There were present at his bedside at the time of his death, his wife and two of his children, his father and stepmother and a number of friends. The casket was covered with beautiful flowers donated by friends and the church. God will surely bless these people.

(Faye) Kallenbach, of Bolivar; Kelly, of Tuscumbia; and Mrs. George (Glen) Harryman, of Kansas City. Also surviving are five sons-in-law and one daughter-in-law, eight grandchildren, and two brothers, Willis Small of Tyler, Ark., and Dan Small of Union, Mo.

Mr. Small united with the Church of Christ at Saline Valley early in life, later transferring his membership to the Tuscumbia Christian Church where he was a faithful worker as long as health permitted. One of the greatest joys of his life was in service to his church where he was for many years teacher of the young men's class, an elder in the church and president of the church board. The membership of the church and Sunday school took cognizance of his very few absences during his many years of service and made special inquiry of his health.

In young manhood Mr. Small taught in the Miller County rural schools for 14 years and for 10 years he was employed by the Kansas City Public Service Co., as a street car conductor, but most of this time he continued to make Tuscumbia his home, where his family was reared in the highest Christian ideals and given every advantage to equip themselves for the best in life. After retiring from his employment in Kansas City he devoted his time to farming interests on his place just west of town.

He was a kind and loving husband and father and dearly loved his home. HE was a good neighbor and friend to all. A friend paid him his highest compliment even given any man when he said, "He is a Christian gentleman." If anyone had aught against him it was never audibly uttered.

Funeral services were held from the Tuscumbia Christian Church Wednesday afternoon at 3:30, conducted by his former pastor and friend, Rev. W.E. Waddell of Crocker. Interment was in the Tuscumbea Cemetery with Phillips Funeral Service in charge. Song service at the funeral was in charge of T.C. Wright.

On January 22, 1886, he was married to Sarah Elizabeth Heltzell, who preceded him on May 8 1930, in Los Angeles, California, where they had gone for Mrs. Farnham's health. Farnham, Jr., and in 1943, sold his interest in the entire business at Iberia and Dixon, to W.L. Farnham, Jr., and his two grandsons, Gene and Don R. Farnham and since that time has devoted his entire attention to managing his farm and raising cattle.

He joined the Methodist Church when a young man, and later he and his wife became active and devoted members of the Congregational Church in Iberia.

For almost 50 years he has been a member of the board of trustees of Iberia Academy and Junior College. He was a charter member of the Modern Woodmen of America, Camp No. 5253, Iberia, and still holds his membership there.

Iberia Sentinel, February 1932

After almost four weeks of severe illness and suffering, Mrs. Catherine Dorcas Jones passed into the great beyond at 9:45 p.m., Friday, February 26, 1932, at her home near Alder Springs.

At times her suffering seemed almost unbearable, but she bore it cheerfully and without complaint seeming to take more interest in the comfort of those administering to her, than in her own welfare. Many times during her illness she expressed a desire that she might pass on. She realized the seriousness of her condition and was happy to think that she would soon be called home to meet her Saviour and the loved ones, who had preceded her in death.

The subject of this sketch was the daughter of Thomas S. and Margaret C. Slone (deceased) and was born September 10, 1837, in McLinburg County, North Carolina. At the age of one and a half years, she with her parents, moved to Warren County, Kentucky, where she lived twenty years, when she with the family came to Missouri to reside. A wagon drawn by a team of oxen was their means of transportation from Kentucky to Missouri.

She was united in marriage to J.F.M. Jones in 1860. To this union five children were born, the oldest, Mary Margaret, dying at the age of seventeen months. Those living are Mrs. Emeline Lawson of Ketchum, Okla., Mrs. Paradine Thompson, Mrs. Ida Bilyeu and Thomas L. Jones.

Besides the four children who survive, she leaves one brother, Isaac A. Slone (92) twenty-seven grandchildren and above fifty great-grandchildren.

Grandma Jones had many interesting incidents to relate to her grandchildren and their children concerning...Civil war, as her husband enlisted as a volunteer in 1861, leaving her alone to keep the home fires burning. She and her sister-in-law Sarah J. Slone would ride on horse back twenty miles to get mail from their husbands who were in the service. Her husband was honorably discharged at the close of the war, and they lived happily together on the farm until 1887, when the death angel claimed him.

She continued to live in the same log cabin with its quaint fire place until her death, having lived there twenty-two years all told. When the icy hand of death claimed her she was ninety-four years, five months and sixteen days old. Her children, except Mrs. Lawson, were at her bedside when she departed.

This noble woman remembered her creator in the days of her youth, as the wise man Solomon advises young folks to do, and was baptized in Fly Creek near Bowling Green Kentucky. She enjoyed reading her bible above all other reading material and would often quote many chapters from memory. She loved to converse on Biblical subjects.

Funeral services were conducted by Geo. W. Warman, assisted by Wm. Freeman Jones, at the Brays Cemetery, Saturday afternoon, in the presence of a large crowd of relatives and friends who gathered to pay their last tribute. The floral offering was a beautiful one.

Thus another sainted mother has gone to her reward, leaving us behind. Though she remained with us to a ripe old age, yet we loathed to give up her dear presence. But her good deeds will live in our hearts the remainder of our lives, for the scripture says, "Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from hence forth: yea, saith the spirit, that they may rest from their labors; and their works do follow them."

"The clock of life is wound but ones and no man has power
To tell just when the clock will stop at late or early hour.

Now is the only time you own; live—love—toil with a will,
And place no faith in tomorrow for the clock may then be still.”

--A grand daughter, Mrs. William Freeman Jones

Died, at his residence in Versailles, Mo., on the 20th inst., of consumption, Judge J.V. Allee in the 43 year of his age. Judge Allee was a native Missourian, having been born in Cole, now Moniteau County, on the 29th day of November 1832. HE never resided out of the state.

At a very early age he professed religion, joined the Baptist Church and continued through life a consistent member of that organization. HE was married three times. His third wife survives him.

Judge Allee became a citizen of our county in 1863, and soon assumed a prominence and acquired an influence among our people. He was elected Probate Judge in 1872, and from that time until prevented by sickness, he has fulfilled the duties of that office faithfully and well. A leading member of the Grange, he probably did more to further the interests of that organization than any other one man in our country. He leaves a large family to mourn his loss. By his death the country has lost an upright and efficient officer; society an honorable and respected member, and his family a loving husband and father.

The Eldon Advertiser, 1944

The following is a report of the death of Lt. Bill Allee, nephew of Dr. and Mrs. W.L. Allee and Mr. and Mrs. H.P. Allee of Olean, reveals that he was aboard an unmarked Jap prison ship which was struck by U.S. torpedoes last October 24, 1944.

Hope for their son's safety was crushed yesterday for Dr. and Mrs. Gail D. Allee of the Veterans Administration Facility, Wadsworth, by a War Department telegram which informed them 1st. Lt. William Allee definitely was killed when U.S. Torpedoes struck an unmarked Japanese prison ship last October 24, 1944. Dr. Allee is chief medical officer at the veteran's facility.

Their son, overseas since August 1941, was a prisoner in Camp No. 1 in the Phillipines. He might have been among the men who were liberated last February but for a turn of events which separated him from his fellow prisoners last July. He was sent either to Japan or to Manchuria as chief of a prison hospital.

Reports from men who were imprisoned with the young doctor said he was doing wonderful work among the allied wounded in the Japanese prisons, and those who saw him just before he was removed in July said he had begun to gain back weight he had lost early in his imprisonment, and was looking fine.

The last word the Allees had from their son directly was a card written in May 1944, which arrived here last December. Their correspondence with him was of necessity been restricted greatly all through the period of his internment.

Allee's wife, Mrs. Jane Allee, of Memphis, Tenn., will arrive at Wadsworth tomorrow morning to be with his parents. The two spent only three weeks together after their marriage before the officer's sudden assignment to the Phillipines which ended in his death.

The Eldon Advertiser, August 8, 1946

For more than 40 years he had been a director of the Bank of Eldon, and only the first of this month resigned as president, a position he had held since 1953. In recognition of his years of service to the bank and the community, he was elected to the post of honorary chairman of the board. Dr. Allee also had devoted years of service to the school board, the PTA and other civic groups.

He had served as president of the Missouri State Medical Association, being named president elect in 1933 and presiding at the annual meeting in St. Joseph in 1934. For a number of years he also was one of Missouri's four delegates to the American Medical Association.

In April 1956, he was honored by the Missouri State Medical Association for his half century of service in the practice of medicine at the association's 98th annual meeting in ST. Louis.

Eldon, Miller County and surrounding areas also paid tribute to Dr. Allee just three years ago last week. On November 19, 1956, a standing room only crowd gathered at the Masonic Temple for a dinner in his honor sponsored by the Eldon Chamber of Commerce.

George Shelton, son of Mr. and Mrs. James K. Shelton was born March 5, 1887, died June 21st, 1920, age 33 years 3 months 16 days. He became ill Tuesday June 15th and after six days of intense suffering he quietly passed away June 21st at 2:00 p.m. at the home of his parents. In the sudden and unexpected death of his dear son they suffer an irreparable loss. Nothing on earth will ever fill his place in that home. Everything that loving hearts and faithful hands could do was done, but all in vain. Good took him. It was his will; His will must be done on earth as it is in Heaven.

This boy was one among the purest and best loved, highly esteemed and respected by all who knew him. He is gone never to return, but the rest can go to him. When dear ones meet all sorrow and sighing shall flee away. He leaves father, mother, three brothers, four sisters and a host of relatives and friends to mourn his death.

His remains were laid to rest in the Hawkeye Cemetery and funeral services were conducted by J.C. Thompson.

Benjamin F. Hensley and to this union were born two children. About 13 years ago Mr. Hensley passed away.

At the age of 19 years she united with the Church of Christ, remaining a member of that body until called to her reward Nov. 29, 1919. Sunday Nov. 30 at 2 p.m. funeral services were held from the home where many friends and relatives had gathered to witness the last sad rites at which time the writer tried to speak words of comfort to the bereaved family, after which all that was mortal of our aged sister and friend was conveyed to the cemetery and there amid sobs and sighs of sorrowing ones laid to rest.

Aunt Cynthia Topping, wife of Joel Topping, departed this life January the 24th, 1924, surrounded by husband and relatives and many friends. The cause of her death was heart trouble.

Deceased was born in the state of Illinois, April 25, 1850. She was married to Joel Topping May 29, 1881. To this union were born two children—W.J. Topping, who resides in St. Louis and Altha Helton, who resides in Jefferson City.

She had been a consistent member of the Church of Christ for over 50 years, being loved and respected by all. But alas, she is gone; one more vacant seat at our sanctuary, one more vacant chair in our home.

Aunt Cynthia was a noble Christian woman; a good neighbor, a loving mother. We were so sorry that her son Joe did not get here until she had passed away. He was not notified in time to reach his mother before she was dead. She loved her children and grand-children so much. The last words that she said was, "Luzon, take your arm from under my head, honey."

Brief services were held at the Ulman Christian Church Saturday morning. In the absence of a minister, a chapter was read by Alfred Graves and a few appropriate remarks made. The body was laid to rest in the Jackson Cemetery.

On Thursday morning, January 30th, 1919, George Johnston, the oldest citizen of Iberia, departed this life at his home here. He was born in Canada near Montreal, Aug. 20, 1840 and came to Iberia in 1869 where he has since lived. For many years he was engaged in business, and was highly respected by his fellow citizens for his integrity and uprightness of life. For many years he was a director of the Bank of Iberia, deacon and one of the leading members of the Congregational Church, and for twenty-eight years one of the trustees of the Academy.

He was pre-eminently a man of God. Never seeking after large wealth for himself, he devoted his best thought and energies to those things which pertained to faith and righteousness, and the world is largely better because he has lived in it. So quietly and unassumingly has he shown forth the secret of a life hid in Jesus, that only at his death did his friends realize fully the unusual quality of his character and the true greatness of his life.

After a continuous membership of twenty-eight years, he is the last one of the original trustees of Iberia Academy who still remained on the Board. One of the results of this long membership was the beautiful friendship which grew up between him and his fellow members and co-laborers; Prof. Jas. S. Stevenson, William E. Jones and Oscar L. Whitelaw of St. Louis. He is the last of the circle to go, the two latter passing away in 1917 and the first some years earlier. As George Johnston goes, the last link connecting the new with the old is broken, and he said everlastingly to his credit, that he stood by the Academy from first to last, and gave to it the weight of his influence and help. He became a part of the traditions of the school and at the time of his burial all its exercises were closed to do him honor, and the pupils, teachers and trustees of the Academy attended the services in a body.

He was married in 1871 to Miss Laura Irwin, and from the union were born six children, Zella, who was married to Everett Allen and died many years ago, David who lives in California, William in Oklahoma, Victor in Iberia, Mrs. Sallie Walker in Dixon and Mrs. Annie von Grempe of Iberia. They were all here at the funeral, except David who was too far away to attend.

Funeral services were conducted by the writer Friday afternoon, Feb. 3rd in the Congregational Church. Interment was made in the town cemetery.

Elmer Abbet, fifteen year old son of Eli Abbet living near Tuscumbia, died suddenly on his way home from church Sunday afternoon. His untimely death, so we are informed, was due to indigestion of the stomach caused by the overeating of green apples and drinking too freely of cold water. His two companions, with him when death came, did everything in their power to bring relief but of no avail.

The sad news of his death came as a shock to his parents because on his departure from home Sunday morning he was enjoying the vigorous health of youth. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. C.M. Sooter Monday afternoon after which interment was made in the Mt. Zion Cemetery.

Bun (Edward C.) Thompson, the son of W.E. Thompson, was born March 10, 1897, died Mar. 5, 1919, age 22 years. When at four years of age he became afflicted with epileptic convulsions and at the age of 13 years he was sent to Missouri Colony at Marshall, Mo. where he remained until May 1918, when he was transferred to Fulton, Mo., and from there his body was shipped home for burial.

These many years, although growing into manhood, he was just like a little child. Afflictions are Gods mercies, God teaches us, while our sorrow is tear-wet, to follow on and find our dear ones in Heaven. The roll is being called and one after another is being summoned away. But if their names are there, if we know that they are saved, how sweet it is, after they have left us to think that we shall meet them by and by, that we shall see them in the morn when the night has worn away. Others may have filled the world with the breath of their name, he has helped to fill Heaven. Others may have won an earthly renown, but he has won a home in Heaven. He leaves a father, one brother and one sister.

Mrs. T.J. (Grandma) Marchant (Elizabeth) was born in Typton County, Tennessee, near Trenton, Nov. 27, 1834; died at her home in Iberia July 18, 1923, age 88 years 7 months and 21 days.

She went to Arkansas in 1854 and in 1856 was married to Thos. J. Marchant. They lived there until 1862 when they moved to Missouri, locating at Iberia. Mr. Marchant died five years ago.

The deceased, at the age of 17 years, was converted and joined the Baptist Church of which she remained a faithful, consistent member until death. Her last words were expressive of peace with God and a willingness to depart and be at rest with Him, her only regret being the separation from the family she loved so well. Her cheerful, helpful life; her devotion to the family and kindness to everybody will long linger as a fragrant memory in the home which her presence brightened and which death has now darkened. Though she is gone her record has been made and will remain with us as a lasting treasure. Her life was gentile, but like the still waters it was deep. In her heart of hearts she carried those she loved, and her hand was never weary, her steps never ___ in caring for and ministering to those in need.

She was cheerful, patient and sweet in the sickness, though at times a great sufferer. She often repeated verses of scripture and of song that she especially loved.

The funeral services were held in the Baptist Church here Thursday afternoon, Rev. R.B. Carnett of Lebanon officiating and paying a beautiful tribute to the memory of the deceased. Interment was made in the town cemetery.

She is survived by four children—two daughters and two sons—Mrs. C.K. Clark, Miss Anna Marchant and Sherman Marchant of Iberia, and W.W. Marchant of Douglas, Wyoming. Also a niece, Miss Bertha Fancher, who has been a member of the Marchant family since childhood.

To those who mourn we would say, from the beauty of her life take an inspiration and go forth to live as she lived, so that when the summons comes you may say as did she, "All is well."

Edith Barnhart was born February 22, 1907, and died March 10, 1925 at St. Elizabeth Hospital at Granite City, Ill., age 18 years and 16 days. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M.L. Brummett. She united with the Pentecostal Church some years ago and has lived a Christian life. Everything that loving hearts and faithful hands could do was done but all in vain. God took her. It was His will. His will must be done on earth as it is in Heaven. She is gone never to return but the rest can go to her where the dear ones meet and all sorrows flee away.

She leaves to mourn her departure a faithful husband, an aged father and mother, five brothers and three sisters. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Cook in the Pentecostal Church in Granite City in the midst of a goodly number of sorrowing relatives and sympathizing friends after which the body was laid to rest in the St. John's Cemetery.

Roy Allen, formerly of this place, who for the past five years has been employed in the oil fields at Oil Hill, Kans., was instantly killed Saturday, March 24, when overcome by gas. He, with other employees, was repairing one of the large tanks which had been standing empty for some time. One of the men working over the opening at the top of the tank, fell into the tank, supposed to have been overcome by the fumes of the gas formed on the inside. The third man was let down into the tank by means of a rope to remove the unfortunates, but was drawn back up unconscious. The bodies of the unfortunate victims were finally removed by cutting away a part of the tank.

In a gun battle on the bank of the Osage River at Bagnell, on Wednesday of last week, Grant Thompson, a well known farmer, was shot and killed by his neighbor, Fred Crismon, another prominent farmer of that vicinity, and Crismon's twenty-year old son, Francis, was fatally shot in the back by Thompson's son, young Crismon dying three days later.

The awful tragedy was a continuation of a bitter feud that had existed between the two families for over two years. The trouble, we understand, began over two years ago over school matters. Since the time the elder Thomson and Crismon, father of the Crismon boys shot, have engaged in two or three shooting scrapes, both being injured.

The last shooting, prior to the fatal battle, occurred at Bagnell, Saturday, Nov. 29, at which time the elder Crismon was shot through the flesh of the shoulder by the elder Thompson, his assailant. Thompson was arrested and released on bond for his appearance at a special term of Circuit Court.

We are not able to go into details as to how the trouble came about last week owing to so many conflicting reports, however, according to general information, Thompson and his son (Charley, we are told) and Crismon, his two sons (Francis and Leo) and Logan Hickey, cousin of the Crismon boys, met at the ferry on the Osage near Bagnell. Both sides, it is reported, were armed. A quarrel ensued, and when the Thompsons showed fight the elder Crismon shot the elder Thompson through the head killing him instantly. During the battle young Crismon was shot in the back with a revolver by Thompson's son.

The Crismon boy was hurried to his home nearby and a physician called to dress the wound. His condition continued to grow worse and on Friday he was taken to St. Mary's Hospital in Jefferson City, where he was operated upon Saturday morning. It was found that the ball had cut the spinal cord which had paralyzed his body from the shoulders down. He died Saturday afternoon.

The deceased was a brilliant young man, just finishing his four years work in the Eldon High School. He was a beneficiary member of the Modern Woodmen, holding his membership with the Eldon camp.

Funeral services were held Monday from the Eldon Baptist Church of which he was a member, after which interment was made in the Eldon Cemetery.

Grant Thompson, the other victim of the battle was buried last Saturday in the Hawkins Cemetery near Brumley. He leaves a wife and several children.

Mrs. Shyrock was learning to drive the car and as she went to pass a wagon and team on the narrow country road, she lost control of the car and swerved it to the opposite side of the road onto a bank, turning the machine over and pinning them both beneath it. They were held in this position, Mr. Shyrock said, for about an hour and a half, the occupants of the wagon proceeding on their way unaware of what had happened. When they were found by other parties passing that way, the car was lifted off them and Mrs. Shyrock was dead and her husband paralyzed from retarded blood circulation caused by the heavy pressure of the car upon his body. However, he finally recovered from this condition and was able to attend his wife's funeral Sunday.

Mrs. Shyrock was before her marriage, Miss Ida Berry, daughter of James Berry, a widely known farmer of the community east of Iberia. She was married to Mr. Shyrock several years ago, but no children were born to the union. Her body was brought back here and funeral services, conducted by her pastor, Rev. Chas. Maines of the St. Clair Baptist Church, were held at Union Church near Brays Sunday morning at 11 o'clock and interment made in the cemetery at that place.

She is survived by her husband, father, two brothers—Leonard and Walter Berry; and one sister, Mrs. David Livingston, all of near Iberia.

Mrs. Mabel Smith, wife of President G. Byron Smith of Iberia Junior College, died at her cottage home here on the campus last Thursday afternoon, June 16, following a prolonged illness. She was 68 years of age.

Mrs. Smith had been in failing health for the past two or three years, caused by an inward tumor. In spite of the best medical aid that could be obtained, her condition gradually grew more alarming from month to month. The best medical skill of St. Louis, Rochester, Minnesota and Battle Creek, Michigan administered to her as long as there was the slightest hope of affecting a cure, but of no avail.

Mrs. Mabel (White) Smith was born on a farm near Quincy, Ill., October 11, 1864. She graduated from Knox College, class of 1889, and on March 25, 1890, she was united in marriage to G. Byron Smith, her college classmate, both graduating at the same time. Immediately following their marriage, she and her husband taught school one term in Mazon, Ill., and in September 1890 she came as a bride with her husband to Iberia, when they established Iberia Academy that fall, and for 42 years toiled and worked together in the institution which is in part a living monument to her life's work.

During practically all of these 42 years, possibly with the exception of the past two years, she taught mathematics and Latin, being exceptionally efficient in these subjects. Her work by no means was confined to the school rooms alone, because her life was full of that desire to administer to the needs of the students and in fact all those who needed her advice and friendly council.

She was a life-long member of the Congregational Church here and one of its most generous supporters. For many years she taught the young men's Bible class and it was through her knowledge and manner of teaching that many a young man was inspired to live that more perfect life.

Mrs. Smith was an every-day Christian. The beautifying influence of the life she lived among us will ever be a guiding star to the better things of this life as well as the life beyond.

Mrs. Smith is survived by her husband, DR. G. Byron Smith, of Iberia, one brother and two sisters—Orville D. White of Syracuse, Kans., Mrs. E.F. Judy of Clayton, Ill., and Mrs. Chas. Bates of Spokane, Wash.

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at two o'clock, on the campus lawn in front of the cottage home, as per Mrs. Smith's request. Dr. J.T. Stocking, pastor of the Pilgrim Congregational Church, St. Louis, conducted the services and spoke in words of tenderest sympathy and comfort of the deepest Christian hope and promise. The choir consisting of six young ladies, Misses Martha Gertrude Casey, Faye Abbott, Doris Weeks, Vera Porter, Lela and Ruby Keeth, accompanied by Mrs. Cliff H. Clark and Miss Glennis Pemberton at the piano sang a number of beautiful____. Miss Lela Keeth also sang a touching solo, "Going Home".

Electa Hopkins, wife of Miles Davidson, deceased, was born at Washington, Indiana August 31, 1863 and died at the home of her son in St. Louis, Missouri November 29, 1932, at the age of sixty-nine years, twelve months and twenty-eight days.

Mrs. Davidson spent practically all of her girlhood in her home and at the early age of fifteen she made confession of her faith in her Savior and united with the Baptist Church of Washington, Indiana, but transferred her membership to the Congregational Church of Iberia after her marriage. While a young woman she, with her sister, Mrs. John Irwin, came to Iberia, Missouri to visit an older sister, Mrs. Ellen Osborn. It was here that she met Mr. Miles J. Davidson whom she married October 1887 and it was here that they made their home. To this union two sons were born, Otto who died at the age of twelve years, and Jennings who now resides in St. Louis.

Brother George Bear was born in Hacking County, Ohio, Nov. 1st, 1849, died March 18, 1918, age 68 years, 4 months and 17 days. In the year 1857 his father moved from Ohio to Missouri, settling on a farm on Coon Creek, 3 miles northeast of Tuscumbia, Miller County, Missouri. The farm is now owned by his brother D.C. Bear.

Here he grew up and in the year 1880, Dec. 5th, was united in marriage to Miss Jennie Curry, to this union were born 12 children, 3 having preceded him to the spirit land, one infant boy, two daughters, Gertrude and Ida. Following are the names of the surviving children: Henry, Clarence, Clyde, Lidie Nixdorf, Katy Stark, Florence Tremain, Edith and Ella Bear.

Bro. Bear became a Christian and united with the Mt. Zion Christian Church, Dec. 18, 1889, where he held his membership until his death. All these years he was faithful and took an active part in the work of the church, doing all he could to advance the cause and Kingdom of Christ. He was a great pillar in the church.

Besides his church affiliations, he was a remarkable man in many other ways and was an honest, reputable, progressive citizen; a kind friend, a good neighbor, devoted to his family and home. He certainly did love his family and neighbors.

Brother Bear became afflicted about 7 years ago. Received treatment, nursed and cared for by the family, gradually growing worse until on the morning of the 18th of March, about 4 o'clock in his late home, he quietly and peacefully passed out without a struggle in his death.

His wife has lost a devoted husband, the children a faithful father, the community a good neighbor and a noble citizen. He also leaves 4 brothers to mourn his loss: Andrew, Absolem, Simeon and David, besides many other relatives and a host of friends, who all have our sympathy and prayers.

Private Fremont Watkins, C.M. 101st U.S. Infantry, A.E.F., son of Emmitt and Louisa Watkins, born at Brown Branch, Taney County, Mo., Sept. 18th 1887, died in U.S. Army Gen. Hospital No. 10, Boston, Mass., April 20th 1919, of pneumonia fever. He was buried in the Hickory Point Cemetery in Miller County, Mo., beside his mother, two brothers and one sister, April 25, 1919.

When he was about two years of age his parents moved from Taney County to Miller County and at the age of eighteen, moved to Maries County, Mo. where he lived about two years, and about the year of 1908, he went to Colorado and stayed with an uncle a short time, then went on to the state of Oregon, and has since made his home in Oregon, California and Washington until the first draft caught him in the World War. He left St. John Washington about Aug. 1917 for Camp Lewis, Washington, then sailed from New York about Dec. 4, 1917, and from July 1918 'til Nov. 11, 1918, he was in several of the hardest battles the Americans took part in, and when the signal sounded the armistice, he was still hiding in shell holes.

He wrote home that he came out without a scratch, but his letter revealed the terrible strain he had undergone. On Thanksgiving Day he wrote to his father, that he had so much to be thankful for and had much to tell him when he got home, and every letter showed that he was anxious to get back to the old United States. It seems so hard to think he was taken from his ship in a delirious condition. He never knew he ever got back to America, but we must admit that everything works together for good to those who love the Lord.

Aug 1908, just before leaving Missouri, while visiting relatives in Miller County, he was happily converted in a meeting conducted by Bro. Sitton at Ulman, and joined the Union Baptist Church of which he was a member at his death.

He leaves a father, one brother, Henry, who is still overseas, one half brother, Spurgeon Watkins, and a host of relatives and friends to mourn his departure. He has only gone before and we hope to meet him up there where parting is no more.

Mrs. (Susan) Millie Morrow, a resident of Iberia, was found dead in bed at her home Sunday morning by her little six year old daughter. The little girl and her mother lived alone. On retiring for the night according to the little girl's story, her mother stated that she did not feel well, but of course the little child was too young to realize any danger. On awakening in the morning the little girl found her mother cold in death. She gave the alarm to the nearest neighbors who called and lent needed assistance.

The coroner, Dr. Kouns, of Tuscumbia was called and a coroner's inquest was held Sunday morning the verdict of which was that Mrs. Morrow came to her death from natural causes.

Interment was made in the Brays Cemetery Sunday afternoon. The little girl has been adopted by Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Clark of this place.

Note: A check of death certificate #32100 lists her husband as John Morrow and her parents as Archelous Whittaker and Nancy Crismon. The name "Mae Morrow" was written at the end of this obituary, possibly indicating the name of the child.

On Tuesday Evening at 8:50 o'clock, Mr. Fred P. Haus, who has resided in Iberia for the past six years, passed quietly into rest at his late home. The body was shipped to St. Louis on the midnight train for interment at Bellefontaine Cemetery.

Mr. Haus was born in Mobile, Ala., June 3, 1842 and moved to St. Louis with his parents at an early age. He was graduated from the public schools in St. Louis and was married to Miss Lizzie Fergusin in 1865. For about 45 years Mr. Haus was employed by the Charter Oak Stove & Range Co. in St. Louis the major portion of which time was spent as travelling salesman for that firm. He has been an active and conscientious member of the Gideon organization for twenty-one years, for one year filling the office of State Chaplain.

Mr. Haus retired from the road about five years ago. During the time spent on the road he made many friends who will learn with regret the death of such a beloved character, a man always ready and willing to do for his God which in his sight seemed the right thing to do.

The body was accompanied to St. Louis by his widow, his sons, Charles and Harry, and his daughters, Maggie Long and Belle Goodrich. Another son, William J., who resides in Utah, was unable to get here in time for the funeral.

Besides these children there were also three others, Fred P. Jr., Richard M. and Harry McCook, who died some years ago and who are buried in the family lot in Bellefontaine.

The Montrose Tidings, June 1933

Thomas E. Arnold was born in Iberia, Miller County, Mo., on February 16, 1868, and departed this life on June 29, 1933, age 65 years, 4 months and 13 days. Interment was in the Montrose Cemetery.

He was united in marriage to Millie Ann Ragsdale, August 5, 1888. This union was blessed with seven children, six of whom survive and join the loving wife and mother in mourning the passing of this dear one. Those surviving are Mrs. Millie Arnold, the widow, Mrs. R.A. Ring, Kansas City, Kans., A.F. Arnold, Los Angeles, Calif., W.L. Arnold, Kansas City, Mo., Mrs. W.T. Garrett, Clinton, Mrs. A.W. Jennings, Kansas City, Mo., Ruby Arnold, Montrose, J.W. Arnold, a brother, Springfield, Mo., and five grandchildren, Jack Ring, Martha Joan Ring, Dorothy Ann Garrett, Arnold Wayne Jennings and Doloris Lucille Arnold. One daughter, Cleo Blanche Arnold, died in infancy.

Funeral services were conducted from the home by Rev. C.E. Nickerson, Sunday, July 2, at 10 a.m. A beautiful service was read preceded by vocal selections rendered by Mrs. John Lasiter, Mrs. J.D. Teays, Billy Kahn, Hubert Miller and Rolla Adams. Following the services a host of friends and relatives formed a long cortege which proceeded to the Montrose Cemetery for interment. The host of friends attending the services and the beautiful floral offerings exemplified the esteem prevailing in the community and surrounding towns.

Mr. Arnold moved to Henry County 43 years ago, settling 2 miles southeast of Montrose, and engaged in farming for 3 years. The family then moved to Montrose, locating in the northwest part of town, remaining at this residence 4 ½ years. He was engaged in farming and draying. The family then moved to the present home and became engaged in the grist and saw mill business which was conducted by the deceased and his father for a few short years.

In 1903 Mr. Arnold received the appointment as rural carrier on Route No. 34, later changed to Route No. 5, which he served for 30 years. Reaching the age limit of 65 years on February 16, 1933, and having completed 30 years of service, he was retired from service on February 28, this year.

Mr. Arnold was a past president of the County Association of Rural Letter Carriers, in which organization he kept his membership until his death. He also had been clerk of the Modern Woodmen of America for the past 25 years.

Tom Arnold was converted and joined the Cumberland Presbyterian Church about 10 years ago and received much solace from his associations with the church.

Having completed so many years of faithful service, he was truly entitled to a long vacation which his retirement had made possible. Soon after his tour of duty was completed, his health failed and although feeling badly, he was not considered dangerously ill. Wednesday, June 28, he was taken suddenly and critically ill. Up until this time he had been able to dress and be up almost every day. He grew steadily worse from Wednesday morning and Thursday the children were notified of the impending danger of his passing on. All of the children, with the exception of A.F. Arnold of Los Angeles, and Mrs. A.W. Jennings of Kansas City, were at his bedside when he passed away. Having prepared himself for the end he passed out of this life to a life where trials and troubles are unknown.

Mr. Arnold was very devout in everything he was associated with and his passing is mourned by all who had occasion to be associated with him. Five rural carriers and the Postmaster of Montrose acted as Pallbearers.

The Iberia Sentinel, November 1933

John Kinder, one of Miller County's well known and influential citizens, died at the home of his son, Earl, here in Iberia, Monday of this week of anemia following asthma of which he has been a sufferer for the past five or six years.

Mr. Kinder was born in Miller County on the old Goodrich farm October 1, 1864, being at the time of his death 69 years, one month and 19 days old.

He devoted most of his life to farming, excepting one year in which he was engaged in the mercantile business, four years as sheriff of Miller County, and the past five or six years he has been in declining health.

About the year 1885 he was married to Miss Luella Blyze and to this union nine children were born, namely: William, Charley, Earl, Ray, Ralph, Jobe, Mrs. Sadie Condra, Mrs. Minnie McDonald and Mrs. Blanche Condra, all of whom survive except William who died about the year 1915. Mrs. Kinder died in 1916.

About forty years ago Mr. Kinder united with the Christian (Newlight) Church where he held his membership until about fifteen years ago, when he became a member of the Iberia Baptist Church where he retained his membership until his death.

Funeral services, conducted by the pastor, Rev. Fred Phillips, were held from the Iberia Baptist Church Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, after which the body was laid to rest beside his wife in the town cemetery. Adams & Casey funeral directors had charge. The Sentinel joins in extending deep sympathy to the bereaved ones.

The Iberia Sentinel, July 1933

Jane Short was born in Miller County, Missouri, February 5, 1856, died at Richland, Mo., July 29, 1933, aged 77 years, 5 months and 24 days. On May 12, 1889 she was united in marriage with Dr. H.C. Murphy who survives after more than 44 years of constant companionship.

Mrs. Murphy was a citizen of Richland for several years before her marriage, thus having been a continuous resident of Richland for nearly half century. Before coming to Richland, she joined the Christian Church at Iberia and after the discontinuance of the church at that place she united with the M.E. Church, of which she was a member at the time of her death.

She spent almost her whole married life within her home, to which she was unusually devoted, having the reputation of maintaining one of the most orderly homes in the community and outstanding in the culinary art. She was fond of flowers, and always remembered the sick and shut-ins with beautiful bouquets. Seldom was a funeral conducted in Richland without a beautiful floral offering of her own production and arrangement.

Mrs. Murphy will be missed by many who did small favors for her and received abundant recompense—nearly always above the customary wage. She lived beyond her allotted 3 score and 10 years, fulfilled her earthly destiny and has been gathered to her reward, but she will be long remembered here on account of her many kindly and charitable deeds.

Funeral services, conducted by Rev. Wells, minister of the M.E. Church at Richland, were held in the Richland Christian Church Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The body was then conveyed to the ___ cemetery where the last rites were solemnly performed by members of the Eastern Star Lodge, of which she was a member.

The Iberia Sentinel, March 1933

Eldon, Mo., May 23—Discovery of the body of C.T. Babcoke, 521, missing since March 26, in a shallow grave on his 140-acre farm near here today led authorities to believe they have uncovered a "murder victim". Babcoke had been killed with a shotgun.

Two other men have disappeared from the farm and Babcoke's father, Joe Babcoke, died there mysteriously in 1930. Three men who worked the farm on a share basis with the man whose body was found today were arrested and authorities planned a thorough search of the place in the hope of finding bodies of the missing men.

Those held are George C. Thompson, 70, Oliver Richardson, 21, and his brother, Frank Richardson 17, all from Kansas City, Kan. They were taken to the Miller County jail at Tuscumbia.

A party of neighbors led by Asa Gunn discovered Babcoke's body today only six inches beneath the surface of the ground about 100 yards to the rear of a barn. Condition of the body indicated it had been dead two months but the earth above it appeared to have been turned since a rain two days ago.

The search today resulted indirectly from a lawsuit filed by the estranged wife of the slain man. She sued Thompson last week for 17 head of cattle in his possession.

Authorities said they discovered a watch and some clothing in his possession which they believed had belonged to Babcoke.

The father was found dead on the farm in August 1930, and was buried without an autopsy. Shortly before his death, George Babcoke, 17, a half brother of the man found today, disappeared. A note saying he would return "after 50 years" was found. Jim Butler a stepfather of the Richardson boy disappeared from the place last January authorities recalled.

The Iberia Sentinel, July 1933

Avery Baucom of Eldon was killed in a fall from the middle pier of the bridge under construction at Tuscumbia, Monday morning about 7 o'clock. Baucom had just been employed as a steel worker and had worked only about one half hour when he lost his balance while at work on the high middle pier and plunged downward. His body struck the steel piling which had not been removed after the completion of the concrete pier and he was almost instantly killed.

Workmen who were working nearby stated that when Baucom apparently lost his balance he tried to jump clear of the construction work so that he would alight in the water but he hit a brace which threw him back causing him to light on the piling. The fall was from a height of about 62 feet. After hitting the piling he fell into the water and fellow workmen rescued him before he sank. His right side hit the piling and crushed his lungs badly. Dr. Kouns was immediately called but Baucom died within a few minutes without regaining consciousness.

Baucom leaves surviving him a widow and two small children.

John Luttrell was born in Miller County May 8, 1873; died at his home in Springfield, May 13, 1933, aged 60 years and 5 days. He was united in marriage to Nancy Duncan about 37 years ago, and to this union four children were born. Two of the children and his companion preceded him in death. Later he was married to Mrs. Faye Roberts of Springfield. He is survived by his second wife; daughters, Mrs. Burley of Springfield and Mrs. Mary Woodfill of Republic, Mo., also three grandchildren. Out of a large family he had only two brothers, B.D. Luttrell and William Luttrell, both of near Brumley; sisters, Mrs. Jane Duncan of near Brumley, Mo. and Mrs. Fannie Pemberton of Crescent, Mo.

He spent most of his life on the farm; about fifteen years ago he engaged in the mercantile business, beginning at Brumley, Mo. Later he moved to Republic and entered the grocery business where he remained for several years. Later he and his son moved to Springfield, where he conducted a grocery store until his death.

He obeyed the Gospel of his Savior about 20 years ago. Through this act of obedience he became a member of the family of God.

He was sick only a few hours, having suffered an epileptic stroke one evening and died the next morning. This is only a warning to mankind that we are swift passengers from time to eternity.

Brother Luttrell's fleshly tabernacle was brought back to Miller County near where he was born. The writer was called to speak words of comfort to the sorrowing relatives and many friends, after which the body was laid to rest in the silent city of the dead to await the judgment, at Mt. Union, where he held membership with the Church of Christ. So let us all prepare for that better place, where we can again meet and clasp the hands of brother Luttrell. —V.M. Smith

Miss Walker had been in poor health for some time. According to the telegram she died Sunday evening in a hospital in Rocky Ford, Colo., where she had been taken to undergo an operation. Interment was made in the cemetery at that place by the side of her father who died there three years ago.

Icy Mae Forester, the 15 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Forester, was born Oct. 3, 1908; died March 26, 1924, being 15 years, 5 months and 23 days old.

She leaves to mourn her departure a loving father, mother and three brothers, namely: Roy, Ray and Earl, besides a host of other sorrowing relatives and friends. Icy was a good girl and was loved by all who knew her. She will be sadly missed in her school but most of all, in the home. She was good and kind to all, inoffensive and devoted to her father, mother and brothers.

The remains were taken to the Livingston Cemetery, where many had gathered to pay their last tribute of love and respect to the departed one. The services at the grave consisted of a beautiful prayer by Mrs. M.C. Hicks and four appropriate and favorite songs were sung by her schoolmates and friends, namely: "Near My God to Thee", "Jesus Lover of My Soul", "Rock of Ages", and "Lord I'm Coming Home." Beautiful flowers were laid on her casket. One bouquet was presented to her by her teacher and schoolmates.

She was laid to rest in the Livingston Cemetery.

Glen Beaty, about 35 years of age, who lived with his mother, Mrs. Davidson, at Glenview, their home on the Gasconade River south of Crocker, was killed Wednesday night of last week when he fell from a 70 foot bluff within 200 yards of his home.

Mr. Beaty and Willie Wooster, who stays at the Ragain Roam home across the river, had been fishing that night and between 9 and 10 o'clock he started home alone without a light they having dropped their lantern in the river. As he did not reach home his mother became alarmed and the next morning went to a neighbor's home to make inquiry.

Search was immediately started and his body was found at 10 o'clock last Thursday morning at the foot of the bluff where he had evidently fallen when he missed the trail in the dark. His path was traced and showed plainly that he had taken the wrong turn with fatal results. He fell through a tree and his right hip was crushed and his head injured. After the coroner's inquest, which returned a verdict of cause of death unknown, the body was taken to Richland where it was prepared for burial and shipped to St. Louis, his former home, for burial.

Mrs. Davidson and her son had planned to make their permanent home in Glenview, which they had built and improved, and the tragic death of the son is a sad blow to the widowed mother. Both were well liked by their neighbors.

He was united in marriage to Elsie McDonald, March 9, 1913, and to this union were born three children—two boys and one girl. Bro Burks united with the Humphrey's Creek Christian Church in Oct. 1912, and lived in fellowship and communion with said church until God called him from labor to reward. He leaves to mourn their loss, wife, children, father, mother, brothers, sisters, many distant relatives and a host of friends.

Perry was an affectionate husband, a devoted father, obedient son and an ideal brother. He made friends with all whom he met because of his honesty, industry and befriending disposition. He was loved and well respected by all who knew him. He lost his health and for two years he was a patient sufferer until death came to his relief, and he was severed from all that was dear to him in this earthly realm.

The funeral services were held and conducted in the Mt. Zion Church by the writer, in the presence of a large congregation of relatives and friends who had assembled there to pay their last respects to one so worthy. The body was laid to rest in the Mt. Joel B. Blankenship was born July 20, 1850, in Russell Co. Kentucky. He was united in marriage to Mary J. Shockley Jan. 15, 1874. To this union were born nine children, four of them having preceded him to the spirit world. He leaves to mourn their loss an aged companion, five children, twenty grandchildren, one brother, besides a host of other relatives and friends. Uncle Joe, as he was commonly called, departed this life Feb 20, being at the time of his death 67 years and 7 months old. Uncle Joe was honorable and well respected by all who knew him. He was devoted to his family and home, but when we call to mind the statement of Jobe, "Man that is born of woman is of few days and full of trouble," we are made to realize the truth of the statement.

Uncle Joe had the care of an afflicted son for the past eight years. His wife told me that during the eight years they never knew what it was to lie down and sleep all night. On the 3rd of last November Uncle Joe was thrown from a horse which resulted in a broken limb besides other injuries. Since that time he has been confined to his bed almost all the time and just as he began to think he could be up he was taken seriously ill with pneumonia which resulted in his death. He endured his suffering very patiently and without a murmur.

The funeral services were conducted by the writer from the Baptist Church at Hickory Point Feb. 22 in the midst of a large and sorrowing audience, after which all that was mortal of Uncle Joe was laid to rest in the Hickory Point Cemetery. May God bless the sorrowing ones. I assure you, you have our sympathy and prayers. We trust their loss has been his eternal gain in heaven where all is love, peace and Joy.

Andrew J. Perkins was born January 3, 1829, in Franklin County, Missouri; departed this life Feb. 10, 1918, at the age of 89 years. He was united in marriage April 14, 1850, to Tabitha Lambert and of this union six children were born.

He was married a second time to Elizabeth Prior, and of this union there is one son, Robert, who was present at the funeral.

He was united a third time, 1867, to Mary J. Young who survives him. Of this union six children were born: Melvin, Emiline (deceased), Lewis, Viola (deceased), Paralee, and Evalin—thirteen children in all.

Bro. Perkins professed faith in Christ, was baptized and united with the M.E. Church in 1852, was licensed to exhort soon afterward and has ever been an earnest and faithful Christian all these many years.

Bro. Perkins, for many years, has testified to the Pauline and Wesleyan heart experience of entire sanctification or heart purity and suffered some persecution, but his friends testify to an ever holy life.

His request had been for years that 2nd Timothy 4-7 be used as a text at his funeral. "I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith." And in accordance with his request this text was used.

Funeral services were held from the M.E. Church on Monday afternoon, conducted by Revs. R.T. Hodges and C.M. Sooter, after which the body was laid to rest in the Union Cemetery.

The Iberia Sentinel, November 1923

Mrs. Laura Johnston, widow of the late Geo. W. Johnston and one of Iberia's most noble women, died here last Friday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W.A. von Grempe. The cause of her death was kidney trouble from which she had been a sufferer for about five years.

Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Methodist Church (the Congregational Church building being used by the public school). Dr. G. Byron Smith conducted the services, paying a beautiful and fitting tribute to the departed one. Nephews of the deceased acted as pallbearers. Interment was made in the town cemetery under direction of Adams and Casey, undertakers.

Miss Laura Irwin was born in Mifflingburg, Pennsylvania April 8, 1854, and came to Missouri with her parents when she was six years old. In 1869 she was married to Geo. W. Johnston, who preceded her in death five years ago. She is survived by five children, David Johnston of Santa Ana, Calif., W.I. Johnston of Shawnee, Okla., Mrs. Sallie Stuntz of Las Animas, Col., Mrs. W.A. von Grempe and Victor Johnston both of Iberia, a daughter, Mrs. Everett Allen, having died a number of years ago. She also leaves to mourn her departure four brothers and one sister, Chas. T. Irwin of Fellows, Calif., William Irwin, John L. Irwin and Holmes Irwin and Mrs. C.W. Farnham all of Iberia besides a large number of grandchildren.

Mrs. Johnston was a life long member of the Congregational Church, her life being one worthy of emulation. After a long, busy and useful life she died as she had lived—honored, trusted and loved.

The daughter and two sons at home and present at the funeral, Mrs. W.A. von Grempe, Willie and Victor Johnston, request us to kindly express their sincere thanks to the Methodist people for tendering the use of their church for the funeral services. Also to the kind neighbors and friends who so willingly lent their assistance and gave the beautiful floral offering they wish to tender thanks.

John Kallenbach was born in Saxony, Germany on the 10th day of December 1844; he departed this life, surrounded by his family and relatives, at his home on the Saline Creek near Tuscumbia, on the 29th day of December, 1918, aged 74 years and 19 days. The subject of this sketch emigrated to the United States in his early youth and soon thereafter became a naturalized citizen of the country. Not long after his arrival, he enlisted in the Union Army and served his adopted country well and faithfully throughout that long struggle, a private in Co. G. 10th Regiment of Missouri Volunteer Cavalry.

Mr. Kallenbach was united in marriage to Miss Christina Artz on November 12, 1876. Of this union four children were born, Roland O. Kallenbach, now of Hession, Kans., Oliver R. and Oscar E. Kallenbach, both of Miller County, and Bertha a daughter who died in infancy. His first wife departed this life January 1892.

On August 15, 1895, he was united in marriage with Minnie A. Nixdorf, a daughter of the late DR. A.P. Nixdorf, one of the pioneer physicians of Miller County and to this union nine children were born; Miss Stella, now one of Miller County's school teachers, John Frederick, Edison C., Raymond, Ruth, Nellie, Henry, Ruby and Hazel, all of whom, together with the widow, survive.

Mr. Kallenbach became a member of the Christian Church many years ago and remained a consistent member thereof until his death. He was also a member of the Grand Army of the Republic.

Soon after the Civil War Mr. Kallenbach established a home in Tuscumbia, and engaged in the blacksmith and wagon making business. By his rugged honesty, fair dealing and industry he accumulated considerable property; the last twenty years of his life was passed on his farm a few miles north of Tuscumbia. He was a man whose word was his bond, and Miller County has lost another one of her pioneer citizens; of a quiet, unassuming nature, always ready to accommodate a friend whenever possible, he is numbered among the good citizens of our community, and his absence will long be felt by his neighbors and friends with whom he came in contact.

His remains were laid to rest in the cemetery on the hill, amidst his sorrowing relatives and friends, there to await the Resurrection Morn.

Charley Prater, one of the enterprising farmers of the Johnston neighborhood, was run down and killed by an automobile in Klingmon, Kans., on Wednesday of last week. He and Mrs. Prater and son Guy, were on their way to visit another son elsewhere in Kansas, making the trip overland in their Ford car.

They had stopped, so we are informed, in Klingmon for a lunch and as Mr. Prater was crossing the street a car driven by a young man knocked him down. The accident so excited the driver that in trying to stop the car suddenly, he reversed the machine, running back over Mr. Prater, this time causing injuries which proved fatal. He lived only a few hours.

We understand the owner of the car paid all funeral expenses. The body was shipped back home and interment was made in the Bethany Cemetery Saturday.

Our little city was shocked Friday afternoon when it was announced that F.G. Burris, one of our fellow townsmen, had been found dead in bed at his home near the Anchor Mill. Mrs. Chas. Burris came to town Friday and went to see Mr. Burris but found the doors locked and could not gain admittance. Will Bassman who works at the mill was called over to the house. He looked through a window and discovered the body lying on a bed. He got "Squire" H.W. Scott and they broke into the house and found from examination that he had been dead for two or three days. The body was in a badly decomposed condition and almost past handling.

A coroner's jury was summoned and after considering the matter tendered a verdict that the deceased had come to his death from natural causes. Mrs. Burris died several weeks ago very suddenly from heart failure and since that time Mr. Burris had been living alone.

On account of the condition of the body a hasty burial was necessary and interment was made in the town cemetery late Friday night. Mr. Burris was a good man and a worthy citizen.

It is with deepest sorrow we announce the death of John Uel Pemberton at Drumright, Okla., on June 21, 1920. He was born February 8, 1914, at Iberia. He was the son of C.F. and Carrie Pemberton, formerly of Miller County but now living in Drumright, Okla.

Uel, with his brother Oscar and some neighbor boys, were playing near his home when an oil truck passed by and stopped. The boys asked the driver to ride with him. He told them to get in. The older boys jumped into the seat. Little Uel was at the side trying to get in when the truck started, causing him to fall. The rear wheel ran over his body, killing him almost instantly. A doctor was called at once and all that loving hands could do was done for him.

He leaves a father, mother, one sister, two brothers, two grandparents, and many relatives and friends to mourn his death.

Funeral services were held at the Baptist Church in Drumright, Okla., June 23. The services were very impressive. His Sunday school teacher and classmates paid a beautiful floral tribute. They sang his favorite song, "The Meeting in the Air." We never can forget hearing his sweet voice singing it and it will be a glorious meeting "over there" when we all shall meet again. The body was laid to rest in the Drumright Cemetery.

It was so sad to part with him, but we realize that our loss was Uel's eternal gain. Oh, 'tis so lonely here without him.

Minnie, the dearly beloved wife of Lee Thomson, died in Kansas City, Kans., May 13, 1920. She was born in Miller County about 32 years ago and was a daughter of the late Marion Roark, a Civil War veteran.

She was married to Lee Thomson at the residence of Mal Wyrick December 25, 1906; was the mother of four children, the oldest eleven, youngest two years, all ill of measles at the time of her death from pneumonia following measles. The announcement of her death so unexpectedly was received with greatest sadness by relatives and friends of her native community, for all who really knew her loved her for her genuine goodness of heart and devout Christian virtues. She loved the church of which she was a member for many years prior to her death; was a devoted wife and affectionate mother, cherished her duty toward a sick or distressed neighbor.

The funeral was held from the Christian Church at Tuscumbia and the body laid to rest in the Tuscumbia Cemetery. Friends sent flowers from Kansas City which were added to the splendid collection by the friends at Tuscumbia, and brother A.R. Peeler of the Church of Christ, after reading from the XIV Chapter of St. John, made appropriate remarks. The attendance of sorrowing relatives and friends was large and they were deeply moved.

The story of Mr. Ress' death is a sad one. As reported to us by Mrs. Ress and his half-brother, Mr. Geo. Smith, who accompanied the body here from St. Louis, Mr. Ress died Dec. 23, 1916. He was found seriously ill on the street in St. Louis and was taken to the city hospital where he was examined by physicians who found him speechless and in an unconscious condition, unable to tell anything about his people. There seemed to be no one who could identify him. His illness soon proved fatal and the body was buried int eh absence of relatives.

Mrs. Ress was visiting a sister at the time and had been detained on account of an injury received in an accident on her way home. In the meantime she was notified of his death, but did not learn the particulars until she returned to St. Louis. She immediately notified his brother (who had not yet learned of his death) and preparations were at once made to have the body exhumed and shipped to Iberia for burial.

Bro Thompson was one of the early pioneer ministers of the state of Missouri and his work very outstanding. He was ordained to the ministry on April 2, 1888, in the Christian Church at Brumley, Mo. He was pastor of this church for 16 consecutive years and continued to preach for this church most of the time until he retired from the active ministry several years ago. Bro. Thompson's records of his ministerial work was destroyed by fire when his home burned several years ago, however, as near as he could estimate the number he baptized was about 10,000. He helped to establish churches and ordained a number of ministers.

The number of funerals cannot be estimated. Most every family in this section of Missouri has heard his words of comfort in a time of their deepest sorrow. As to marriages, he did not remember the number he had united in the holy band and wedlocks.

(lengthy words of praise omitted here)

On Oct. 24, 1877, Bro. Thompson was married to Mary Eliza Bruin. To this union 14 children were born. Two preceded him in death. One of Tuscumbia's families was overshadowed in the darkest gloom and the town saddened last week when two deaths occurred in the home of Charles Messersmith. On Thursday evening at six o'clock, Ida Helen, their little daughter, passed away, and on Saturday at 4 o'clock, Hiram, the father of Charles, died.

Hiram was a pioneer citizen of Miller County. He was born in Cole County near Hickory Hill, August 14, 1842. The family moved to Miller County near St. Elizabeth when he was nine years old.

When the trouble arose between the North and the South, Hiram became a member of the Home Guards in 1861 and served two years. In 1863, he enlisted in the 18th Missouri Cavalry and served two years. He was engaged in a number of battles, including Tupelo, Miss., Selma, Ala., Corinth, Miss., and Nashville, Tenn.

After the close of the war, 1869, he was united in marriage to Harriet Rowden of the east part of Miller County. His wife died in 1918 of influenza at Tuscumbia, his daughter, Idella, dying at the same time of the same epidemic. At that time he also had the influenza and since that time has been an invalid. He has been making his home with his son, Charles, since the death of his wife.

The family was living at Iberia when she had an attack of heart trouble, which brought about invalidism, the ailment probably being the result of an attack of influenza. When her father was elected assessor, she came with her parents to Tuscumbia and attended public school until November when she suffered a recurrent attack of the old trouble, and since then has hovered between life and death until the end came. Besides her parents, she is survived by one brother, John, and two sisters, Waneta and Mildred.

Beautiful services were held at the Christian Church Saturday afternoon for the two. Rev. J.C. Thompson of Brumley, delivered the sermon. This double funeral was more than unusual in that the Messersmith family in the past ten years has experienced two other similar sorrows. During the influenza epidemic in 1918, Mrs. Hiram Messersmith and her daughter, Mrs. Fidella Goodnough – balance missing

Iberia Sentinel, July 1933

The Death Angel has again invaded another Iberia home and taken from our midst, Dr. William A. von Grempe, a capable and successful physician here for many years. Death occurred at about ten o'clock last Saturday evening, July 15th.

Dr. von Grempp had enjoyed normal health up until a few weeks ago when he became afflicted with a throat trouble which grew alarming. On June 11th he went to Chicago to consult a specialist in regard to his condition and a few days later submitted to an operation. He seemed to be getting along satisfactorily from the operation and was able to be brought home July 7th. After returning home, although confined to his bed, he apparently seemed to improve until a short time before his death, when he complained of pains about his chest which soon gave the family warning of the impending danger. Dr. Duncan, local physician, and Dr. Mallett of Crocker were called and before the latter arrived, Dr. von Grempp had passed away. The immediate cause of his death was pronounced a blood clot in the artery leading to the heart.

Dr. von Grempp was born in Maries County, Missouri, June 22, 1869. His parents were of German ancestry, evidently belonging to the nobility. He received his early education in the public schools of Weaubleu and Columbia, Missouri. He continued his education at the University of Missouri and in 1893 completed his medical course at the St. Louis College of Physicians and Surgeons which conferred upon him the degree of M.D. He first located for practice at Dixon, Mo. About 1898 he entered upon practice at Iberia where he has since remained with the exception of a few years. He was first married to Miss Emily Pickering who died at an early age. To this union was born his son, Walter, who is a captain in the United States Army and is at present stationed in northern Michigan.

On June 13, 1900, at Iberia, Dr. von Grempp was united in marriage to Miss Annie Johnston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Johnston, one of the pioneer families of Iberia. This union is survived by two sons, Blufford and Ellis, and two daughters, Zella and Vivian. The deceased is also survived by one sister, Mrs. Louis Conley of Columbia, Mo. His brother, Henry von Grempp, also a physician, died at his home in Dixon a few years ago.

Dr. von Grempp enjoyed a wide practice which included southern Miller County and extended into the neighboring counties of Maries and Pulaski. He not only possessed a broad scientific knowledge, but also a humanitarian spirit which found expression in cheer, helpfulness and sympathy.

The deceased was a member of the Congregational Church at Iberia. Fraternally he was a Mason, member of the local order. Concluding the services at the home, the body was conveyed to the town cemetery where the last rites were solemnly performed by members of the Masonic fraternity, after which burial was made under direction of the local undertaking firm of Adams and Casey.

John K. Wallis, well known former resident of Iberia and one of the comparatively few remaining Civil War veterans, died at the home of his son, Clifford, near Montreal in Camden County, Sunday, March 19. A year or more ago Mr. Wallis went to visit in the home of his son, and shortly after arriving there he fell and broke his hip which prevented his returning to Iberia. Since that time he continued to fall in health until death came as a relief. At the time of his death he was 89 years, 9 months and 21 days old

Mr. Wallis resided in the community in which he died for many years. But after the death of his first wife and his marriage to Mrs. Margaret Whittle of Miller County, he bought a home in Iberia and lived here until he suffered the above mentioned injury. He joined the Union Army when quite young and served throughout the Civil War.

Mr. Wallis is survived by his second wife, Mrs. Margaret Wallis of Iberia, six or seven sons and three daughters, besides a host of other relatives.

The sad news reached here last week that Mrs. Mary E. Hodgden, formerly of Iberia, died March 28, in Center Point, Iowa, at the home of her nephew, J. Fay Newland with whom she has made her home for the past five years. Mrs. Hodgden and her husband, Henry Hodgden made their home in Iberia and vicinity for many years and were two of our most beloved and highly respected citizens. A few years after Mr. Hodgden's death, January 30, 1921, she went to Iowa to make her home with her nephew.

The following clipping is taken from the Center Point Independent of April 6, 1933, giving an account of her death and a brief sketch of her life:

"Mary Ellen Newland, daughter of Andrew Allen and Sarah Argo Newland was born June 5, 1846, in Union County, Ohio, and passed away March 28, 1933 at the home of her nephew, J. Fay Newland in Center Point, Iowa.

"She lived in Ohio during her childhood and early womanhood until she was married August 22, 1869 to Henry Hodgden. Then they moved to Missouri where he died January 30, 1921. No children were born to this union but they adopted a pair of three weeks old twins, a daughter, Alice May, who lived only three months and a son, Albert Fay, who also passed away, September 20, 1925. After losing these members of her immediate family and being of advanced age, she came to Central Point in July five years ago and has since made her home with her nephews, Mark A. and J. Fay Newland.

“Mrs. Hodgden joined the Christian Church at an early age, and was always a most devout Christian enjoying her work in the church as long as she was physically able and her Bible was her great comfort. Her favorite passage of scripture was, “Fear God, and keep his commandments—That is the whole duty of man”—and that was the law by which she lived.

“Ever thoughtful of others cheerful disposition and always a gentlewoman. She had been in failing health for some time, due to her old age of nearly eighty-seven years. She is survived by a foster grandson and granddaughter and nieces and nephews.

“Funeral services were held Thursday afternoon in the Newland home where she last lived, conducted by Rev. Jenks of the First Christian Church who used the text above quoted. The body was placed in the Center Point Cemetery by the side of her father and mother, her brother, H.D. Newland and her grandmother, May Allen Newland.”

The Iberia Sentinel, March 1933

Mrs. R.M. Livingston of near Iberia received a long distance message Sunday morning informing her that her son, Carl Durham, was seriously injured and three of his young companions instantly killed in an automobile accident near Springfield early Sunday morning. Mr. and Mrs. Livingston left immediately to be at his bedside in the Springfield Baptist Hospital where he was taken for treatment. His skull was crushed and both arms broken.

Word reached here Tuesday that young Durham died about four o'clock that morning without regaining consciousness.

According to the Springfield press reports, Carl and his three companions, Carl Koeneman, Harry Edward Gibson and Mrs. Mildred Tatum Weaver had attended a dance at a road house known as Horseshoe Stables, a few miles south of Springfield. It is believed the party left the dance about 2 o'clock to go for a ride before returning to Springfield. The four young people were riding in a small coupe and as they were evidently speeding along the highway at the curve on James River hill, where route 60 leaves 65 about 9 miles southeast of Springfield, the car plunged over the embankment at this point.

Before making the fatal plunge the car left the pavement and headed for the ravine without striking the guardrail which had been erected along the highway further up the road. The coup's speed carried it along the rim of the ravine on two wheels until he top crashed into a large telephone poll. The telephone pole was clipped off in two places, leaving the cross-arms dangling from the wires in mid-air.

In the crash the car's occupants were thrown into the ravine and the car fell on top of them. Passing motorists were attracted to the scene of the accident by the burning tail light of the car and the groans of young Durham who was found unconscious crumpled up in a heap by the side of his dead companions.

The death of young Durham Tuesday morning leaves no living witness to the tragic accident. Such fate snuffed out the lives of four young people who but a few moments earlier were enjoying the pleasures of youth.

Mrs. Mildred Tatum Weaver was the estranged wife of Paul Weaver and was employed at the Oberman Manufacturing Company in Springfield. She was a sister of Charles and W.A. Tatum of Springfield and Allen Tatum of Granite City, Ill.

Carl Koeneman, also of Springfield, was a photographer's assistant.

Harry Edward Gibson was a former employee at a sandwich shop in Springfield.

Carl Durham, son of Mrs. R.M. Livingston of near Iberia, made his home with his sister, Mrs. Ethel Doss in Springfield. He was captain of the Senior High School football team while a student there, and he made a letter each year he played with the Teachers College Bears, being captain in 1930. He completed his work for graduation March 3.

Funeral services of Mrs. Weaver and Mr. Gibson were held Monday and burial at Springfield. The body of young Koeneman was taken to Mt. Vernon, the home of his parents. The funeral and burial of Carl Durham will probably take place at Springfield Wednesday.

This community was shocked when word reached here that the three small children of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Raley of St. Louis and Miss Maude Crismon, their nurse, met death by drowning late Friday evening when their car plunged off a bridge into ten feet of water in southern Mississippi.

The mother of the three children was before her marriage, Miss Edna Phillips, who lived here and is well known by many of our people. The nurse, Miss Maude Crismon, is also well known in Iberia, she having a year or so ago stayed with Grandma Short and attended the public school here. She is a daughter of Mrs. Ernest Shackelford of near Capps.

The body of the Crismon girl was brought to Iberia and funeral services were held from the Nazarene Church Monday afternoon and interment made in the town cemetery. Funeral services for the three Raley children were held at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon at St. John's Methodist Church in St. Louis, Burial was in Valhalla Cemetery.

The following article appeared in the Sunday St. Louis Post-Dispatch, giving particulars of the tragic accident:

Three young daughters of Thomas C. Raley, 5138 St. Louis Avenue, President of the Getz Exterminator Co., and their nurse were drowned in Bayou La Fontain, a mile west of Pascagoula, Miss., late Friday afternoon when the Raley automobile, crowded by a truck approaching at high speed, crashed through a wooden guard rail on a toll bridge and sank in 10 feet of water.

Those drowned were:

Jane Elizabeth Raley, 7 years old.

Edna Frances Raley, 4 years old,

Nancy Lee Raley, 2 ½ years old

Maude Crismon, 16 years old, a distant relative of Mrs. Raley and formerly of Iberia, Mo.

Mrs. Raley, who was driving the car, a Studebaker coach, was rescued by her husband who had been riding in the front seat with her and who climbed out through a window after the car sank. He held her above water until fishermen pulled them out 10 or 15 minutes later.

“We were driving from New Orleans to Atlanta, by way of Mobile,” Raley told the Post-Dispatch over telephone from Pascagoula yesterday. When the accident occurred we were almost in the middle of a mile-long wooden bridge across the bayou. We had been driving about 30 miles an hour, but my wife saw a truck coming fast toward us and slowed down

“The truck stayed in the middle of the bridge and Mrs. Raley, fearing a collision, swerved to the right. The car struck something at the right side of the bridge just as the truck passed. Whatever it was we struck forced our car to lunge across the bridge. It crashed through the guard rail on the left side and fell into the water, about five or seven feet below the roadway of the bridge.

“As it struck the water, the car turned over and settled on bottom, upside down. The water was about 10 feet deep. It rushed into the front windows, which were open...(copy missing here)..be about 10, but I was confused by my struggles—I got through the window beside me, and pulled Mrs. Ralley out after me, I swam with her to one of the bridge piers and held on, holding her by the hair.

“She was almost unconscious and I had to hold her until help came. One of her arms was badly cut. After some time, a group of fishermen came up and pulled us in to the bridge. Then they dived in and brought up the children and the nurse. But it was 30 minutes after the accident before they got them out, and it was too late.

“The truck didn’t stop on the bridge. I was told, however, that the driver went on to the end of the bridge and turned around and came back. I saw a truck driven by a young fellow standing there after the accident, but I don’t know if it was the same one that crowded us. Mrs. Raley wasn’t sure either. We were so confused.

“Mrs. Raley is suffering from shocks and the cut on her arm. A doctor took nine stitches in it. I wasn’t hurt and am all right, except for the shock. The car was pulled out of the bayou about 9 o’clock Friday night, but we’re not going to drive it back. We’re leaving for St. Louis on the first train, and we’ll be in Sunday noon on the L & N. No. 4”

Rosa Barton Burks, was born Oct. 18, 1885, died April 7, 1923, age 37 years, 5 months and 20 days.

On Tuesday, April 34d, a son was born to Mr. and Mrs. R.T. Burks of East Salem, Mo. Mother and baby seemed to be doing nicely until on Thursday when it was found Mrs. Burks had developed pneumonia, dying Saturday about 12 o'clock.

She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Barton. About four years ago Mr. and Mrs. Burks came to Dent County, buying and locating on a farm 3 miles south of Salem, but one year later in order to avail themselves of better school advantages, they moved into town, Mr. Burks now being with Bennett Bro. in the grocery business.

Mr. and Mrs. Burks were married January 26, 1908. To them were born six children, Helen, Wynette, Gayrth, Gertrude, George and the baby boy. To her husband and children Mrs. Burks was a model wife and mother. Her greatest pleasure was being at home among her family. The husband went to his business, the children to school but they never came home without finding "Mother" there waiting to minister to them. Perfect peace and happiness reigned in that home.

It was the writer's good fortune to have known Mrs. Burks since she came to Dent County, and I knew her to be a woman of high ideals, quiet and unassuming in her manner. She has made many new but true and loyal friends here. To these and to her family her unexpected death was a great shock.

Besides husband and children she leaves father, mother and four sisters, MRs. Barney Dawson, Mrs. James Clark of Ulman, Mo., MRs. Walter Patterson and Miss Amy Barton of Salem, Mo. One sister, Mrs. Joe Mayfield preceded her in death about three years ago.

In the presence of a large sympathetic audience the funeral services were conducted by Rev. E.F. Maness and the remains under the direction of S.A. Dawson undertaker, were tenderly placed beneath mother earth in the Stagner Cemetery near their farm home.

Louis Denman Moneymaker was born in Mattoon, Ill., April 27, 1860; died at his home in Rolla, Mo., Sept 6, 1919, being at the time of his death 59 years 4 months and 10 days old. On January 16, 1881, he was married to Elizabeth Hance, and to this union were born six children—four girls and two boys, all of whom survive him.

He united with the Church of Christ at about the age of 24 years. From the time of his conversion it was his desire to sow the seed of the Kingdom. Twenty-seven years ago at Brumley, Mo. he was ordained to preach the gospel, from which time he has ever proved true to his calling. Of him it can be said, he hath done what he could. He was patient, loving and kind through all his sufferings and while at times he would express a desire to live that he might do good, yet ever resigned to the will of the Lord, and that few who saw him during his illness but will remember some good admonition to prepare for the life to come.

On Tuesday, Sept. 9th funeral services were held from the Presbyterian Church, conducted by Bro. Romine, of Rolla, Mo., Bro Diestlecamp of St. James, Mo., Bro. Rinehart of Oak Grove, Mo. and Bro. Paul Glover of Lacoma, Mo., after which all that was mortal of our dear brother was conveyed to the Rolla Cemetery, there to await the sound of the trumpet when the dead in Christ shall rise first.

He leaves to mourn their loss a wife, six children, two brothers and two sisters, besides a host of other relatives and friends. His friends could only be numbered by the hundreds.

Mrs. Frances Maxwell died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Whalen, July 22nd in her 89th year, after a long, lingering illness which tested her faith to the utmost, but the more severe her suffering was the stronger her faith in the Savior became. She passed away with a smile on her lips, saying to the loved ones who stood near, "Jesus has called me".

She leaves four generations to mourn her absence. The three daughters and one daughter-in-law: Mrs. Elizabeth Whalen, Mrs. Amanda Phillips, Mrs. J.P. Smith, and Mrs. Mary Ann Maxwell, wife of a son who preceded her to Glory eighteen months ago, were with her when the end came.

While it is sad to know her voice is stilled and to see the vacant chamber, we, like the prophet, rejoice in the consolation that though she can't come back to us, we can go to her.

Miss Lura Setser, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C.C. Setser, was born July 3, 1896; died at the home of her parents in Tuscumbia Friday, Feb. 9, 1923.

Miss Setser contracted tuberculosis a year or so ago and shortly afterwards was compelled to give up her clerical work in the court house at Tuscumbia, where she assisted her father in the Collector's office, and for some time was assistant county clerk. She established a reputation for efficient service rendered while working in this capacity. Prior to her parents moving to Tuscumbia, she was one of the Southside's successful school teachers, having taught two terms in the Iberia Public schools and a number of years in the rural districts.

She was a kind, loving daughter, and her devotion to the family circle had no limit. She was also a member of the Christian Church and her life was one worthy of emulation.

Well may those dear to her cherish her memory as a precious legacy and we fain would say a word of comfort to the grief stricken ones we can but let our tears flow in sympathy with theirs, and point them to the promise, "At eventide it shall be light."

The Iberia Sentinel, February 1923

What seemed to be the saddest and most heart rending shock that ever visited this community occurred at Fairview Church north of Iberia last Saturday afternoon, when Mrs. Stella Setser, wife of Collector C.C. Setser, died while the funeral sermon was being preached by Rev. C.M. Sooter over the body of her daughter who had passed away at their home in Tuscumbia on Friday morning of tuberculosis from which she had been suffering for some time.

Mrs. Setser had been as well as usual, but a severe attack of the flu a few years ago had left her with a weak heart, and the grief over the death of her daughter rendered her condition somewhat alarming. Realizing her condition her husband advised her to stay at home and not attend the funeral, but, like any devoted mother, she insisted on coming and the family finally consented.

On the way over from Tuscumbia she experienced several sinking spells and at the Brumley place the funeral procession was stopped and Dr. von Grempe of this place was called to meet them at the church when they arrived. On the arrival at the church, Dr. von Grempe at once saw that Mrs. Setser's condition was serious and administered a stimulant hoping that it might strengthen her so that she could resist the shock. But before the minister had proceeded far with his sermon, her condition grew worse and she was removed from the building and placed in a car where she could get more fresh air. She only lived a few minutes after being placed in the car.

Her daughter, Mrs. James Spearman, and her brother, Petty Musick, both of whom have also been left with weak hearts from the effects of the flu, were so effected by the shock that their condition became alarming, and for some time it took heroic work on the part of the physician and friends to relieve the tense situation.

The funeral services were brought to a close as soon as possible and the bodies of both Mrs. Setser and her daughter were brought on to Iberia and held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G.W. Adams until Sunday afternoon when they were conveyed to the Livingston Cemetery, three miles northwest of Iberia, and both bodies interred in the same grave in the presence of a large concourse of sorrowing relatives and friends.

Mrs. Setser held an insurance policy in the Springfield Mutual amounting to about $425, and her daughter, Lura, $1,000 in the Metropolitan.

On the 20th day of May, 1883, she was married to Wm. Harris who preceded her to the other world. To this union were born six children, all of whom survive her. They are Everett, John, Grover and Ralph Harris, Mrs. Clarence Blackburn of near Tuscumbia and Mrs. Elmer Rush of Kansas City.

Lizzie Augusta Adcock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Caloway Wyrick, was born April 31, 1884, died March 19, 1918, age 34 years, 11 months, 11 days. She was united in marriage to Ira Adcock Sept. 1900; to this union were born 10 children, 7 boys Calvin, Ralph, Arley, Stanley, William and Homer. Girls: Effie and Verry. Calvin, the oldest boy and two infant girls preceded her to the spirit land. She confessed faith in Christ, united with the Christian Church on the morning of March 19th and died in the evening of the same day.

Lizzie was born and raised near Tuscumbia, Miller Co. Mo., where she has a great many relatives and friends. She had the reputation in the neighborhood in which she lived and died as being a good neighbor and tender hearted woman. Some 3 or 4 years ago she became afflicted with lung trouble, lost her health, received treatment but all efforts failed. And in the evening of the 19th she quietly and peacefully passed out without a struggle.

Before she died she called for her children; the relatives presented the little group of 7; she gave them a mother's last farewell look. These poor little children have no mother now. Their dear mother went away. (balance of sentiments omitted here)

Among those left to mourn her loss is the husband, children, father and four sisters, Elvia Crismon, Melvia Lawson, Engie Weitz, Sarah Thompson, and Joseph, a brother. The funeral was conducted by the writer at the Mt. Zion Church in the presence of a very large congregation who had gathered there to pay their last tribute of respect, so justly due the departed. (sermon portion of obituary omitted here).

Without acting on the advice of any one the writer called for a freewill offering. The good people willingly responded to the call by contributing $22.79, this amount was turned over to Ira and the children...

The body was laid to rest in the Mt. Zion Cemetery. -C.M. Sooter

The Death Angel visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Fielding Hamilton Monday, June 19, 1922, taking away their little baby, William Brice, age 11 months, and 27 days. Little Brice was sick 20 days before God took him to that beautiful home in heaven.

He leaves father, mother, two brothers and one sister, grandparents and many other near relatives and friends to mourn his loss. But we know that our loss is his eternal gain. For the Lord giveth and he taketh away. We know he is sweetly resting in the arms of our blessed Savior and he shall suffer no more. Their darling baby was with them only a short time. He was budded on earth to bloom in heaven. All the power of many friends, father, mother and two physicians was doen but God called him home. We know that little Brice cannot come back, but thank God we can meet him if we only put our trust in God. With sorrow we can miss his little blue eyes and sweet smiles in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton.

He was laid to rest in the Capps Cemetery on the following day. So we hope and pray that we shall meet little Brice in that land of endless days where we shall dwell with him forever and ever. —by a cousin, Minnie Clark

Little Lois Marie Martin, aged 4 years, 8 months and 28 days, the youngest child of Mr. and Mrs. G.M. Martin, died at her home in Iberia, Saturday night, June 17, after a three weeks' illness of typhoid fever.

Thus over a happy home the shadows of grief have been thrown by her departure. This baby life was so precious, so fraught with blessings to her parents, brothers and sisters that she seemed a flower of paradise permitted to bloom for a brief season by their side then recalled by the all-wise Father, leaving the earth road for them dark and lonely indeed. Death it seems is a hard master. It takes from us our brightest and best, but it cannot even mar memory. The memory of little Lois' babyhood life while with us will serve as a balm to our wounded hearts.

The people of Iberia and vicinity were saddened last Thursday when word reached here to the effect that Asa F. Grady had passed away at St. Anthony Hospital in St. Louis, where he submitted to a serious operation, Aug 2 of having a large carbuncle removed from the back of his neck. He had been a sufferer of diabetes for the past year or so, an ailment which had impaired his health causing the carbuncle to form and spread to such an alarming extent that an operation became necessary. However, his weakened condition failed to respond to this treatment of the last resort.

The body accompanied by his wife and his two sons, Calvin and Walter, who had been with him during his final illness, was brought back to Iberia Friday afternoon by C.L. Casey, local funeral director and interred in the town cemetery Sunday afternoon.

Impressive funeral services, conducted by one of his closest friends, Rev. Chas. M. Sooter, assisted by Rev. I.M. Cook of Waynesville, were held in the Baptist Church here Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the presence of several hundred more people than could crowd into the house. Members of the Iberia Masonic Lodge, of which he was affiliated, had charge of the burial ceremony.

Mr. Grady was one of our best and most jovial citizens and no doubt had as many friends as anyone living in Iberia. He was of a cheerful disposition and possessed a heart full of sympathy and consideration for his less unfortunate friends and neighbors.

He was one of our most influential businessmen, being the senior member of the Grady & Porter general mercantile company.

Flavious Alvin Curry, a well-known and respected citizen of the Capps community, died at his home in the village of Capps on Sunday, June 24th at 12:30 p.m. He had been in very poor health for several years, afflicted with kidney, bladder and other complications.

In the afternoon on Thursday preceding his death Sunday, he fell off the porch three feet high and received some injuries. Of course his friends picked him up and carried him in and put him to bed. It was thought by his friends that he had a stroke that caused the fall from the porch. However, he rapidly grew worse until death closed the seam and ended his suffering. His wife was at the bedside as much as possible, doing all she could, other relatives assisting, doing what they could to relieve his suffering. The writer was informed by his wife that she be near and hold his hand in hers when he came to die. She said the request was carried out.

F.A. Curry was the son of Michael and Mary Curry; was born in Mahaska County, Iowa, December 23rd 1855. His parents moved to Miller County when he was a small boy. In this county he lived all his life except about 20 years he spent in the west, returning from the west he was united in marriage to Mary Ann Piles, April 23, 1907. Rev. F.M. Stickney of Eldon performed the ceremony.

He located at Capps, went into the mercantile business. This business he followed until a few months ago when he sold out his business to Lewis Jarrett. The weight of years and failing health was the cause of his retiring. About 20 years ago he was converted and united with the Humphreys Creek Christian Church. He was an efficient and loyal member and an ardent supporter of the church. He was a member of the Order of the Knights of Pythius, Seattle, Wash. The sudden death of Mrs. J. L. McCommons, of near Ulman, Saturday afternoon came as a stunning shock to her many relatives and friends here and elsewhere. She apparently had been in fair health but was stricken early Saturday afternoon and passed away about 4:00 o'clock. In the absence of her husband, who was away at a distant farm at work in the fields, she managed to phone for aid from her daughter, Mrs. Wesley Clark of Ulman, who summoned a doctor and relatives here, but before they could all arrive she had passed peacefully away.

Margaret Emily, daughter of Samuel and Phoebe Caroline Graham, early pioneer citizens of Miller County, was born near Brumley, MO, Feb. 9, 1872, the youngest of a family of seven children; passed away at her home near Ulman, March 12, 1938, being at the time of her death 66 years of age.

Mr. and Mrs. McCommons in early married life lived on their farm in the Bear Creek community near Brumley, where they worked and prospered, but later moved to their present home near Ulman where they continued to live until her death. She, by her faithfulness and integrity, contributed much to the well being of her husband and children, ever admonishing and teaching them in the right, and by her conscientious devotion she was rewarded by being permitted to live to see them all prosper and establish happy homes for themselves, and what more could a kindhearted Christian mother wish? She was a devoted Christian and attended church at every opportunity, never shirking the duty of serving her Master whenever duty called. She loved everyone, and it can truly be said that she went about doing good.

Funeral services were held from the Ulman Baptist Church Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock with the Rv. Raymond Gilbreath, pastor of the Eldon Methodist Church and a dear friend of the family, and Rev. G. Omar Hickey, her former pastor, in charge. Song services were in charge of T.C. Likewise, he also was a leader in promoting better livestock production, and would have only the best on his premises. He could talk with conviction to his friends and neighbors on the merits or demerits of this or that breed of livestock. His naturally cheery disposition was an inspiration to not only those of the farm circle but to everyone with whom he came in contact.

Frank C. Ferguson and Clarence L. Casey of this place motored to Kansas City last Friday night, where they attended the double funeral services of the former's nephew, pilot Otto Ferguson, and co-pilot Harry G. Lewis, both killed in an airliner crash in Pennsylvania Tuesday of last week.

The combined rites were held in the Stine & McClure chapel Saturday morning in the presence of a large concourse of people. The main and auxiliary chapels were crowded with TWA pilots, members of the air corps reserve, relatives and friends of the two pilots when the Rev. Goodrich R. Fenner, rector of the St. Andrews Episcopal Church, took his place beside the flag-draped caskets. A huge bank of flowers covered the entire rear chapel wall.

Mr. Fenner spoke the plain ritual service of the Episcopal Church without eulogy or sermon. Both Mrs. Ferguson and Mrs. Lewis are connected with the St. Andrews Episcopal Church. The pallbearers were TWA pilots, members of the army corps reserve and other close friends of the two men.

Immediately after the funeral services the body of Mr. Ferguson was taken to Versailles for burial and that of Mr. Lewis to Columbus, Jansas.

When the body of pilot Ferguson arrived at Versailles a large crowd had gathered at the cemetery to pay their last tribute of respect to the departed airman. Brief final rites were held at the grave at three o'clock in the afternoon while two U.S. Army planes droned overhead. In their last salute to the dead pilot, the flyers dropped floral wreaths on the grave.

Ora was a single man and resided on the farm with his parents, assisting his father in the operation of the farm. His passing is sadly mourned, not only by his immediate relatives, but by his many friends and associates.

Mr. Ora Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Williams, was born June 19, 1896; died February 22, 1936 at Iberia, Missouri. It was in this community that, as a farmer, he spent the greater part of his life; and it was here that he acquired the host of friends who will mourn his passing.

Soon after the United States entered the World War, Ora enlisted in the U.S. Navy, remaining in that branch of the service until February, 1919. Subsequently he became an active member of the American Legion with his membership in the Fremont Watkins Post at Iberia.

Although he never definitely sought church membership, Ora was both by profession of belief and by example in his daily life, a Christian man. His kindly presence, his generous nature, and his sterling character generally were an inspiration to all who knew him.

The newspaper obit spells her name "Gross", the death certificate on line has it as "Grass", and cemetery listing is "Groce".

Last Thursday, February 6th, death again invaded the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Winfrey of the Brumley community and claimed Mrs. Walter Gross, mother of Mrs. Wilfred Winfrey who died on Friday before January 31, of pneumonia.

Mrs. Gross had gone to the home of her daughter to wait on her when she, herself, contracted pneumonia and was seriously ill at the time of Mrs. Winfrey's death. She is survived by her husband, three sons and three daughters, all of whom we understand, live elsewhere.

Funeral services were held at the Brumley Baptist Church last Friday and were conducted by Rev. Virgil Smith of Brumley. Burial was made in the Hawkins Cemetery under direction of the Adams & Casey funeral service of Iberia.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Cleve Pendleton of the Sudheimer community east of Iberia was saddened Tuesday when death in a singular manner plucked from their embrace their six months old infant son.

The infant had been placed on the bed by his mother while she was performing household duties in another room. When she returned to the room in which she left the baby, she found it dead, hanging by the chin between the bed railing and the wall. The child evidently in flouncing around on the bed started to fall and was caught between the railing and the wall.

Funeral services for the infant were held Wednesday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock and burial in the Union Cemetery.

The Iberia Sentinel, January 1935

Iberia citizens were shocked Tuesday morning of this week when the news reached here that Parker Casey, a former Iberia boy, passed away at St. Joseph Hospital in Kansas City, Mo., early that morning following an operation for appendicitis.

Parker had been to Little Rock, Ark., to visit his little daughter and on his return home Wednesday night, January 2nd, he suffered an attack of appendicitis. After reaching Kansas City he was rushed to the hospital early Wednesday morning where he underwent an operation. For a few days following the operation his condition seemed to be satisfactory, but poison complications set up which, in spite of attention by skilled physicians, proved fatal.

Carl Parker Casey, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. J.S. Casey, was born in Iberia January 23, 1905. He spent his boyhood days here with his parents who were among our best and most influential citizens for many years prior to their moving to Kansas City. Parker was considered a strong, young man—the very picture of health, but again his passing reminds us of the fact that the grim Reaper of Death takes the strong as well as the weak.

His body is being brought back here today and will lay in state at the home of his brother, C.L. Casey, until Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock when funeral services will be held from the Baptist Church, conducted by the pastor, Rev. John Phillips, Dr. G. Byron Smith and Rev. P.J. Eckhoff, after which interment will be made in the family burial lot in the town cemetery.

The deceased is survived by his little daughter; parents, Mr. and Mrs. J.S. Casey; brothers Clint and Clark, and sisters, Mrs. Phillip Judy and Mrs. Josephene Drew, all of Kansas City, and brother, C.L. Casey, and sister, Mrs. Earl Irwin, both of Iberia.

His father, who is in West Palm Beach, Florida, for the benefit of his health, will not be able to attend the funeral.

Adolph Struempf

Returning from work in a St. Louis factory, Mrs. Grace Struempf found her husband, Adolph, shot and fatally wounded on the bedroom floor of their home 20_6a Cleveland Boulevard at 5:30 p.m. Thursday.

She summoned neighbors and rushed him to ST. Elizabeth's Hospital in an ambulance where he died a few minutes later in the emergency room without regaining consciousness. The bullet had entered his head just above the right ear, lodging in the brain.

Mrs. Struempf said she discovered her husband a moment after arriving home. It was not known how long he had lain wounded and alone on the floor, but Mrs. Edward Ennis, who occupies the downstairs apartment, said she heard a report and the sound of a falling object sometime around 4:30 pm., but paid no attention to it.

Less than a foot from Struempf's right hand was a new .22 calibre snub nosed revolver. The nine chambers were loaded with .22 long cartridges and one had been discharged. Nearly a full box of bullets was found in a bureau drawer in the bedroom.

Mrs. Struempf said her husband had never owned a revolver and she was not aware that he had one until she saw it on the floor beside his body. She did not know when or where he had acquired it.

Both the police and the widow believe Struempf committed suicide. While he had never threatened to take his own life, she said he had been under a St. Louis physician's care for some time due to a stomach disorder. He was also greatly worried about his elderly father, John Struempf, who is in a critical condition at St. Mary's Hospital in Jefferson City, Mo., following an operation. Mrs. Struempf said. They had gone there last weekend to visit him.

Struempf, who was 32 years old, had steady employment at the Granite City Steel Co. and worked until 3 p.m. on the day of his death. He had evidently gone home, loaded the revolver from the new box of cartridges, and killed himself.

Two sisters of Mrs. Struempf, Misses Ethel and Crethen Humphrey, who live at the Cleveland Boulevard address, were away and did not arrive home until after the body was found.

The remains were taken Saturday from Mercer's Funeral Home to St. Elizabeth, Mo., where interment was made.

Ex-Judge James Colvin Meets Tragic Death

C.L. Casey, embalmer and funeral director of Iberia, was called to prepare the body for burial. Funeral services conducted by Rev. Virgil Smith, were held Sunday afternoon, at 3 o'clock from the Mt. Union Church in Miller County, near the Colvin farm where he and his family lived prior to their moving to Camden County.

Mr. Colvin was born May 4, 1877, being 57 years, 5 months and 2 days of age at the time of his death. He was married to Maggie Cochran (other sources give her maiden name as Fendorf) and to this union thirteen children were born, ten of whom are living. He is also survived by his widow, two sisters and one brother.

Mr. Colvin bore the reputation of being a law abiding and highly respected citizen of the communities in which he resided, and his untimely death is deeply deplored by his many friends and neighbors. He served two terms as associate judge of the county court of Miller County, from the second district, and his services in this capacity proved himself a man of justice and sound judgment.

Ex-Judge James Colvin, formerly of Miller County, met a tragic death last Saturday morning when he was shot and killed on his premises by Samuel McCracken. Both Colvin and McCracken lived on the same farm known as the Dave Wiseman place near Glaize City in Camden County. The farm, which recently fell into the hands of a loan company, was owned by McCracken prior to the time the loan company took over. We are informed that Colvin leased a portion of the farm and moved onto it over a year ago and that McCracken still retained possession of a part of it. It seems that a dispute arose some time ago over possession and the division of the crops which became embittered, culminating in the tragic accident.

According to authentic reports, Colvin went afoot to the field Saturday morning in advance of his sons who were to follow in the wagon. Before advancing far into the field, it is alleged that McCracken had concealed himself, armed with a shotgun, behind a corn shock and as Colvin approached, McCracken fired, the discharge from the weapon hitting Colvin in the shoulder, inflicting a ghastly wound.

No one witnessed the shooting, but judging from the tracks found on the ground, it appeared that Colvin had been able to recover his standing position and when he arose he was shot again, the discharge from the gun this time tearing away the entire front part of his face. McCracken fired, leaving his gun and when the Colvin boys reached the scene of the battle their father was breathing his last.

The sheriff of Camden County was at once notified of the fatal shooting and he joined by a posse of neighbors and other nearby citizens, went in pursuit of the alleged criminal. He was taken near Toronto and after being forced to surrender, he confessed, it is said, to the crime. His alibi was that that he did the shooting in self defense, claiming that Colvin approached him with an open knife, however this statement was refuted by the finding that Colvin's knife was still closed in his pocket. McCracken was arrested and placed in the Camden County jail at Camdenton to await his preliminary hearing which, we understand, was held Monday.

The Iberia Sentinel, June 1936

Everett Bilyeu (spelled Belyeu on the death certificate), 52, farmer of near St. Anthony, was shot by Everett Stark, his neighbor, at noon Sunday and died almost instantly from a charge of No. 2 shot fired at close range from a 10-gauge double-barrel shotgun. The charge struck Bilyeu just below the heart and tore a two-inch hole in Bilyeu's abdomen, death coming almost instantly.

Stark and Bilyeu lived on the same farm, the Taylor Shelton place. Stark at the old building down on Wimmer Creek and Bilyeu at the log house on that part of the farm known as the George Clark place, which had, in recent years, been purchased and added to the larger creek farm.

According to information available, Stark and his wife had on various occasions in the past, been quarreling. On Saturday, Mrs. Stark left her home and went on the hill to the Bilyeu house. Later in the night, Stark came to the Bilyeu home and demanded that Bilyeu give him a gun which belonged to Mr. Shelton. Bilyeu refused, and Stark claims that Bilyeu fired the gun at him as he was in the act of entering his car, a number of the shot striking the car, but not injuring Stark.

Then early Sunday morning Stark came up to the Bilyeu home and both parties apologized. Later the same morning Bilyeu took with him a bucket of scraps to feed his dog which he had loaned to Stark, and went down to the Stark home. This was the last time Bilyeu's family saw him alive.

About 12:30 Stark approached the home of a neighbor, Joe M. Bax, and told him that he had shot Bilyeu, and said he wanted to call Frank Burks of Iberia, deputy sheriff, and give up. Burks then called Sheriff Lafe King, who went to the scene of the tragedy.

Sheriff King found the body of Bilyeu lying in a draw between the garage and the machinery shed. He was lying on his back, his right hand over his head and clutching his cap, while at his side was a pitchfork and near his feet was the bucket of scraps, undisturbed. There were no eye-witnesses to the shooting.

Stark told the Sheriff that Bilyeu threatened him with a pitchfork, and that he fired while standing on the approach to the garage, which was a distance of about eight or ten feet from Bilyeu.

King said further that Stark had phoned to him Saturday night asking him to come down and settle a family quarrel, but that he had refused to do so unless Stark would issue a warrant.

Stark was brought to Tuscumbia and lodged in jail awaiting this report of the Coroner, Dr. J.R. Ellison. The inquest will be held at St. Elizabeth Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock of this week.

The body of the victim was taken to Iberia by Adams & Casey, undertakers and burial was held at the Bilyeu Cemetery Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock.

Bilyeu was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Fielding Bilyeu and was born and reared on Humphrey's Creek, eight miles east of Tuscumbia. He was married (his wife being a daughter of John Maylee), and they had three or four children, one son being in CCC camp in California. John and Arthur Bilyeu of the Humphrey's Creek community, and Sgt. Roscoe Bilyeu, instructor in the Army school at Ft. Benning, Ga. are brothers.

The Iberia Sentinel, October 1936

This community was saddened latter part of last week when the news was chronicled that Mrs. Elmer Karr, one of our fine Christian women, and her two infant babes (girls) were dead. Mrs. Karr became critically ill on Friday and was rushed to the Wallace Hospital in Lebanon in the Adams & Casey ambulance. The twin girls were stillborn Friday night and their mother passed away Saturday evening, thus leaving a once happy home a place of sorrow which will be hard to erase.

The mother and her infant babes were brought back to Iberia and prepared for burial, all three in the same casket by Adams and Casey, local funeral directors.

Frances Kinder was born August 1897, in Chicago, where she spent the first few years of her life. Because of the death of her mother, when she was only three years of age, she was sent to the Deaconess Home at Dover, Illinois. It was at Dover that she received her public school education, and it was during these years that she made a profession of Christian faith and united with the Congregational Church at that place. A few years ago she had her membership transferred to the Congregational Church of Iberia.

Through the influence of Rev. Cotton, who was pastor at Dover, Illinois and who had been a former pastor in Iberia, and Prof. Smith, Mrs. Karr came to Iberia where she studied in the Academy. It was here that she met Mr. Elmer Karr who later became her husband. Mr. and Mrs. Karr were united in marriage June 17, 1923 in the Congregational Church at Dover, Illinois. After their marriage they came to Iberia and in this vicinity have made their home.

To Mr. and Mrs. Karr six children were born, namely Charles, Emma, Howard, Eula May and the infant twins. Mrs. Karr has always been a courageous woman, an affectionate wife and mother and a woman of good Christian character. She leaves to mourn her passing, her husband, her four children, two sisters, Mrs. Sophie Rapp of Chicago and Mrs. Bessie Lottis of Crown Point, Indiana, and a number of relatives.

Mrs. Karr died at the Wallace Hospital in Lebanon Saturday, October 17. She was taken to the hospital on Friday. Funeral services were conducted at the home west of Iberia by Rev. P.J. Eckhoff and Professor G. Byron Smith. Burial was made at the Hickory Point Cemetery under the direction of Adams & Casey, local undertakers.

There are some apparent discrepancies/errors in the following obituary. Her death certificate lists her birth ad 19 Aug 1870. If she had been married on the date shown here, she would have been 10 years old. Informant on her death certificate was Lucy Rowden Dake. Her husband's death certificate lists his date of death as 3 Mar 1915.

Mrs. Mary Rowden, who had been in poor health for some time, died of a heart attack last Friday here at the home of her daughter, Mrs. George Dake, with whom she was making her home. Mrs. Mary (Burks) Rowden was born in Iberia August 19, 1871, being 65 years, two months and four days old at the time of her death.

She was married to Joseph Rowden Nov. 8, 1880, and to this union seven children were born, two dead and five living, Mrs. Daisey Hickey, Topeka, Kansas; Pat Rowden, Whiting, Indiana, Mrs. George Dake, Iberia, Missouri, Mrs. Pearl Henson, Dixon, Missouri, and Otto Rowden, St. Anthony, Missouri.

At the age of thirteen she became a member of the Christian Church. Mr. Rowden died March 3, 1914. Mrs. Rowden was the last surviving member of the Burks family, her two brothers having passed away several years ago.

For many years prior to the death of Mr. Rowden, they owned and operated a farm a few miles northeast of Iberia. Since that time Mrs. Rowden has been spending a good portion of her time among her children.

Funeral services conducted by reverend Bill Akery of Dixon, were held in the Iberia Church of the Nazarene Sunday afternoon, after which interment was made in the Bray's Cemetery four miles east of Iberia.

The Iberia Sentinel, October 1936

Funeral services were held for Mr. Sam Allen of Dixon at the Pleasant Hill Christian Church southwest of Iberia, last Thursday, Eld. Frank Money maker conducting the services. Interment was made in the cemetery at that place.

Mr. Allen, about 80 years of age, died at the Rolla hospital of an abdominal ailment Monday night of last week. He was a blind pensioner and had been making his home with his daughter, Mrs. James Watson, in Dixon for the past few years. His wife, oldest sister of James Long of Iberia, sister of James Long of Iberia, died in 1920. He and his family lived in the Pleasant Hill community at that time.

Mr. Allen is survived by two daughters who live in Dayton, Ohio and one daughter and two sons in Dixon.

The Iberia Sentinel, July 1936

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Humphrey, of near the Union Church east of Iberia, was the scene of another tragic accident Tuesday morning shortly before noon hour, when their fourteen-year-old granddaughter, Grace Genevieve Eiffert, daughter of William Eiffert of south of Iberia, met almost instant death from the accidental discharge of a 22 rifle in the hands of her sixteen-year-old brother, Carl. She lived only about forty minutes after she was shot.

Carl had just traded for the gun, had brought it home and was, in some manner, trying to adjust the shell. He was standing up and his sister, Grace Genevieve, was sitting down in a chair near him when the gun accidentally went off. The ball entered her right side and ranged downward and it is thought that it lodged in one of the vertebrae of the spine, since she was rendered unconscious and lived only a short time.

Since the death of her mother on March 12, 1928, Grace Genevieve, her younger sister, Marjorie, age 13, and her brother, Carl, have been making their home with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Humphrey.

As the Sentinel goes to press, according to present arrangements, funeral services will be held at the Union Church, four miles east of Iberia, Thursday morning at ten o'clock. It is not definitely known at this time who will preach the funeral discourse. The entire community mourns the untimely death of this young lady.

Information I have from other reliable sources gives the following individual's name as William Riley Keeth, not Wriley R. Keeth. I'm typing this obituary as it appeared in the paper.

The Iberia Sentinel, February 1936

Wriley R. Keeth passed away at his home near Panama, Oklahoma Saturday, February 8, of pneumonia. If he had lived only a few hours longer until Sunday morning, he would have reached the age of 71 years. He had been in poor health for the past two or three years.

Mr. Keeth was well known in Iberia and vicinity, he having resided on a farm near Iberia for many years prior to his moving to Oklahoma about nineteen years ago. He reared a large family of twelve children, nine sons and three daughters, all of whom are living, the father's death being the first in the family. Slone and Mrs. Evelyn Johnston, all of Panama, Okla., and Mrs. Clara Hale of Longview, Washington. All were present except Frank and Mrs. Clara Hale. Mrs. George Winfrey, an aged lady of the community east of Brumley, died Thursday, April 23, after a long illness. Funeral services were held on Friday 24 and burial made in the Hawkins Cemetery under direction of Adams & Casey funeral services of Iberia.

This makes the third death in this home during the past few months. On January 31, Mrs. Wilfred Winfrey died of pneumonia and on February 6th Mrs. Walter Groce, mother of Mrs. Winfrey also died of pneumonia which she contracted while waiting on her daughter.

According to this obituary, Mrs. George Winfrey's mother was Mrs. Walter Groce. However, the death certificate for Mrs. George Winfrey lists the deceased wife as Sarah Jane Hurt, daughter of Elzy and Elizabeth Jane Garman Hurt.

Mrs. Wilfred Winfrey, also mentioned, is Ersal Ellen Groce, daughter of Walter P. and Bertha Thornsberry Groce.

THE MILLER COUNTY VIDETTE, Tuscumbia, MO, Thursday October 14, 1875

"Last week we noticed the death of one of our most respected citizens, Owen Riggs. We will now attempt a review of his life. He was born in Tyler Co., West Virginia. Was usually called the 'long reach' on the Ohio River. At his death he was 59 years old.

From boyhood, he was raised on a farm on which he was born, and was an industrious and faithful boy, he thus worked until manhood. At this time he done some boating on the Ohio and Missipp (sic) at odd spels when not busy on the farm.

In the year 1838, he came to Miller County and purchased some real estate with a view of someday locating here, but remained on the Virginia farm and continued boating here, but remained on the Virginia farm and continued boating on the Ohio and Mississippi until 1844 when he came to Miller Co. to live.

One of his first deeds and boldest ventures of his eventful life, was the building of a flat boat on the Tavern (Tavern) creek in this county, load it with pork, taking it down the Osage, Missouri and Mississippi rivers into the Yazoo Pass, trading. Finally went down the Mississippi and closed out his load of pork at Vicksburg. He then came back to Miller Co., where he engaged in farming, raising stock, buying and shipping to a very great extend.

In 1847, he married the daughter of Henry C. Lurton, by whom he had 2 daughters, who are both living and married. His first wife died in 1858. In 1863 he married Madada (Malinda) Birdsong, by whom he had 2 children who are now living to mourn his loss.

In 1857, he went into partnership with D. Cunningham (Daniel Cummings) in which venture he lost heavily. During these many years he bought wheat, corn, and tobacco and shipped it. Cororants (cronies) took advantage of his kindness and nichered from him.

He died comparitive poor. His father is still living on the old farm where Owen started in life and is now over 100 years old (born circa 1775). We believe he has but one brother living, Edmond Riggs, who is a resident of this county. During the war the Bushwhackers, supposing him to have a large amount of money and in attempting to force him to disgorge, they built a fire in the woods and burned his legs into a crisp, from which he suffered for many years. In fact, it shattered his constitution so that he never recovered his former self. This was one of the most self (sic) acts that was perpetrated during the War in this part of Missouri.

This imperfect and brief sketch is all we can give as it is next to impossible to get the correct data. We have lost one of our worthiest citizens. May his departed spirit rest in peace....."

NOTE: Owen Riggs established the original town of Old St.Elizabeth on the Osage River in 1869, located on the east bank. He helped to establish the first Catholic Church in Miller Co. when it was built at Old St. Elizabeth about 1870. Owen Riggs once owned 6000 acres in Miller County in its early days. It took 9 years to settle his estate after his death. With his death came the slow demise of Old St.Elizabeth on the Osage.

Mrs. Johnta Keeth, of the community west of Iberia, was gored by an infuriated cow last Saturday morning when she went to the barn to milk. In attempting to separate the mother cow from her young calf, the cow became enraged and began to hook Mrs. Keeth, inflicting with her horns serious injuries about the face, leg and breast. She received two ugly lacerations on the cheek and forehead and another one on her leg. But the most alarming injury was serious bruises about the breast caused by the maddened animal pushing and rolling her on the ground after she was knocked down. For some time Mrs. Keeth's condition was intensely alarming and her husband, who was visiting in Oklahoma, was at once called home as well as her children who lived at a distance.

Dr. F.C. Suggett, the attending physician, reported Mrs. Keeth somewhat improved Wednesday morning and thinks she will recover if no further complications set up.

Mrs. Johntie Keeth (nee Louisa Ellen Stone) of near Iberia, who was gored by an infuriated cow on Saturday morning of November 10th, died of the injuries sustained last Saturday evening about 6 o'clock. For awhile it was thought the injuries would not prove fatal, but complications set up which made her recovery beyond the reach of medical skill.

Mrs. Keeth was a daughter of the late Julius Stone, a well known resident of south Miller County. She was near 72 years of age at the time of her death. She was married to Johntie Keeth many years ago and to this union six children were born, namely: Julius and Everett Keeth of near Iberia, Mrs. Flora Sturdavant of Tulsa, Okla., Wilbert Keeth of Crocker and Mrs. Cora Irwin of Rolla who survive her, one child having died in early life. She is also survived by her husband.

Funeral services conducted by Rev. Virgil Smith of Brumley, were held from the Oak View Christian Church Saturday afternoon, at 3 o'clock, after which the body was conveyed to the Pleasant Hill Cemetery nearby for burial, under direction of Adams & Casey, local undertakers.

Mrs. Keeth was a Christian woman and her passing will deprive the community of one of its most noble women.

The Iberia community was saddened Tuesday, November 12th, when J.F. Law (Joseph Frederick Law), one of our county's most honored and respected citizens, died at the home of Andrew Jackson Bowline - Born August 12, 1841, Died February 13, 1916.

The subject of this sketch was born in Platt County Missouri in 84 and at the age of short five years came with his father, Benjamin Franklin Bowlin to Miller County where he resided until he was about 8 years old, when he moved to Laclede County, but in 1880 he returned to Miller County where he has since lived. Uncle Jack grew up on the Glaize where his father ran a grist mill, a still house and a farm. He learned to be industrious and early in life affiliated with the Baptist Church of which he has been a member throughout his life time. At the age of 18 years he was married to Elizabeth Bird who was a daughter of George Bird of Cooper County, Missouri. In 1885 she was called to that unknown country from whose bourne no traveler returns.

To this union were born thirteen children, eight boys, all living, and five girls, three of whom have passed on to their rest.

In 1888, Mr. Bowlin was married to Sarah Johnson who survives him. To this union one child was born, P. B. Bowlin who has lived with his father and mother on the farm and will continue to live there and care for his mother.

In 1908 on his 66th anniversary and exactly 100 years from the birth of his father, Uncle Jack was made glad by a family reunion at which time all of his children were present as well as his good friends and neighbors. This was the first and only time that he ever saw all of his children together, however they have all been at his bedside during his sickness and death except his son Everett.

The only living brother, Delaney Bowlin came from Tulsa, Oklahoma to see Uncle Jack but arrived too late to be recognized. He is now at Eldon in a serious condition. His other brothers Newton and John and Frank as well as Martha, Elizabeth and Harriett, his three sisters have preceded him to the life beyond the grave.

Andrew Jackson Bowlin was an old soldier being a corporal in Company "B" 46th Regiment, Missouri Infantry. He was honorably discharged and drew a pension during the latter years of his life.

Besides his widow and children he leaves 32 grandchildren and 6 great grand children to mourn their loss as well as his church and many friends.

Uncle Jack Bowline was a noble man, a kindly neighbor, a loving husband, a dutiful father and a good and honorable citizen. He lived an active life, was very supple for a man of his years. May his children as well as all of us emulate his exemplary life.

The funeral was at Riverview Church of which Mr. Bowline was a member the services were conducted by Elder J. S. Mahan, in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives. Though we will not again see Uncle Jack's face, we know that his influence was for good and he will live always in our hearts and minds, made better by his having passed this way. It is our desire to express our sympathy to the bereaved family who are in great sorrow and to give to them the comfort in the God of the Universe who cares for them as well.

PROMINENT TAVERN FARMER PASSES AWAY

Conrad Kemna Dead After an Illness of Several Weeks

On Saturday afternoon, August 4th, (1923) Conrad Kemna departed from this life. A complicated liver trouble from which the patient suffered intensely for several weeks was the cause of death.

Funeral services were held at St. Lawrence Church Sunday afternoon. A Requiem High Mass was celebrated by Rev. F. Bruch Monday morning for the repose of the soul of the departed one. He was near seventy-five years old. Deceased was born and grew to manhood in Osage County. Later he came to Miller County and was one of our most prominent pioneer citizens.

He was married to Miss Mary Bode in the year 1873. She preceded him in death last January a year ago. Their union was blessed with a number of children of whom six survive as follows; Henry, Frank, Ben, Theodore, Adolph, and Mrs. Josephine Stuckenschneider. The children are all married and live in this community. Thirty grandchildren survive who have lost one who was quite fond of them all.

The deceased was a resident of Miller County for nearly 50 years. In the dawn of his manhood he procured a tract of land on the Big Tavern about two miles east of St. Elizabeth. Through many years of persistent toil he converted this tract into one of the finest and best improved farms of this section. Then later, he bought the Bode farm adjoining the old homestead. It is now owned by the son Henry, while the home place has been divided between the sons; Theo., Adolph and Frank. Several years ago the deceased acquired the Dr. J. S. Gregory property in the village of St. Elizabeth to which the couple retired.

It is needless to say that the good works of this veteran leader and Christian soldier will shine forward in this community for a long time. He was a man with strong convictions, a clear vision and a big heart. He was always a staunch Catholic and was well supplied with the graces of this religion when he died.

The premature death of this honorable man is deeply regretted. As a citizen he was in the front ranks. In all his dealings, he was ever known to be sincere, and an honest man. The Eye-Opener, Tuscumbia, Mo., Thursday, January 14, 1892

'Tis with a sad heart and feeling of regret that we this week chronicle the death of Clarence E. Folsom, son of Mrs. John W. Fogelman, who was one of Tuscumbia's most promising young men, and whose sickness we mentioned last week.

A week ago last Sunday Clarence had a tooth pulled and went skating. His face began to swell and erysipelas set in causing blood poison and his lungs also became affected by the cold he had taken and pneumonia set in. It seemed beyond medical skill to give him relief and at 9 p.m. on Monday he departed this life.

Deceased was the only living son of T.A. and A.P. Folsom, having had three brothers or sisters to go before him.

The funeral was preached at the Presbyterian Church by Rev. L.S. Garrett, of Aurora Springs, on Wednesday at 2 p.m., who selected as his text the thirty-second verse of the twenty-fourth chapter of Matthew. From the church the remains were conveyed to the city cemetery for interment followed by a vast concourse of relatives and friends.

The pall bearers were John W. Adcock, Edward Kallenbach, Willie Earp, Chas. Thompson, Wm. M. Cummings and A.B. Breen who were his most intimate friends in life.

We extend our heart-felt sympathy to the mother and other relatives in this their sad bereavement.

The Miller County Vindicator, Tuscumbia, Mo., Friday, May 20, 1881

Last Sunday evening James Allen, a colored boy about 14 years old, went to the Tavern Creek about two miles east of this Place (Tuscumbia) to go in bathing, and while in the water he got beyond his depth and was drowned. He had been saved once before during the day by another colored boy who rescued him at the risk of his own life, but this time there was no one but some small boys with him, and he had to take the result of his own rashness. His body was recovered in about two hours.

The Miller County Vindicator, Tuscumbia, Mo., Friday, August 26, 1881

Died-August 21st, Marion Manning of Sand Hill congregation. Bro. Manning was a Christian and was well beloved by all good people. We sympathize with his relatives and the congregation of which he was a worthy member. His loss will be felt by both; but he gains all and loses nothing. Blessed thought.

The Miller County Vindicator, Tuscumbia, Mo., Friday, November 25, 1881

Mr. Oathanial Wyrick departed this life on the 6th of November, 1881 at the residence of his son V.L. Wyrick in Seligman, Berry County, MO., after a long illness of ten weeks in which time he entirely lost his eyesight, and his world was total darkness to him for about two and one-half months. He was at his son's when he was taken to his bed. During his sickness, his son moved to Seligman. When Grandfather was brought in my house he was not there long until he began to mend. In two weeks he could set up and see one walking about him, and in six weeks from the time he was brought to my house, he could walk across the floor with only the support of his cane, and he could see tolerable well, could distinguish persons, and on the 20th of May when he was taken away he was able to walk out to the hack. This was another trying day for Grandfather. He did not want to leave my family, for he often told me so, nor was I willing for him to leave, only on certain conditions, and this we thought for his benefit, but instead of his getting better, he grew worse. After they reached the station about one mile distant, they entered the cars and fifty miles weary ride for poor Grandfather. They landed in Seligman, where he was taken to his bed again, and suffered those long summer days, through, when God relieved him of his pain, on the 6th day of November, 181, at the age of 67 years, 3 months and 25 days . My dear relatives and friends, if God spares our lives, we will all grow old and we will all need helping hand, to support our tottering footsteps.

My dear relatives, Grandfather is gone to try the realities of an unknown world to us, and we know not how long it will be before we are called to try the same. So therefore let us be prepared to meet the Father in peace; let us so live that we can say as Grandfather did, we are willing to die, we are willing to leave this world. May God grant us all a peaceful and willing hour in which to die. Let us be prepared to meet those who have crossed over the river of death, for

They are watching at the portal,
They are waiting at the door;
Waiting only for our coming,
Oh! The loved ones gone before.

The bereaved ones will have their grief shared by one granddaughter of the deceased.

The Miller County Vindicator, Friday, November 3, 1882

Belle A. Weldon, wife of Thomas H. Weldon departed this life Oct. 16th, 1882, after an illness of 23 days. She was born in Miller County, Mo., February 28th, 1862, and became a member of the Christian Church some four years ago near the time she was married.

She was the mother of two dear little jewels, one a little boy had fallen asleep July 25th, and its little spirit was the first to enter the bright spirit land. As a wife she was all that could be expected of mortal woman—ever kind, loving, sympathizing and protecting. She lived true to her profession, and her life was full of golden fruits of the spirit.

The bereaved have the sympathy of many friends, and they have the blessed assurance that her spirit is at rest.

Unknown Publication, April 1911

Our people were saddened Tuesday afternoon, April 18, 1911, when it was learned that Elias Stillwell, one of our aged and respected pioneer citizens had died at the family home on Main Street that afternoon at 2:30 O'clock.. His condition has been critical several weeks since he received a fall and his death was not unexpected.

Elias Stillwell was born July 30, 1820, in Hancock County, Maryland, and had he lived until July 30 he would have been ninety-one years of age. At the age of nineteen years he left home, going to Jelloway, Knox County, Ohio, where he was married to Mary Ann Hamrick in 1844. To this union six children were born, four of whom survive, Orl, of Warrensburg; Robert of Pleasant Hill, Millard of Warrensburg, and Mrs. Ola St. Clair, of Kansas City. Mrs. Stillwell departed this life in 1858. The family moved to Pettis County, Missouri, and at the breaking out of the Civil War Mr. Stillwell was living in Georgetown. He responded to the call of President Lincoln for three months' volunteers and enlisted in the 6th Mo. Cavalry. After the expiration of his enlistment he located in Sedalia. In 1864 he moved to Warrensburg and engaged in the mercantile business. In 1865 he was married to Mary Ann Brinkmann, to whom seven children were born, four of whom survived their father as follows: Walter S. of Tuscumbia; Oren of Muskogee, Oklahoma; Ira of the Phillipine Islands and Miss Stella who is still at home.

When but twenty years of age Mr. Stillwell united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, remaining a member of the church and living a consistent Christian life for more than seventy years. In his dealings with his fellow men he was strictly honest, upright and charitable, and his good deeds will long be a consolation and a pleasant memory to his bereaved relatives and friends. His was a long and useful live and the world is the better for his living. It is to such citizens as the deceased that honor is due for this development of the country and making it possible for those of the present day to enjoy our wholesome institutions following in the wake of the privations suffered by our pioneers. Such lives as Mr. Stillwell lived will long remain fresh in the memory of those who knew him.

The Miller County Autogram-Sentinel, February 1928

Willard Bear was born Oct. 13, 1888, died Feb 25, 1928, at his home in Ulman, Mo., being at the time of his death 39 years, four months and 12 days old. He suffered for two weeks more than mortal tongue can tell, yet he bore his suffering with the greatest patience. All that skilled physicians, willing hands and loving hearts could do, was done, but all to no avail. His work was done and the Lord said, "Come up higher."

When but a youth he joined the U.S. Army and served his country three years, 18 months of that time being spent in the Philippine Islands. He enlisted in the World War May 28, 1917. He was Sergeant of Co. E. 157th Inf. He served 18 months in France and was honorably discharged April 29, 1919.

He was a member of the Masonic order at Brumley. Last, but not least, he was a member of the Church of Christ, the writer having had the pleasure of taking his confession and baptizing him into Christ Dec. 26, 1926. He was faithful to the church and Bible school. He never failed to be at the little church house on Lord's Day morning. We shall meet, but we shall miss him.

Funeral services were held from the Ulman Church of Christ Monday, Feb. 27, at which time the writer tried to speak words of comfort to the sorrowing ones. From there he body was conveyed to the Hickory Point Cemetery by Adams & Casey, undertakers. Here again the body was viewed by relatives and friends who could not be present at the funeral.

After the last sad rites he was borne by his Masonic brothers to his last resting place where one of the most impressive services was held I ever witnessed. The little mound that hid from view his lifeless form was covered with the most beautiful flowers I ever saw. Brother Bear leaves to mourn their loss an aged mother with whom he was living and caring for at the time of his death; also six sisters, a host of other relatives and friends. And now to those to whom he was near and dear—let us bow our heads in humble submission to Him that doeth all things well and until that great day we say, dear son, dear brother, dear one, farewell.—R.F. Moneymaker, Crocker

The Eldon Advertiser, October 1918

W.T. Franklin, son of Mr. and Mrs. J.S. Franklin, one of the most prominent and wealthy pioneer families of Miller County, passed away at Camp Pike, Ark., Thursday and the body was brought home Friday and buried in the Eldon Cemetery. A very large crowd attended the services held on the home lawn Sunday afternoon.

A splendid choir and Decker's Band furnished music and an impressive sermon was preached by Rev. W.L. Reese, pastor of the Christian Church assisted by Rev. Edmond Wilkes of Columbia, a former pastor.

William Thomas Franklin was born in Eldon, June 16, 1897. He became a member of the Christian Church in August 1907. He graduated from the local High School in the year 1915 and graduated from Culver Military Academy in 1916 where they conferred on him a membership in the Black Horse Troop, which is considered an honor. For a year and a half he was a student in the Missouri University and a member of the Greek Letter Fraternity, Phi Delta Theta.

He volunteered in the United States Army on the 17th of June 1918. He received appointment to the Infantry Officers Training Camp and was called to Camp Pike, Ark., August 19, 1918. He was a member of the 6th Company, 2nd Battalion, Infantry Officers Training Camp. The family was glad that he was patriotic and loved his country and humanity enough to offer himself for service in this, the world's greatest crisis. His Captain in the following letter to his father speaks of him in most admirable terms:

“Mr. J.S. Franklin, Eldon, Mo., My dear Mr. Franklin:

It is my duty to inform you that your son, Private William T. Franklin, died at 4:20 a.m., October 10, 1918 of Bronchopneumonia, bilateral. Your son entered the Base Hospital, Camp Pike, Ark., Oct. 4, 1918.

He was an excellent soldier and generous. Though his privileges and circumstances might have caused him to be otherwise yet there were none of the lowly too humble for his association, and to be recipients of his kindness and generosity. His father told me this morning that he had this consolation, “He was a good boy.”

In our church association we found him most attentive. While at home he was always present at our Sunday School and church and seldom were the doors open that Will was not there.

--Rev. W.L. Reese

Funeral services were held at 2 p.m. Saturday at Phillips Chapel in Eldon for Mrs. Sarah Leona Carrender of 308 S. Mill St. Eldon, Miller County's oldest resident.

Mrs. Carrender, who observed her 100th birthday last Dec. 8, died shortly after midnight Thursday morning, July 12, she passed away at the home in Eldon where she lived with two daughters, Mrs. Essie Wynkoop and Mrs. May Dobson. She was a lifetime resident of Miller County, and had lived in Eldon for 40 years.

Mrs. Carrender, noted for her uncomplaining nature and kind words for everyone, had been a partial invalid since suffering a broken hip Dec. 22, 1950. A broken arm suffered in a fall more than five years ago, further complicated her difficulties in moving around the house. However her health in general had been good until Aug 10, 1961. When questioned about her condition, though she never complained, and often replied to visitors, "I feel pretty good; if I feel this well tomorrow, I think I'll get up."

Mrs. Carrender enjoyed the hobbies of knitting and piecing quilts until her broken wrist curtailed these activities. She maintained an interest in events and regularly listened to the radio. When her health no longer permitted her to attend church, she listened to sermons and hymns on the air and up until two months ago, joined in singing gospel songs she heard on the radio.

Mrs. Carrender, whose life span stretched from the Civil War to the space age was born Dec. 8, 1861, on a farm four and a half miles north of Tuscumbia. She was the oldest child in the family of seven children of W.T. and Irene Ann (Tomson) Harrison. She was reared on this family farm, and attended school in the Wright district, a log schoolhouse in the Saline Creek community. Her mother passed away when she was 16 years of age, and she assumed the care of her younger brothers and sisters.

On August 14, 1881, she was married to W.G. Carrender, and they started housekeeping on a farm in the Saline Creek community east of Eldon. Most of her more than 100 years were spent within 12 miles of her birthplace.

Her husband died on March 7, 1922. Since then, Mrs. Carrender had made her home with a daughter, Mrs. Wynkoop.

Early in life she united with the Harmony Methodist Church, transferring her membership to the Eldon Methodist Church in about 1923.

Mrs. Carrender is survived by four generations of descendants. In addition to her daughters, Mrs. Dobson and Mrs. Wynkoop, of the home in Eldon, she leaves two sons and another daughter: H.O. Carrender of Kansas City, Mo.; O.E. Carrender of Lexington, Mo., and Mrs. Anna J. Allen of Kansas City, Kan. Also surviving are 13 grandchildren, 16 great-grandchildren, and 11 great-great-grandchildren. A son, Williard A., died April 27, 1958, and another son, Charles J., on June 3, 1961.

Mrs. Rebecca Robison died at her home in Capps, Mo., Nov. 25, 1910, after suffering for some time with bronchitis. She was born in Warren County, Mo., Oct. 2, 1856. Her maiden name was Lee, a daughter of Phillip Lee of Tulsa, Oklahoma. She was united in marriage to E. Robison Oct. 3, 1878. To this union 9 children were born and 8 are still living. Little Ira, who died in infancy, preceded dear mother to that better land.

The funeral was conducted on the 27th by Rev. C.M. Sooter at the Christian Newlight Church. The sermon was very impressive. A host of sympathizing friends mingled their tears with those of the bereaved relatives as the casket was lowered to its last resting place.

She has been a noble companion, so kind and true, but now her lifeless form lies silent in the grave.

'Tis hard to break the tender cord,
When love has bound the heart;
'Tis hard, so hard, to speak the word,
Must we forever part.

Dearest loved one we have laid thee,
In thy peaceful grave's embrace;
But thy memory will be cherished
Till we see thy heavenly face.

Her last words were, "O, my dear Savior have mercy on me and stand by me in death", then she reached her hand to her nurse and said, "Goodbye, Mary, I am going home."

Written by a friend who will be with her family in their sorrows – Mary Curry, Capps, Mo.

Funeral services over the remains of William Thomas Thomson were held at the First M.E. Church Tuesday afternoon and interment was made in Oak Grove. The Rev. T.H. Hounsel conducted the services at the church and the Odd Fellows, of which the deceased had been a member, conducted the services at the grave. The Marietta Band led the cortege from the church to the grave and the other fraternal organizations, to which Mr. Tomson had belonged, were in line.

William Thomas Tomson was born August 22, 1859 near Jefferson City, Missouri. His ancestors came to America from Parthshire, near Glasgow, North Britain, commonly called Scotland, first settling in the Bermuda Islands, but later, in 1634, joined the Calvert expedition en route and came to Maryland, where, on the Isle of Kent and the Islands of Chesapeake Bay South, and the mainland of the Eastern shore, they lived uninterruptedly for nearly 200 years, when the deceased's ancestor, the Rev. Thomas Tomson, migrated westward.

The family of which the deceased was a part can trace its tendency for generations to literary pursuits, poetry, music and religion. His great-grandfather was the poet, Henry Tomson, and his great-grandmother was Elizabeth Lee.

Many beautiful floral offerings were sent by the host of friends of Mr. Tomson. Mr. Tomson's niece and his uncle, Mr. D.F. Tomson, of Missouri, and his sister-in-law, Mrs. J. F. Tomson of Kossuth, Miss., who were present for the funeral, desire to express their appreciation of the great respect shown their beloved relative by the members and employees of the Stevens Organ & Piano Company, the Odd Fellows, the Ben Hurs and the Marietta Band. They also would thank the members of the Methodist Church and particularly the minister, the Rev. T.H. Hounsel, and all of the good friends of Marietta, whose sympathy was so unmistakably, so genuinely, and so universally bestowed on them in their hour of trouble.

Unknown Publication, December 1913 Susan Wyrick Sandfort Vaughan

Aunt Susey as we loved to call her was born in Tennessee Jan. 23, 1822*, and came to Missouri with Mr. Wyrick, her father, where she has ever since lived. She was married to John F. Sandfort about the year 1845 to which union was born four children, two of whom survive her; W.T. Sandfort of near Bagnell and Susan M. Cotten, wife of James Cotten of near Bagnell.

The death angel came and took her companion after which she was married to Joshua Vaughn about the year 1856. To this union was born two boys and one girl; but only one survives her, Jefferson Davis Vaughan of near T-----. In 1882 death again entered her home and took her companion after which she lived for many years with her children.

At the time of her death she was at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Cotten. She died Dec 8 at 5 p.m. She said: "I am tired" and as her daughter and step son, James Vaughan, leaned over her bed she said: "I am only waiting for that rest", and her soul left its temple of clay for its mansion not made with hands, eternal in the heavens, after having lived here 90 years, 10 months and 10 days.

She was mother of 7 children, step mother of 18, grandmother of 40, great-grandmother of 30. She had been a devoted Christian for 75 years, having united with the Missionary Baptist Church when young, of which she has ever been a faithful member, often walking long distances to attend her church meetings.

After a song and prayer the body was removed to the Tol-Woods Cemetery where the funeral was conducted by Eld. J.M. Henderson in the presence of a large and sorrowing congregation, using 2 Cor. 5th Chap., 1st Verse, after which the body was placed in the tomb to await the resurrection. We none feel her loss more than her step son, James Vaughan, as he took our hand and said, "Mother has gone home."

-J.M. Birdsong

* Cemetery records list her birth year as 1826, death certificate gives 1823, the latter is consistent when calculated from the age of 90 years 10 months and 10 days.

Mrs. J.H. (Lucy A.) Wickham died at her home in Eldon Friday noon following an illness of several months' duration. She was a descendant of one of Miller County's prominent pioneer families being a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Martin, who lived near Ulman many years. Her father was known as "Big George" Martin to distinguish him from the other George Martins related to the family. She was born Jan. 30, 1859.

Early in life she was united in marriage to John Brumley, who preceded her in death some 30 years. Two children were born of this union—Ivy Brumley of Detroit, Mich., and Livona Brumley, who married E.H. Lurton, but is now deceased. Mrs. Ray Wickham of Tuscumbia and Mrs. H. Morrow, 1220 Campbell St., Kansas City, Mo. are daughters of the last-mentioned.

She was married September 1909 to Jobe H. Wickham while Mr. Wickham resided on his farm south of Tuscumbia. Soon afterwards Mr. Wickham gave the management of the farm to his son Ray and then he and his wife moved to Eldon where they continued to reside until her death.

To this union 10 children—4 boys and six girls were born. Two preceded her in death. Those living are George Stark of Oklahoma, Jesse and Wm. Stark of Miller County, Mrs. S.P. Besides these she leaves aged husband, one brother, Hugh Wyrick, and three sisters, namely, Mrs. Mollie Wolf, Mrs. Cordella White and Miss Lena Wyrick, besides a host of relatives and friends to mourn her loss.

She was a good woman and all who knew her spoke well of her. She united with the Church of Christ when about 22 years old and lived a devoted Christian life until God saw fit to call her to her reward. All was done by helping hands and skilled physicians that they knew to do to prolong her life but to no avail. God's will, not ours be done.

Funeral services were held at the old homestead January 31st, where they had spent so many years together and were conducted by the writer, where quite a number of sorrowing relatives and friends came to pay their last respect to this good woman. Scriptural lesson: Ecclesiastes 12th chapter. Words of comfort were spoken to the bereaved ones. She will be sadly missed by all who knew her but our loss is her eternal gain.

Called home from service to reward, called home from toil to rest; Thy soul from earthly scenes hath gone to dwell among the blest.

Called home with all thy work complete and with thy race all run; The Master's voice to thee hath said the blessed words, "Well Done."
