farm west of Eldon. He received his advanced education at Eldon Academy after attending grade school at Franklin District School.

Mr. Allen was born October 3, 1869, and was married to Birdie E. Tremaine June 6, 1895. To them one child, Raymond, was born. He moved to Los Angeles, California several years before his father. Mrs. Allen died October 9, 1923.

Besides being for many years an active member and deacon of the First Christian Church of Eldon, Mr. Allen tried to so live that his example would be as near a perfect Christian as it was possible to be. He was a member of the Modern Woodmen of America.

Burial was made at Eldon Cemetery with Phillips Funeral Home in charge.

Eldon Advertiser, September 1929

Fordyce Allen, one of the county's most enterprising and honored farmers, came to his death very suddenly Saturday while feeding a silage cutter on his farm near Eldon. It seems that no one knows exactly how the accident happened.

According to a statement made by his father-in-law, C.T. Foote, who was on a load of corn nearby, the silage cutter developed a knock as though something was wrong with the cutter. Mr. Allen accidentally went around the cutter and stooped over the incline as though trying to detect the trouble. When Mr. Foote and others reached him, there was evidence that he had been struck on the side of the head and that he had also caught his arm in the ____ that carries the silage up the elevator into the silo. His arm had severed, but his death came instantaneously by a blow on his head. Mr. Foote said Mr. Allen gasped once after we reached him. A broken casting was found lying near the machine. Some think that this struck hi, while others think that he caught his arm in the fan belt and he was jerked against the machine, his head striking the elevator.

He is survived by three brothers, Elmont Allen of the state of California, Elston Allen of Eldon and Morton Allen, a farmer of near Eldon. His wife, who survives him, was reported under the care of a physician as a result of the shock she received when she was told of her husband's death.

Mr. Allen was one of the most widely known farmers of the county and had the confidence and esteem of everyone, and his death is indeed a severe shock to the family and his hometown friends.

KAISER, Mo. (AP) -- Authorities have arrested a 12-year-old mid-Missouri boy in the shooting deaths of his mother and stepfather.

During the late evening hours of July 5, the Miller County Communication Center received a phone call in reference to a death investigation that was transferred from Osage Beach Communication. Officers from Miller and Camden County Sheriff's offices and Osage Beach Police responded to a mobile home along with the Mid-Missouri Drug Task Force and Missouri State Highway Patrol. Neighbors said the boy lived in the home with five other children, but none of the other children were there at the time of the shooting. The Eldon Advertiser, Thursday, July 15, 2010

Ora Lee Whittle, 73, went to be with the Lord on June 22, 2010, after a brief battle with cancer. He was born on July 7, 1936, near Iberia, Mo., to Virgil Lee Whittle and Mary Elizabeth (Wright) Whittle. He had a brother, Wayne Edward Whittle, 85, and a sister Christine Draudy, 68. He loved them both very much.

He lived on the farm until he was 16, and had fond memories of his many relatives and friends, especially those who were with him at the Curry elementary schoolhouse.

In 1948, his dad's brother (Uncle Bert Whittle) got a job with Peter Kiewit Construction Company as an assistant superintendent near Fairbanks. HE had worked for them before in the Seattle area. There had been a few other relatives who made the trip to Alaska as a result of World War II and other reasons. Many of them brought word back to Missouri of the good wages and the beauty of the land. Ora and his father made the trip to Fairbanks in 1952.

The first job Ora had was with Fairbanks Exploration Co. on the Steese Road, drilling thaw pipe into the permafrost. He later fought forest fires and worked as a laborer.

Ora went Outside for brief periods throughout the years. He tried his hand at picking apples and pears in Washington, but soon found that other than covering his food bill, there wasn't much left. He spent one winter in Phoenix watching a lot of TV and going to the movie theaters. He got homesick for Missouri and hitchhiked from Arizona in 1957.

When Ora returned to Missouri, he tried his hand at many jobs. He worked at a shoe factory, boat factory and laborer jobs. For a while he drove a cab at Fort Leonard Wood. There he found the wages were decent and work was much easier. He even shined a few shoes on the base for a few extra dollars.

In 1958, Ora married Nora Ann Wilson of Iberia. The following year their first son, Burlin Wayne Whittle, was born. Ora and Nora moved to Fairbanks in 1960. Ora joined the Carpenters Union Local 1243 upon his return, as his father Virgil was already a member. In 1961, their second son, Dwight Lee Whittle, was born. Ora and Nora purchased land at 7 Mile Richardson Highway (Davidson Street) and a trailer to start their home.

Starting out with a new family and limited work was not easy, but through perseverance and with whatever time Ora could find to work on their home, it eventually paid off. Ora's father Virgil built a home on Peggy Street, a short walk through the woods from Ora's home. Ora and Virgil helped each other many times across the years.

During the 1970's, wages and the amount of work around Fairbanks increased, in large part because of construction of the trans-Alaska oil pipeline. In 1979, Ora began working as a millwright on the North Slope. He was proficient in many skills, such as mechanic, electrical and plumbing. Also, he greatly enjoyed studying aircraft and its history.

Survivors include his brother, Wayne Edward Whittle of Virginia Beach, Va.; sister, Christine Draudy of Seattle; sons, Burlin Wayne Whittle of Fairbanks and Dwight Lee Whittle of Aurora, Colo. There also are nieces, nephews and cousins.

A graveside memorial service will be held at Pleasant Hill Cemetery near Iberia at 10 a.m. July 24. The family asks that in lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Pleasant Hill Christian Church Cemetery, 398 Highway EE, Iberia, MO 65486.
