WHAT'S NEW AT THE MUSEUM

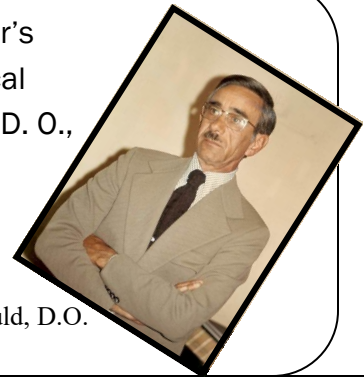

Post Office Display

Our post office display is taking shape. We still have some work to do and are looking for additional artifacts to display. We would especially like to have a mail bag that belonged to a rural Miller County mail carrier. We are also in need of pictures of more of the old post offices.

Myron Douglas Jones, D.O.

We have also added a few things to our doctor's office. We were pleased to acquire the medical bags & other memorabilia of Myron D. Jones, D. O., of Brumley & William A. Gould, D.O., of Iberia. Come in & check it out!

William A. Gould, D.O.

THIS 'N THAT

- The museum now has a complete index of all the obituaries that we have. At this time the index is available "in-house" only. Please e-mail us if you would like a look-up.
- Some Kansas websites to explore: Kansas Memory <kansasmemory.org>, The History Gateway at Kansas <vlib.us/history>, Kansas Native American Genealogy <ksngenweb.org/nativeam>

HOW TO SAVE PHOTOS FROM MAGNETIC ALBUMS

We've known for a long time that magnetic photo albums are very bad for photos. The polyvinyl chloride plastic sheets and high-acid cardboard pages greatly increase the rate of photo deterioration. Below are some suggestions for saving these photos.

- Before doing anything else, take a photo of each page of the album.
- Carefully remove images from the album. It is best to loosen the print from the page using a microspatula. It is not recommended that you freeze the album or use solvents to try to remove the photos.
- Scan each photo on a flatbed scanner with a resolution of 600 DPI for prints at full color.
- Store individual photos that you have removed from the album in acid-free box or in an archival-quality album with acid free pages.
- Upload your digital copies of your photos to an online photo-book creation service such as Shutterfly or Snapfish and create your new album. Remember to add an information page with a short history about the book itself.

DONATION OF ARTIFACTS

- In most instances we only accept items with ties to Miller County.
- Family Bibles need to be passed down to family members. We would, however, love copies of any family information that is written in your Bible.
- Large family portraits that you wish to donate should be in frames as it is sometimes difficult for us to locate a frame that will work with your portrait.
- We would love to add a copy of your family history to our research library!
- If you have photographs to donate, we prefer digital copies with people/places identified. Our plan is to have digital copies of all our photos available to the public in the audio-visual center.
- THANK YOU FOR YOUR CONTINUED INTEREST & GENEROSITY! WE COULDN'T DO THIS WITHOUT YOU!
